

Between the Lions with The Sports Editor

Thanksgiving Day 1919—Penn State and Pittsburgh are tangling in another one of their famous Turkey day battles. The ball is in the Lions' possession on their own five-yard line. But instead of calling for a punt, the signals are given for a pass. Back snaps the ball to Hess, and catching the Panther's napping, he tosses to Bob Higgins, who runs the length of the field for the first touchdown of the game and the Lions are on their way to a 20-to-0 victory.

Alumni Day 1929—Wood of Lafayette has kicked a field goal for the only score of the game. The contest is nearing the end of the last quarter, with Lafayette, deep in its own territory punting out of danger, and the whistle for the end of the game blows while the ball is still in the air. But the play must be completed and Coop French catches the kick and tosses a lateral to Yutz Djedrich on the other side of the field. Interference quickly forms and the Lion half runs through the entire Maroon team for a touchdown. When it looks as though they would go down to inevitable defeat, the Lions have pulled the game out of the fire and accomplished the most thrilling play in Penn State football history.

LION HARRIERS TO FACE LEHIGH HERE THIS AFTERNOON

PRESIDENT TO FIRE GUN STARTING RACE

Coach Werner Will Make Debut As New Mentor of Nittany Varsity Trackmen

BY PHILLIP W. FAIR '35
President Ralph D. Hetzel will officially start the Lehigh-Penn State cross-country run on New Beaver field this afternoon during the second quarter of the football game. The gun will begin the Nittany harrier season with the Lions running under the tutelage of a new track coach, Chick Werner, formerly of the University of Illinois.

Numbers for the team were assigned yesterday afternoon. Captain Rishell, 141; Harvey, 142; Vandermark, 143; Alexander, 144; Book, 145; Hoffman, 146; and Light, 147, have been named to start the race. However, Norton may be substituted at the last moment as several of the starters have colds that may keep them under wraps.

Werner Pessimistic
Names and numbers of the Lehigh squad, which spent last night with the football team at Bellefonte, are: Captain MacPhee 191; Evert, 192; Bayer, 193; Eriscoll, 194; Fritz, 195; Tansig, 196; and Strubhar, 197.

"Frankly, I'm pessimistic over the outcome of the meet," Werner reiterated yesterday afternoon. "The team is hardly in condition to enter the race. Lehigh has a strong squad and the finish will be close either way."

A request that the crowds watching the football game and the race would not interfere with the runners by standing on the track or at the Burrowes street gate at which the contestants leave and enter the track, was voiced by Robert C. Howarth '34 manager.

Lions Will Engage Lehigh In Alumni Battle Today

Lions have met the Engineers since 1888, when the rivalry first began. It also marks the first time that a Lehigh team has played on New Beaver field since 1921. In 1931, however, the Brown and White met the Lions in Philadelphia in an unemployed benefit game.

BOOTERS TO MEET NAVY AT ANNAPOLIS

Will Play Only Foreign Tilt of Season With Midshipmen This Afternoon

By A. CONRAD HAIGES '35
Making their debut in foreign territory, the Nittany Lion soccer squad will encounter the strong Navy eleven at Annapolis this afternoon in the only away-from-home engagement of the season. Traveling by bus, the Jeffrey-coached aggregation left yesterday morning for the Naval Academy with fifteen men who will take part in the fray.

Endeavoring to duplicate the 2-to-0 shut-out victory over the Middies in 1929, the Lions will offer plenty of opposition with their aggressive lineup. In the eight meets that Penn State had with the Middies, only two losses were credited to the Jeffrey-coached teams, in 1925 and in 1927.

PLEBE GRIDDERS TO PLAY AT 12:30

Will Oppose Villanova in First Game of Season on New Beaver Field Today

By JOHN A. BRUTZMAN '35
With the Villanova Plebes as their opponents, the Nittany freshman football team will open its season on New Beaver practice field at 12:30 o'clock today.

Although Villanova comes here with two games already played, Coach Nelson S. Walke is far from pessimistic. The freshmen squad is free from injuries and in the height of condition as a result of five weeks' intensive practice.

ANNOUNCE GRID TICKET SALE

Student and general sale of tickets for the Penn State-Columbia football game will take place next week at the Athletic Association ticket office. The price per ticket is $2.20 including tax. All seats are located in mid-field sections.

BASKETEERS WORK OUT IN PRE-SEASON PRACTICES

With over fifty men reporting to night practice three times a week, Penn State's courtmen under the training of Coach Spike Leslie are fast approaching mid-season toughness.

It is with this idea in mind that Spike called the early practices this fall. He hopes that through work with passing, foul shooting, and long shots from the center of the floor to develop a team which will be more than ready to face a tough schedule this winter.

and Gentlemen it leaves the Ladies flat!

If you use lipstick—or if you really prefer a chocolate pecan sundae to a Scotch and soda—you might as well stop reading right at this point. ESQUIRE is not for you and you had better face the grim fact now.

If, however, you are a genuine male—if you have a healthy masculine taste for good clothes and strong language—if you like the real inside on sports—if you'd rather read a brief saga by Ernest Hemingway than a sugar-coated tale of love in the suburbs—

In that case you will want to rush right out and get your copy of ESQUIRE before this first and somewhat limited issue is sold out.

For here, at last, is a man's idea of a magazine come to life! Here are "short" short stories by such writers as William McFee, John Dos Passos, Dashiell Hammett and Manuel Komroff.

Here is humor by such a rollicking list as George S. Chappell, Montague Glass, Robert Buckner, George Ade, Harry Hershfield and David Monroe.

Here are 16 pages on what to wear and when to wear it—written for men who think that good tweed is something to be smelled with reverence and worn with ease.

Charles Hanson Towne comes to the rescue of a bathtub gin generation with some hard-and-fast advice on how to behave when the waiter hands you a wine card—and won't that be a help! Benny Leonard himself tells about half a dozen fights for the lightweight championship that were never entered in the record.

Never before, in fact, has such a list of contributors been gathered together in a publication. In addition, there are forty pages in color including the greatest number of full-page cartoons ever printed in a magazine.

The price of ESQUIRE is fifty cents per copy or one dollar fifty for four issues. If your dealer cannot supply you address Esquire Publishing Company, Palmolive Bldg., Chicago, Ill.
