

TENTATIVE DANCE SCHEDULE PASSED BY STUDENT BOARD

Friday, January 12, Approved by Governing Body as Date of Panhellenic Ball

MILITARY BALL DROPPED FROM SOCIAL CALENDAR

Sphinx Society Declared Defunct As Campus Organization By Group Action

Approval of a tentative schedule of the major all-College dances for the remainder of the year was given by Student Board at the regular meeting Monday afternoon.

The schedule, submitted by Student Union, was drawn up in an effort to avoid crowding of the major athletic and social events during the second semester. The arrangement of dates was determined according to the newly devised Student Union calendar of events.

Senior Ball Set for Feb. 12 The Panhellenic Ball, the first major function on the tentative calendar, will be held Friday, January 12. Senior Ball, the first class dance, is scheduled for Friday, February 9.

Sophomore Hop, the second class dance, will be held Friday, March 2, according to the schedule, which Friday, April 13, has been designated as the date for the Interfraternity Ball. Junior Prom will close the season Friday, May 11.

Plans for the annual Military Ball, usually held during January, have been cancelled this year. The committee requested, however, that the date privilege for the dance be retained by the board.

Sphinx Declared Defunct It was definitely decided at the meeting that no student will be allowed to sell other than his own athletic ticket for any of the athletic events. Minor offenders will be dealt with by Student Tribunal, while major offenders will be brought before Student Board.

The board declared that the Sphinx society, upper class honorary, is now defunct. They recommended to the Senate Committee on Student Welfare that the charter of the society be revoked.

Pennsylvania Press Favors Passage of Amendment 8

Editorial Writers Urge Ratification of Bond Issue To Provide Necessary Funds For Colleges, Hospitals

Comments and editorial opinions gleaned from the newspapers and press of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the question and probable passage of Amendment Number 8 have all been favorable. A study of the clippings show. Some of the press excerpts follow:

"Both Democratic and Republican organization state leaders have remained silent on the question of the $25,000,000 bond issue, taking the stand that it is not a matter for the state organization to decide."

"Pennsylvania State College in the past, has been the beneficiary of appropriations from this State. A year ago, a drastic cut was made by the State authorities, in this appropriation. With splendid spirit the faculty at State College, including every worker in every department voluntarily took a personal reduction in income, in order that the work of the College might not be impaired."

"In recent years, State College has developed rapidly, largely due to the fact that the State has generously provided funds to assist in its maintenance. Now if sufficient funds are not made available, the work of the College will suffer heavily. A favorable vote on Amendment Number 8 will provide these funds."

"There is, however, one danger lurking in the background—the possibility that the proposed amendment to the Constitution authorizing the $25,000,000 bond issue for relief purposes may be rejected. Yet it is unthinkable that it should be rejected, for rejection would result in disaster. The State would be plunged into utter chaos."

"Beat it, and State aid to distress would be ended. Beat it, and no more funds could be obtained from Washington. Beat it, and State-aided hospitals, colleges and medical schools would have to abandon much of the work in which they are engaged."

"If the amendment is ratified, we shall be in a position to go ahead with relief, with help from the Federal Government."

"The State will be plunged into utter chaos. Beat it, and State aid to distress would be ended. Beat it, and no more funds could be obtained from Washington. Beat it, and State-aided hospitals, colleges and medical schools would have to abandon much of the work in which they are engaged."

Warnock To Excuse Voters on Tuesday

"All students who can vote will be excused from classes if they wish to go home," said Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock, in a statement issued yesterday. "Such students should call at the office of the Dean of Men in Old Main before they go, for information as to how they can work in home communities."

Concerning the information mentioned, Dean Warnock told of printed circulars that would be issued to all students for distribution in their home towns. Hints for last minute work before election day and the process of voting will also be given the student.

Musser '34 To Head Committee on Constitutional Amendment Passage Support

In support of the drive for the passage of Amendment Number 8, a constitutional amendment committee, headed by Franklin B. Musser '34, was appointed by Herman C. Brandt, president of Interfraternity Council at a meeting of the organization last night.

Announcement of a student dance at the Penn Athletic club in Philadelphia on Saturday, November 18, was made at the meeting. Tickets are on sale at the Student Union desk in Old Main, according to Brandt, who stated that any student who sells five tickets will receive one free of charge.

General arrangements for the dance, which will serve as a welcome to Penn State students, will be under the supervision of the Interfraternity Council. Isham Jones has been tentatively selected to play for the affair, according to Brandt.

Other business at the meeting included the organization and appointment of members to a secretariat to function during the remainder of the year. No definite action was taken on the proposed rushing code revisions, but a definite report on the new code will be presented for approval at the next meeting, Brandt stated.

GAME MARKS TWELFTH LION-ORANGE STRUGGLE

Team To Leave State College At 8 O'clock Tomorrow For Annual Battle

By FRED W. WRIGHT '35 Harry Sigel, regular halfback who has started every game this season, will be missing from the line-up as the Lions seek a comeback against Syracuse University in Archbold stadium at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Sigel, who was injured in the Columbia game last Saturday, is temporarily on the side-lines with a bad shoulder. Jim Boring, 180-pound reserve fullback, will start in Sigel's position—the only change in the line-up that took the field last Saturday.

Teams To Leave Tomorrow Following a scrimmage Wednesday night in which the first-stringers scored two touchdowns against the freshmen, only a light signal drill will be held this afternoon. The team will leave State College by bus at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The game will mark the twelfth Lion-Orange grid game, a series which began in 1922. Syracuse has won six times, the Lions twice, and three games have resulted in tie scores. The Orange won last year, 12-10-6, when a late Lion offensive was thwarted on the goal line.

Head Coach Bob Higgins, Coach "Spike" Leslie, Trainer Charlie Spiedel, Student Manager John A. Clark III '34, and twenty-five members of the squad will make the trip. They are: Captain Slusser, McKee, Rosenberg, Orlando, ends; Cole, Park, Wisner, Woolbert, tackles; Sloan, Bedoski, Woolridge, backs; guards; Anderson, Jim O'Hara, Weber, centers; Frank O'Hara, Maurer, Mikolonis, Boring, Morrison, Sigel, Andrews, Knapp, Skemp, Cooper, backs.

Both Teams Seeking Win Routed by Michigan State as badly as the Lions were against Columbia last Saturday, Syracuse will be seeking to climb the comeback trail. At the beginning of the season Coach Vic Hanson believed that the Orangemen were ready for the best season in many a moon and subsequent games have borne out his contention. Despite a 27-to-3 loss to Michigan State, the Hill team held a 3-to-0 advantage going into the second half, one fact that prefaces both a powerful attack and a stubborn defense.

The Orange clad gridgers defeated Clarkson Tech and Ohio Wesleyan by landslide scores. The 196-pound line worked like a charm opening big holes for fast, slippery backs to step through unmolsted. The following week the comparatively weak Cornell squad caught the Orange flat-footed in the throes of an off-day. Only by a miraculous passing attack in the closing minutes was Syracuse able to eke out a 14-to-7 victory over the Big Red.

WARNOCK TO GIVE ADDRESS Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock will present the question, "The Responsibility of the College to the Needy Student" at a faculty forum following a meeting of the College Senate in Room 107, Main Engineering, at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

STUDENT HELD AS 1,000 JOIN PARADE

Shope '36 Picked Up by Officer During 'Pajama Parade' Tuesday Night

Almost 1,000 rampant students cruised the streets of State College and parts of the campus Tuesday night in the first "pajama parade" of major importance to be held here in the last three years. One student, Richard W. Shope '36, was picked up by Officer Joseph Campbell, but was released at Watts hall forty minutes later.

The fracas began with the discovery of a skunk outside the first floor windows of Watts hall about 10 o'clock. Jeers from Varsity and Fraternity were followed by raging battles, surrounding newspaper fires which were built, lit, and extinguished for an hour in the quadrangle. Approximately twenty-five students, mostly freshmen, started a snake dance in the general direction of McAllister hall.

Shot Fired by Officer After facetious serenades of the Women's building, McAllister hall, and Orange dormitory, the "parade," now comprising over 100 men, started in the general direction of Locust Lane. At the corner of Fairmount avenue and Locust Lane, the borough officer, who had been following the crowd in the town police car, dragged Shope into it and started east on Fairmount avenue.

Immediately surrounded by the crowd, who demanded Shope's release, Campbell stopped a half block down Fairmount avenue and fired a shot into the air. The crowd fell back, and the officer drove off with his prisoner. The crowd, now augmented with fraternity men and numbering about 800, started for the town hall. However, Officer Campbell and his student charge had left before the major part of the crowd arrived.

At the hall, the mass of students was urged by upperclass student leaders against damaging any property, and after minutes of indecision, the "parade" started for the campus where two archery targets on Holmes field were destroyed. Campbell was suspended from all duties by Burgess Lederer yesterday morning for his conduct in attempting to handle the crowd.

STUDENT CHOIR TO PRESENT SECOND IN MUSICAL SERIES

In addition to a varied program of recorded symphonic music, Mrs. Kalmann de Juhaz, guest pianist, will play several numbers.

Writer Sees Lion-Orange Football Game as Toss-Up

By HAROLD L. PIERSON Sports Editor, Syracuse Daily Orange

A ragged bunch of Saltine Warriors will entertain the Nittany Lion in Archbold Stadium this Saturday. The odds which would have heavily favored the Orange two weeks ago have now dwindled to a slight edge based on early season performance.

Syracuse has been in a rut and unless Vic Hanson is able to drag them out of the hole by Saturday, Penn State has every chance in the world of upsetting the supposedly strong Hill forward wall opening the way to victory as Michigan State did last week.

Last week at East Lansing, Syracuse was scheduled to hand the Spartans a stinging set back—but the tables were reversed and after Syracuse fumbled away three chances in the first half to score, the Green and White fury of Michigan State smothered the Orange under four touchdowns winning 27 to 3. The Syracuse team went to pieces and no reasonable reply has yet been offered to answer the question "why."

The loyal sons of Piety Hill had potentials of being a strong bidder for Eastern honors this fall with a wealth of line and backfield material equal to any team in the East. Along with this material came a new Hanson offense—a combination of the Notre Dame set-up, the old Minnesota shift, and the Hanson double spinner. Now the bid can hardly be heard above the clamor of a noisy season of upsels.

Syracuse has a sweet pair of ends in Sherry Johnson and Walt Singer, while 220-pound Joe Vavra—intercollegiate boxing champion—and Jimmy Steen form a husky combination in

U. S. Will Recognize Russia Within 3 Months --- Tanger

Recognition of Soviet Russia will come about within three months—certainly before six, Dr. Jacob Tanger, head of the department of history and political science, maintains.

"Litvinoff, Russian Foreign Commissar, should begin preliminary conversations with President Roosevelt early next week and definite recognition should not be long in following. Two factors, however, will have to be adjusted first," Dr. Tanger continued.

"In the first place, there is the matter of some eight hundred millions—four hundred in private and four hundred in government loans—to be straightened out satisfactorily," the department head pointed out. "And then there is the matter of trade relations."

"The United States in the past has had considerable experience with collection of war debts and that factor shouldn't delay negotiations too much," he continued. "Evidently the government will temporarily abandon collection plans in order to receive other concessions."

Asked whether he considered the United States was seeking an ally to smother Japan's expansion toward the Philippine Islands, Dr. Tanger scoffed at the suggestion. "There are too many other grounds—chiefly economic—to take such a viewpoint," he said.

"Evidently the present administration has realized that keeping Russia unrecognized has failed to result in either collection of the debts or hinder the growth of the communistic system," Dr. Tanger said. "Shortly after the World War such a course would have been condemned, but at present the overtures are receiving wide popular support."
