

PALMERTON, ABINGTON SCHOOLS RANK HIGHEST
College Registrar Releases Figures Covering 4-Year Period

Of the various Pennsylvania high schools sending students here for the regular session, Palmerton with an index rating of 9-12270 and Abington with 18-13457 rank highest for over a four-year period, according to William S. Hoffman, College registrar.

Others of the 1,500 Pennsylvania high schools that rank high for this period are Chester with 29-24559, Dormont with 27-24678, Doylestown with 10-23700, Germantown with 62-24596, Milton with 7-13670, Oakmont with 12-15500, Reading with 56-24670, Roxborough with 11-1469X, and South Philadelphia with 13-14600.

Although several small high schools had better ratings than the ones listed, they were not considered because of their small size. Only high schools that have sent on an average of two freshmen a year were listed. Smaller high schools that rank high are Apollo and Cochranon.

Advanced Cap, Gown Fee Reduced by $1

A reduction amounting to one dollar for the master's and doctor's caps and gowns was announced this week by the Summer Session authorities. Rebate of this amount will be made to those who have ordered these caps and gowns when they are distributed.

Distribution of caps and gowns will be made on Wednesday and Thursday at Room 35, Education Building. All garments must be returned by Friday noon in order to secure the deposit of $2.50 placed on them.

ATTENDS WISCONSIN SESSION
Prof. William L. Henning, of the department of animal husbandry, is attending the summer session at the University of Wisconsin. He is studying animal breeding and genetics, at the same time satisfying the requirements for residence for the doctor's degree.

STUDENTS TO VISIT TOWER IN OUTING

Summer Excursion Tomorrow Will Include Trip to Greenwood Furnace

An excursion to the Broad mountain forest tower and the Greenwood Furnace will be conducted tomorrow by the College for students of the Summer Session. Those who intend to make the trip should assemble in front of Schwab auditorium at 8 o'clock in the morning.

The forest tower which will be visited tomorrow stands on Broad mountain about 2,300 feet above sea level. From the tower, visitors are able to see thousands of acres of forest land. No walking or mountain climbing is necessary to gain access to the tower.

By virtue of its swimming facilities and its natural scenic charm, Greenwood Furnace, also included in tomorrow's excursion, is considered one of Pennsylvania's best forest recreation centers. The party will return to State College about 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Previous Excursions Listed
Approximately thirty students have been taking advantage of this part of the educational program offered by Summer Session officials. Last Saturday an excursion was conducted to Sinking Valley. Other places of interest in the locality which have been visited include the Huntingdon Reformatory, Penn's Cave, the State Fish hatchery, the Snyder-Middleswarth forest, and the Alan Seager memorial forest.

These excursions are a part of the educational program of the Summer Session. Students interested should make arrangements with Prof. William R. White, of the School of Agriculture. Professor White may be seen in the lobby of the College library from 7:45 o'clock to 8:15 o'clock in the morning and between 12:15 o'clock and 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon. At other times he may be contacted at his office in the Agricultural Experiment Station building.

POST-SESSION TO BEGIN AUGUST 14, 9 O'CLOCK
Education 457 Only Undergraduate Course Offered This Term

Registration for the first Post-Session ever held here will be on Monday morning, August 14, at 9 o'clock in the basement lounge of Old Main, according to an announcement from the Summer Session office. Classes will begin immediately afterward at 10:30 o'clock.

Education 457, Teaching Problems of the Junior High School, is the only undergraduate course which will be offered, this course having been selected by the largest number of applicants. The instructor is not yet decided upon, but will be some member of the educational and psychology staff. It is being given to meet the need for further training in the junior high school field.

No estimate as to the probable enrollment is known as yet since this is the first time the extra session has been offered. Classes will meet twice daily, in the morning and in the afternoon, as was done at Inter-Session.

REPAIRING FRATERNITY
The Phi Delta Theta chapter house is undergoing repairs this summer. The entire first floor is being reconstructed, the heating system is being changed, with several of the radiators being changed, and the outside of the house is being repainted.

STUDENTS COMPLETE THEIR REQUIRED COURSES AT CAMP
Junior students who were completing their required courses in military camps, returned to the College or their homes, last Thursday, according to an announcement from the military department.

Twenty-one students were in the engineering corps at Fort Humphries, Va., three in the chemical warfare service at the Edgewood, Md., arsenal; nineteen in the infantry services at Fort George Meade, Md., and three in the signal corps at Fort Monmouth, N. J.

DIEHL, LOWMAN, QUICK GET COMMISSIONS IN R. O. T. C.
Larry F. Diehl '33, Richard C. Lowman '33, and Robert T. Quick '33, received commissions in the Officer's Reserve Corps, on July 20, according to word received at the military department this week.

The commissions were granted upon the successful completion of infantry camp, and were granted by President Roosevelt.

College Library Tops Circulation Record

All previous records for one month's circulation at the College library were broken during the month of July when 9,058 books were distributed at the desk on the main floor of the library, Willard P. Lewis, College librarian, announced this week. The previous record was set during the 1932 Summer Session when 8,514 books were charged out during the month of July.

Circulation records for one day at the library were also shattered this year when 1,700 books were distributed on the sixth of July to better the previous record by eighteen.

RETAILERS PLAN CONFERENCE HERE

Engineering Extension to Sponsor Third Annual Meeting Here August 20 to 22

Plans for the third annual Retail Conference sponsored by the department of engineering extension in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Retailers association to be held on the campus August 20 to 22 were announced this week.

The National Industrial Recovery Act and its bearing on retail industry has been selected as the topic for discussion at the conference. A discussion of the retail code which is being drawn up at the present time is also planned.

Speakers scheduled to address the conference include George R. Miller of Williamsport, a member of the advisory board of the retail bureau of the engineering extension service, and Charles H. Bear, Jr., of York, who is also a member of the advisory board and one of a committee of sixty in charge of drawing up the retail code. Mr. Miller is making a trip through the states of Virginia, North and South Carolina, and Georgia studying retail conditions at the present time.

Open to all retailers in the State, the conference is expected to attract more than two hundred visitors. The conference will be the first to be held in the State to discuss the National Industrial Recovery Act which is open to retailers from any section of the State.
