

Between the Lions with The Sports Editor

The Lions were unlucky to catch Columbia on the rebound Saturday. And what a rebound! Soundly trounced by Princeton the week before, Coach Lou Little's charges were out to win. They had everything to lose, since a setback by the Penn State team would have placed them on the bottom of the pile in Eastern intercollegiate grid standings.

Don't think that Captain Tommy Slusser and the rest of his team was not in there trying every minute. For the first period and the greater part of the second the Blue and White squad held the New York team to a standstill and even kept the ball in Columbia territory most of the time. But the Little Blue team was not to be denied, and when Captain Cliff Montgomery, Barabas and Tomb started, Nittany Lion hopes were rudely pushed aside.

When the game was over, Bob Higgins' squad was completely worn out. They put their best in the game and fagged themselves doing it. That whole squad deserves all the credit in the world for putting up the fight it did against a much stronger team.

Freshmen Defeat Gettysburg; Lions Down Lafayette Soccer Team

BOTH TOUCHDOWNS MADE BY ROBBINS

Plunges Through Center, Skirts Left End for Tallies in 13-to-7 Victory

By JOHN A. BRUTZMAN '35

After a dismal first half marred by frequent fumbling in the Nittany Lion cub backfield, the freshmen came back with a rush to defeat the Gettysburg plebes 13-to-7 on New Beaver field Saturday afternoon.

Robbins, freshman fullback, tallied both Lion scores, the first one on a plunge through the center of the line early in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, Robbins again took the ball on the two-yard line, and while the Bullet line braced themselves for another drive at center, Robbins calmly skirted his own left end for the last touchdown of the day.

State Kicks Off

State kicked off to Gettysburg as the game opened, and after an exchange of punts, a fifteen-yard penalty and a fumble, put the ball on State's own sixteen-yard line. When Robbins attempted to punt out of danger, the kick was blocked and Gettysburg recovered on the one-yard mark.

As the teams lined up, Shadle, Gettysburg quarterback, took the ball from the center, and scored on that ancient play, a quarterback sneak. The try for the extra point was good.

The balance of the first half saw little action, with the action staying within the twenty-five-yard lines, except for one bad moment, when State again fumbled, and the Bullets recovered on the Nittany fifteen-yard marker. The Lions held, however, and took the ball on downs as the half ended.

Plebes Click in Second Half

The Lion freshman started to click in the second half. Taking the ball at the kick-off, the plebes marched down the field with consistent gains of five and eight yards until Robbins dove over the center of the line for a touchdown. A pass for the extra point failed.

During the third quarter the ball was in Bullet territory most of the time. The end of the period found the Lions again threatening to score, the ball being on the two-yard line as the quarter ended.

On the second play of the fourth quarter, Robbins skirted right end for the last touchdown of the game. Giron place-kicked the extra point.

For the balance of the game the Lions constantly threatened to score, and undoubtedly would have except for a questionable penalty of half the length of the field for unnecessary roughness. The game ended with the ball in Gettysburg's possession on the fifty-yard line.

was still unsatisfied. Six plays later Leo had another touchdown as the result of a blocked punt on the twenty-two-yard line. McDowell recovered and Barabas carried it over from the eight-yard line. Brominski missed the try for the extra point.

Invaders Threaten

After King's kick had been returned by Knapp to the twenty-eight-yard line, the Nittany halfback skirted the Columbia line and got past ten defenders, but the last man forced him outside just past mid-field. A pass, Miklonis to Captain Slusser, brought the ball to the Columbia twenty-yard line, but Bill Cooper fumbled on the next play and the threat was balked.

In the last quarter the final Columbia touchdown went across, with Tomb and Maniachi, doing most of the ground-gaining. Maniachi's kick was good.

The result of the game hinged upon the Nittany forward wall. Handicapped by such a weight disadvantage they were nearly helpless. Wisner, Woolridge, and Captain Slusser consistently played an inspired defensive game, but Montgomery, who is able to start and stop on a dime, was almost impossible to stop in a broken field.

Booters Win Third Game of Season in 6-0 Shutout

Well-Drilled, Fast-Moving Penn State Eleven Scores in First Minute of Play

By A. CONRAD HAIGES '35

Superior skill in kicking and mastery of headwork enabled the Nittany Lion booters to clinch the second leg of the eastern intercollegiate soccer championship Saturday afternoon, when they easily defeated the invaders from Lafayette in a 6-0 drubbing. It was the third straight victory for the Lions.

Continuing its strong defensive tactics and aggressive plays, the well-drilled and fast-moving Penn State eleven started the game with such a burst of speed toward the hostile goal that the first goal was netted by Captain "Shorty" Edwards during the first minute's play. Jack Fletcher again showed snappy defensive work.

Executing swift passing changes, the Jeffrey aggregation ziz-zagged the ball across the field, and passed the ball to Eddy Finzel, who popped the ball into the net during the same quarter. The opening of the second period showed the Lafayette offense wasn't even threatened.

Masters, who substituted for Corbett, center forward, banged the only goal in the second quarter. Aided by a well-organized attack headed by Bielicki and Edwards, the Lions out-masters the foreigners to perfection, by tearing down their defense entirely. Masters again received honors in the opening of the second half by scoring a goal one minute after play had begun.

Kicking in rapid succession, the Blue and White soccermen held the ball in play nearly three-fourths of the time and prevented the Lafayette men from scoring. Joe Bielicki persistently drove the ball at the invaders' net and was successful in the last quarter, while Captain "Shorty" Edwards ended the drubbing with a smashing drive into the goal, two minutes before the final whistle.
