When the freshman and varsity gridgers tangle in a practice game on New Beaver Field Saturday afternoon, Lion sports followers will have their first chance of getting a glimpse of husky yearling gridgers. Probably most of the one hundred and thirty-five freshmen on Coach Nels Walke's squad who watched the varsity football frolic last Saturday afternoon are looking forward to their chance to tear down the varsity's forward wall and across the 0 stripe.

With only two lettermen back for the cross country team, Coach "Chick" Werner will have a tough time rounding material into shape to continue Penn State's seven year undefeated streak of dual meets. Recognizing this fact the new mentor has called for mass runs of candidates every afternoon, and if you're out for a round of golf at about 4:30, take care that you avoid the edges of the golf course.

VARSITY WILL PLAY FRESHMAN TEAM SATURDAY

Higgins To Start Heavier Eleven
As Freshmen Hope For Surprise

3' Sophomore Faces To Appear in Opening
Eion Line-up

By FRED W. WRIGHT '35

When a full-fledged Lion meets an inexperienced Cub it generally spells curtains for the yearling.

Considering that Coach Bob Higgins and his Lion gridmen will be on the rebound after the debacle last week, the yearling eleven will be in for one startling jolt when they meet the varsity at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Smarting under the indifferent showing against Lock Haven State Teachers College in a practice game, Captain Tommy Slusser and his mates will have had just the right length of time to think it over. Seven days is just the psychological period.

Higgins Shifts Line-up
Seeking a heavier combination, Coach Higgins has shuffled his varsity line-up for the contest. While no undue stress has been placed on selecting a first-team combination, the Nittany mentor has indicated that the practice game Saturday afternoon will have a lot to do with deciding who will start in the season's opener against Lebanon Valley next week.

Sophomore members of the squad have come to the attention of the coaching staff during the past week and three of them will have a chance to start their first important game. With new faces appearing in the line-up, veterans of three campaigns will watch the start of the game from the bench, since Coach Higgins already knows their capabilities.

In an effort to field a heavier team, Dave Sloan, 185-pound linesman with the freshman eleven last year, has been switched to guard and will pair up with Left Guard Lou Kreizman,

Starting Line-Ups

Varsity	Position	Freshmen
Slusser	LE	Sunday
Cole	LT	O'Dowd
Kreizman	LG	Levinson
Weber	C	Murray
Sloan	RG	Bagabala
Woolbert	RT	Salsbury
McKee	RE	Shirundolu
O'Hora	QB	Girton
Sigel	LB	Cyrnick
Morrison	RB	Rhoda
Skemp	FB	Robbins

veteran of both football field and wrestling mat. Bob Weber, 194-pound junior, will start at center.

"King" Cole and Dick Woolbert, veteran tackles, will be back in their customary positions, while Captain Slusser will lead his mates from left end. Because of his greater weight, Bucky McKee will start at right end, with "Rosie" Rosenberg, his chief competitor, ready to enter the game on short notice.

"Red" O'Hora, freshman mainstay last year, will call signals in the absence of Al Mikelonis, regular field general who is temporarily incapacitated with a charley horse. But Mikelonis' injury isn't the break that gave O'Hora his chance. Coach Higgins has wanted to give him the acid test a long time, and he probably would have been a starter in the game Saturday had Mikelonis been an All-American.

The twins of the Lions' pony backfield, Harry Sigel and Merrill Morrison, will start the game at halfback positions, while Leo Skemp will again be in his usual fullback role. With Tommy Harper temporarily out because of illness, Jim Boring, Fritz Andrews, "Lefty" Knapp, Bill Cooper, and Dick Maurer will see action as shock troops.

Walke Pleased After Watching Plebes
Hold Varsity

By JOHN A. BRUTZMAN '35

"Gee, those kids look good. They're wonderful!" That's what Coach Nels S. Walke said yesterday afternoon while watching his freshman proteges perform on the defensive against the varsity squad. "They're holding that team. They're about as much as any coach could ask for!"

The scrimmage was designed to give the varsity some competition and at the same time give the yearlings a taste of big-time football. "They're doing much better than I expected," Walke continued. "These first two teams are holding the varsity on even terms!"

Probable Line-up Listed

And it will be with that idea in mind that the first-year team will enter Saturday's game with Bob Higgins' placid Nittany Lions. If they show the same defense then that they showed last night, the varsity is going to have even tougher going than they had last Saturday.

Boys who will probably start the game for the freshmen are Murray at
