Between the Lions with

+ + + Leo Houck will get a pre-season glimpse of the boxing abilities on his squad when his mitmen meet the socalled Scranton Golden Glovers. Fri-

Passes Score for Bluejays

Most of the play, during the third quarter was in the Lions' territory, and in previous battles, however, presents ity show in connection with the Red Cross drive.

When the Lions meet Lehigh at Bethlehem next fall they won't have such an easy time with the Engineers as they did this year, if the signing of Frank Carideo, 'two-time AllAmerican 'quarterback from Notre Dame, to coach the Brown and White is any criterion.

Ever since Lehigh went on the nonscholarship hasis things have heart and the property of the content of the play, during the third quarter was in the Lions' territory, with Johns Hopkins' lone score going across after a thirty-five-yard drive.
Right Halfback Beeler tossed a flat too pass to Weeks on the 10-yard line and the Bluejay end went the remaining distance unmolested.

In the last quarter the Lions unlossed a scoring drive from their own the shoulder injury suffered Saturday

LOEBS CALLS '37

COURT ASPIRANTS

COURT ASPIRANTS

Tony Bedoski, hurt in the Syracuse game, and Remniy Woolridge, with a afternoon, both are temporarily on the shoulder injury suffered Saturday

LOEBS CALLS '37

COURT ASPIRANTS

There Lions talwarts who were injured in previous battles, however, presents a problem that the coaching corps with looks a flat to the 10-yard line and the Bluejay end went the remaining distance unmolested.

In the last quarter the Lions unlossed a scoring drive from their own the 10-yard line shoulder injury suffered Saturday

LOEBS CALLS '37

COURT ASPIRANTS

For Eigst Session

scholarship basis things have been in WRESTLING ASPIRANTS a constant state of change in Bethlehem. First, Dr. Nelson Kellogg, of Purdue, was appointed as director of athletics; next, three assistants to (Coach) Aussy Tate were named from Purdue football ranks. All three received a taste of the Notre Dame system (Rockne style) under Carideo's tutelage when he was a Boilermaker assistant coach. And now, with the Little Napoleon as head coach, it looks as if Clan Higgins is going to be up against a new deal Lehigh eleven in

OUR OPPONENTS Penn. 7-Ohio State 20

Forty thousand spectators watched Penn go down to its worst defeat of the year at the hands of the Ohio State team. Harvey Harmon's players weren't conceded to have a chance in the game and lived up to predictions. This Saturday's game will be in the game and lived up to predictions. This Saturday's game will be in the game and lived up to predictions. This Saturday's game will be in the game and lived up to predictions. This Saturday's game will be in the game and lived up to predictions. This Saturday's game will be in the game and lived up to predictions. This Saturday's game will be in the game and lived up to predictions. This Saturday's game will be in the game and lived up to predictions. This Saturday's game will be included the given a longer time to show their football practice.

Practices will be held on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday inghts between 7 and 9 o'clock.

TOUCH FOOTBALL TEAMS Penn go down to its worst defeat of a different story with the Penn team entering into the Nittany Lions game CHI UPSILON, WILL MEET CHI as heavy favorites.

Columbia 14-Navy 7 A hard-litting Lion team perform 'ed one of the season's upsets by sinking the Navy. It was quite a letdown for the Annapolis team after defeating Notre Dame on the previous

Saturday Muhlenberg 3-Ursinus 0 Reds Weiner again won a game for the Mules by the margin of a field goal, when he booted the ball squarely between the goal posts from the thirteen-yard line. Lebanon Valley 27-Juniata 7 niata eleven. Lebanon Valley romned to an easy victory. All the Flying Dutchmen scores came in the second

J. M. S.

LIONS TRAMPLE BLUEJAYS

BORING RUNS 100 YARDS TO SCORE

PRACTICE FOR SEASON

Ellstrom Conducts Daily Work-Outs in

Absence of Coach Speidel

Veteran wrestling candidates are working out daily in Recreation hall under the direction of Bob Ellstrom in preparation for the coming season. No formal call for candidates has been year's squad taking part in the course of the Lion football squad, it is impossible for him to give any attention to the candidates at the present time. At the same time, Captain Rosenberg, together with several other letter-winners, are occupied with football practice.

another to determine now they are able to play with different combinations.

At Thanksgiving, the squad will be cut to fifty members, who will practice in the afternoons until the season starts. Those reporting late will be given a longer time to show their ability.

in all the fundamentals of the sport

PHI IN I. M. GRID SEMI-FINALS

Chi Phi and Chi Upsilon will meet this week in their semi-final round contest of the intramural touch football tournament to determine the opponent for Kappa Sigma's eleven. The final game will also be played this week in their week and the properties of the Physical Education classes, an interesctional touch football tournament is being organized as an experiment in Physical Education.

this week.

In gaining the position as finalist,
In gaining the position as finalist,
Kappa Sigma disposed of Sigma Phi Epsilon, last year's champions in the first semi-final match this week.
Chi
Phi eliminated Alpha Chi Rho, and Chi Upsilon defeated Lambda Chi Upsilon defeated Lambda Chi
Alpha in questor final games Alpha in quarter-final games.

Opponents' Scores

FOOTBALL Penn-7; Ohio State-20 SOCCER Navy-2; Haverford-0 Syracuse—0; Army—5 Lafayette—3; Stevens—2

A Little of Their Own Medicine

	i j	with	YARDS TO SCORE	11	VARSITY		OFF-TACKLE PLAYS	Encounter With	1
,	The	Sports Editor	TUINDO TO DOUNT		First Downs	HNS HOPKINS	UFF-IACREE FLAIS
	, I'me	Sports Luttor	-0-	15	Passes Attempted	12		Western Champs	1
	Mir. Tel:	77 - 1.1	(Continued from page one)	2	Passes Completed	7	Cubs Outplay Bucknell Team		8
	The Joh	ns Hopkins game, besides	goal line, dribbled along, and ther	49	Yards Gained on Passes	96	By Margin of 5-to-1	To Practice Daily For	•
	peing the c	easiest of the year, for the	bounced into Boring's arms as he stood	2	Passes Intercepted	1	In First Downs	Meet With Illinois
	Nittany L	ions, accomplished three	on the goal line. Two Bluejay ends coming in too fast slid by the Lion	224	Yards Gained from Scrimmage Yards Lost from Scrimmage	79 11 things tha	t will aid the Blue and	fullback and the remaining nine de-	2 1 8	Punts	8	By JOHN A. BRUTZMAN '35	On Saturday
•	white tean	in the luture. With the	fullback and the remaining nine de- fenders, were flattened by Nittany-	411/2	Average Yardage	33	A ponderous Bucknell Bison year-	By A. CONRAD HAIGES '35	1 of the regulars in the con-		21	Average Return	3	ling was too powerful for the Nittany	Sanimunaina daile ta affact ann an	w
		juries were prevented, in-	It was one of those plays that come about as the result of snap judgment.	11 0	Penalties	1	Lion cub Saturday, and the Penn State freshmen received a 12-to-0 de-	position that the University of Illinois	1.
		strength for the Penn	Considered from an outhodon forth-11	40	Yards Lost Through Penalties Fumbles	5	feat, their first of the season.	soccer team might offer in Saturday's	, game this	Saturday. It provided a	angle, the play was fundamentally	1	Fumbles Recovered	0	The Bisons scored twice in the sec-	encounter, the Blue and White squad	Sc unsound, but, behind a 20-to-0 lead,	i	. Time-Outs	ŏ	ond quarter, the first time on a 95-	anxiously awaits the meet with last].
		to their grid experience,	nothing hinged on possible failure.	1	FRESHMEN		yard run off tackle by Smith, sub- stitute right halfback. A few minutes	year's championship team of the Mid-	sic
		red one Jim Boring, who	Cooper, Sigel Score	PENN STATE	FIGSHMEN.	BUCKNELL	later, Smith again carried the ball	Western intercollegiate soccer associa-	in ability at running the ball	Not until seventeen minutes after		First Downs	1	59 yards for another touchdown. It		alt real chance of the year.	the opening kick-off was made did	11 14	Passes Attempted	2	was the same play on which Bucknell scored their first six points.	,	ing
			the hostiles get possession of the ball —a tribute to Lion power and alert-] . 3	Passes Completed	0		Illinois, the invaders will arrive here early Friday morning where they will s reversal of the field, and	ness. McClean returned Bill Cooper's	11 6	Passes Intercepted Average Gain on Passes	0	The first quarter was devoid of any	stake moves to defeat the champion-	ľ opening kick-off to the 14-yard line,		Punts	6	scoring threats. Bucknell kicked off to	ship-bound Jeffrey aggregation in the	1
		ac in the cambanding play		11 28	Average Length of Punts	37	punted. The Bucknell safety man	fifth encounter of the season. This	ne of the year	on New Beaver field. But	skin squirted from his possession and	4	Average Return of Punts	2	fumbled and Murray recovered on	game between any teams of Mid-	of
	he was tal	ting his chances in even!	Penn State recovered. That brief	1 66 1	Yards Gained from Scrimmage	194	State's 44-yard line. Robbins dropped	Western and Eastern intercollegiate	to
	. catching th	at kick so near the goal	moment was the only time that the visitors were on the offensive until	8 -	Yards Lost from Scrimmage	12	back to pass, but was unable to find		bo:
,	. line. A slij	and the ball might have	two Lion touchdowns had been scored.		2		a man open, and ran for ten yards and a first down.	Will Test Lions
	' cone over th	ie goal with a Johns Hon-!	"Harrel" Morrison nepetrated the	Lions To C	Concentrate on Smo	othing	State then punted. Bucknell was	Boasting an all-time record of kins player	te goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch-	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain	Lions I o	Concentrate on Smo		State then punted. Bucknell was	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only	at kins player down. But	falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con-	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an	Cut At	Concentrate on Smo ttack for Quaker		State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe.	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short	At Fr at kins player down. But fidence in l	falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry	Cut At	ttack for Quaker	Contest	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe.	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Mid-	at Fr at rin
	kins player down. But fidence in l to at least	falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a	Out At	ttack for Quaker	Contest	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Gen- atle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknelli	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Mid- western association, they have tallied	at Fr at rin
a *	kins player down. But fidence in l to at least with a chan-	e goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and be of getting further down	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard kine. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback	Catisfied that the La sound ground-work amentals, Head Coa	ttack for Quaker Lion gridmen have list of Lion incapacy in football fund- one or both will ber tach Bob Higgins game remained a ma	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn atter of conjecture	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Gen- atle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknelli	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Mid-	at Fr at rin
a •	kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a chan-	e goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch-	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper carried it across, his kick went	Catisfied that the La sound ground-work amentals, Head Coalegan work on sm	ttack for Quaker Lion gridmen have list of Lion incapace in football fund one or both will be r game remained a ma toothing out the today. Dick Woolbe	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn atter of conjecture ert, veteran tackle	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate	at Fr at rin les wh Ke
~*	kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a chan the field, he ing the pigs	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin.	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper_carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 ad-	Cut At Satisfied that the L a sound ground-work amentals, Head Coa began work on sm rough spots in the Ni	ttack for Quaker Lion gridmen have list of Lion incapacy in football fund- neh Bob Higgins game remained a ma ocothing out the today. Dick Woolbe ittany attack this also injured in the S	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn atter of conjecture ent, veteran tackle	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this en-	at Fr at rin les wh Ke
~	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in he to at least with a chant the field, he ing the pigs. The whole	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- imself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and see of getting further down situted not a bit in catch- kin.	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper carried it across, his kick went away, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsylv	ttack for Quaker in football fund- one or both will ber game remained a ma today. Dick Woolbe ittany attack this also injured in the S definitely out for the vania game on season.	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn atter of conjecture ent, veteran tackle	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a	at Fr at rin les wh Ke
,	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in 1 to at least with a chanthe field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the first control of the pigs.	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- imself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and see of getting further down situted not a bit in catch- kin.	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper_carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the	Satisfied that the La sound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philat	track for Quaker Lion gridmen have list of Lion incapace, in football fund one or both will be rated by the littany attack this tion for the Unitary attack this vania game on delphia, this Sat-	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn there of conjecture art, veteran tackle Syracuse game, is a remainder of the	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jefrey helieves, however, that this meet	at Fr at rin les wh Ke
,	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in h to at least with a change the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the first Tommy	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and be of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- Slusser and his eleven	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper_carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but	Satisfied that the Le sound ground-work amentals, Head Coa began work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon.	ttack for Quaker Lion gridmen have list of Lion incapacy is in football fund- tach Bob Higgins toothing out the titany attack this tition for the Uni- vania game on delphia, this Sat- grid series in Lion	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn there of conjecture art, veteran tackle Syracuse game, is remainder of the one of the oldest football history.	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass, Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jefrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength	at Fr at rin les wh Ke
,	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in he to at least with a chance the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tommy over the Ba	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven thimore team. Especially	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short consistent enjus, with	Cations Io Court At Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsyl Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon. For the remainde	track for Quaker ion gridmen have list of Lion incapace in football fund- heth Bob Higgins game remained a ma today. Dick Woolbe also injured in the S definitely out for the vania game on delphia, this Sat- er of the week, It began in 1890 s	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn ther of conjecture ent, veteran tackle syracuse game, is e remainder of the one of the oldest football history, und has been an	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jeffrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approach-	at Fr at rin les wh Ke
	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in h to at least with a chant the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tomms over the Ba in the open	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and see of getting further down situated not a bit in catch- kin. I course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven timore team. Especially	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Blueiga 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Blueign safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison Sizel and Cooper alter.	Satisfied that the Lesound ground-work amentals, Head Conbegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in prepara versity of Pennsyl Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss	track for Quaker in football fund- one or both will be r game remained a ma today. Dick Woolbe also injured in the S definitely out for the univania game on delphia, this Sat- er of the weck, ser and his mates	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn ther of conjecture ent, veteran tackle syracuse game, is e remainder of the one of the oldest football history, und has been an	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the gray.	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jefrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth	at Fr at rin les wh Ke
	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in he to at least with a chant the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tommy over the Bain the open Lions effecti	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven timore team. Especially field were the Nittany ty, with Merril Morrison	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper_carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled uptactive first downs and sall, rolled uptactive first downs and another touch-	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsyl Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin	cin football fund- tach Bob Higgins toothing out the ittany attack this toothing the Uni- vania game on delphia, this Sat- er of the week, ser and his mates and drills and con- ing" the offensive liou Quaker louga but in the control of the season. The Penn game is grid series in Lion It began in 1890 a annual affair almost and drills and con- ing" the offensive second game.	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn there of conjecture ert, veteran tackle syracuse game, is a remainder of the one of the oldest football history, and has been an a ever since then, mark the thirty-	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and an 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts. Fazio in-	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jeffrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Nauv's 2-to-0 triumph	les wh Kei cla for out
	gone over it kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a chant the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by it tain Tommy over the Ba in the open Lions effectiand Lefty	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven timore team. Especially field were the Nittany ty, with Merril Morrison	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper_carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled uptactive first downs and sall, rolled uptactive first downs and another touch-	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsyl Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin	cin football fund- tach Bob Higgins toothing out the ittany attack this toothing the Uni- vania game on delphia, this Sat- er of the week, ser and his mates and drills and con- ing" the offensive liou Quaker louga but in the control of the season. The Penn game is grid series in Lion It began in 1890 a annual affair almost and drills and con- ing" the offensive second game.	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn there of conjecture ert, veteran tackle syracuse game, is a remainder of the one of the oldest football history, and has been an a ever since then, mark the thirty-	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and an 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts. Fazio in-	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jeffrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Nauv's 2-to-0 triumph	les wh Kei cla for out
,	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a change the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tommy over the Ba in the open Lions effecti and Lefty past the mi	the goal with a Johns Hopfalling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. the course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven thimore team. Especially field were the Nittany to, with Merril Morrison Knapp carrying the ball dfield mark on kick-offs,	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsyl Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin	track for Quaker Lion gridmen have list of Lion incapacy one or both will ber game remained a ma today. Dick Woolbe also injured in the Station for the Univania game on delphia, this Sater of the week, ser and his mates hal drills and conneg" the offensive de when the Lions won by a 19-to the season.	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn ther of conjecture rit, veteran tackle Syracuse game, is remainder of the one of the oldest football history, and has been an ever since then mark the thirty- game, which the -7 score, relations	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass, Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Fazio intercepted. a Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jefrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumph over Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain	les wh Kela for out
,	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a chang the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tommy over the Ba in the open Lions effecti and Lefty past the micolly to be the state of the control of the contro	the goal with a Johns Hopfalling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. the course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven ltimore team. Especially field were the Nittany two, with Merril Morrison Knapp carrying the ball dfield mark on kick-offs, trought down by the last	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was good this time.	Satisfied that the Lesound ground-work amentals, Head Conbegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in prepara versity of Pennsyl Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin that will-be uncovere Quaker, grid series is three-year lapse in reference.	cin gridmen have in football funder in football fun	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn ttter of conjecture ert, veteran tackle syracuse game, is a remainder of the one of the oldest football history, and has been an ever since then mark the thirty- game, which the -7 score, relations	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Fazio intercepted. a Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jeffrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumph over Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Rive now White sound	les wh Ker cla for out
,	kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a chan the field, he ing the pigs The whole marked by th tain Tomms over the Ba in the open Lions effecti and Lefty past the mi conly to be b Bluejay def	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven ltimore team. Especially field were the Nittany twe, with Merril Morrison Rnapp carrying the ball dield mark on kick-offs, the county of the last the county of the l	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper_carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was good this time. With the opening of the second courter the Lions opened another	Satisfied that the Lesound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin that will be uncovered Quaker grid series is three-year lapse in reconsidered as Pennatural and climaxii.	track for Quaker ion gridmen have list of Lion incapacy one or both will be a game remained a ma today. Dick Woolbe also injured in the $\frac{5}{2}\text{ tinn for the Univania game on delphia, this Sater and his mates are of the week, seer and his mates and drills and conag" the offensive d when the Lion resumed after a relations. In State's most list of Lion incapacy on the week, also injured in the $\frac{5}{2}\text{ season.}$ The Penn game is grid series in Lion It began in 1890 a annual affair almost lead when the Lion Pellowing the 1925 Lions won by a 19-to were suspended, chief said at the time, tha ing contest, the	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn there of conjecture inter of conjecture int, veteran tackle Syracuse game, is a remainder of the one of the oldest football history, and has been an ever since then, mark the thirty-resore, relations by because, it was to the rivalry was to convert the six to convert the s	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass, Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and arm 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Pazio intercepted a Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle again and ran fiftynine yards for the last touchdown of	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jefrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumph over Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Blue and White squad give the Blue and White squad give the Blue and White squaes for worry. Coach Bill Jeffrey places his hopes for a victory against	at Fr at rin at rin Ke cla for out MC
	gone over it kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a channed the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by it tain Tommy over the Ba in the open Lions effecti and Lefty past the mich only to be the Bluejay defeatibited h	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and see of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. • course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven timore team. Especially field were the Nittany we, with Merril Morrison Knapp carrying the ball dfield mark on kick-offs, prought down by the last ense man. Harry Sigel- is usual good prowess.	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was good this time. With the opening of the second quarter, the Lions opened another	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in prepara versity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin that will be uncovered Quaker grid series is three-year lapse in reconsidered as Penatural and climaxing game with the Red is sound that the red is series is three-year lapse in reconsidered as Penatural and climaxing game with the Red is sound that the Red is sound the Red is sound that the Red is sound the Red is sound that the Red is sound the Red is sound that the Red is sound that the Red is sound the Red is sound the Red is sound that the Red is sound the Red is	cin football funding in football funding in football funding in the fitting after a manual affair almost are resumed after a relations. The Penn game is grid series in Lion and Bitte has as and the mater of the week, are and his mates are delations. The Penn game is grid series in Lion in 1890 a samual affair almost The 1933 game will second game. Following the 1925 Lions won by a 19-to Lions won by a 19-to said at the teine, that becoming so bitter a grid series in Lion wor by a 19-to second game.	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn ttter of conjecture rt, veteran tackle Syracuse game, is a remainder of the one of the oldest football history, and has been an ever since then mark the thirty- game, which the resource relations the territy was the rivalry was to carry it be-	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Fazio intercepted. A Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle again and ran fiftynine yards for the last touchdown of the day.	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jeffrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumph over Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Blue and White squad cause for worry. Coach Bill Jeffrey places his hopes for a victory against the Springfield bettermen on an	les who kee cla for out
,	gone over it kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a chann the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tomms over the Ba in the open Lions effecti and Lefty past the mi only to be be luejay def exhibited h while the fi	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and see of getting further down sistated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven timore team. Especially field were the Nittany- ty, with Merril Morrison Rnapp carrying the ball dield mark on kick-offs, trought down by the last trought down by the last ense man. Harry Sigel- is usual good prowess; eld generaling of Shorty	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was good this time. With the opening of the second quarter, the Lions opened another scoring drive from their 35-yard line. Sirgel scored the third Blue and White	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philaturday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin that will be uncovereduaker grid series is three-year lapse in to Considered as Pernatural and climaxi game with the Red a sumed all-important.	cion gridmen have list of Lion incapacion of the control of the both liggins to thing out the hold littany attack this atton for the Univania game on delphia, this Sater of the week ser and his mates hal drills and cong the offensive of the control of the contr	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn there of conjecture or the veter at tackle Syracuse game, is a remainder of the one of the oldest football history, and has been an ever since then, mark the thirty-of game, which the trivity of game, which the trivity of the conjecture of	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass, Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Fazio intercepted. a Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle again and ran fiftynine yards for the last touchdown of the day. For the rest of the half, the play see-sawed back and forth between the	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jeffrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumph over Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Blue and White squadeause for worry. Coach Bill Jeffrey places his hopes for a victory against the Springfield bootermen on an abundance of first-string material, to-	less who kell for out MC
	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a channel to the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tommy over the Ba in the open Lions effection Lefty past the microly to be Bluejay dee exhibited he while the fi Mikelonis in	the goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- timself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- ty Slusser and his eleven timore team. Especially field were the Nittany we, with Merril Morrison Knapp carrying the ball dield mark on kick-offs, prought down by the last ense man. Harry Sigel iss usual good prowess; seld generaling of Shorty sured him of the starting	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Blueiga 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Blueiga yafetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was good this time. With the opening of the second quarter, the Lions opened another scoring drive from their 35-yard line. Sigel scored the third Blue and White touchdown from the 14-yard line. Cooper's kick was again good. Then	Satisfied that the Lesound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in prepara versity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philad urday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin that will be uncovere Quaker grid series is three-year lapse in reconsidered as Penatural and climaxi game with the Red a sumed all-important the Lions. A victory will give the Blue a	cin football fund- the Bob Higgins toothing out the ittany attack this down the Uni- vania game on delphia, this Sat- er of the week, ser and his mates are of the week, ser and his mates are of the week, ser and his mates and affile and con- ing" the offensive down the Lion- toothing the 1925 Lions woon by a 19-to were suspended, chief said at the time, tha becoming so bitter a yond the realm of pu the last game was over the Quakers ind White a sue- relations, and was	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn there of conjecture inter of the one of the oldest football history, and has been an ever since then, mark the thirty-resore, relations by because, it was the rivalry was the rivalry was to carry it bere sportsmanship, one of the most infor-Ouaker erid	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Fazio intercepted. a Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle again and ran fiftynine yards for the last touchdown of the day. For the rest of the half, the play see-sawed back and forth between the 35-yard lines.	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jeffrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumph over Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Blue and White squad cause for worry. Coach Bill Jeffrey places his hopes for a victory against the Springfield bettermen on an	less who kell for out MC
	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a channel to the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tommy over the Ba in the open Lions effection Lefty past the microly to be Bluejay dee exhibited he while the fi Mikelonis in	the goal with a Johns Hopfalling on it for a touch- falling had enough con- timself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- Tour Slusser and his eleven timore team. Especially field were the Nittany to, with Merril Morrison Knapp carrying the ball dfield mark on kick-offs, the strength of the starting the sunal good prowess; and generaling of Shorty sured him of the starting post in the Penn game.	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was good this time. With the With time with the second quarter, the Lions opened another scoring drive from their 35-yard line. Sigel scoved the third Blue and White touchdown from the 14-yard line. Cooper's kick was again good. Then came Boring's spectacular run for the	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in prepara versity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philad urday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin that will be uncovered Quaker grid series is three-year lapse in r. Considered as Pen natural and climaxing game with the Red a sumed all-important the Lions. A victory will give the Blue a cessful season—both	clion gridmen have list of Lion incapace in football fundach Bob Higgins toothing out the litting attack this attom for the Univania game on delphia, this Satser and his mates and drills and congr' the offensive serious metal drills and serious metal drills and serious metal drills and serious metal drills and serious metal	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn etter of conjecture trt, veteran tackle Syracuse game, is a remainder of the one of the oldest football history. In the football history. It was the rivality was is to carry it bere sportsmanship, one of the most Lion-Quaker grid costly to both	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Fazio intercepted. A Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle again and ran fiftynine yards for the last touchdown of the day. For the rest of the half, the play see-sawed back and forth between the 35-yard lines. As the second half opened, Bucknell kicked off, and the Lion cubs gained	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jefferey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumph over Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Blue and White squad cause for worry. Coach Bill Jeffrey places his hopes for a victory against the Springfield bootermen on an abundance of first-string material, together with this year's perfect scoring record.	less who kell for out MC
	gone over the kins player down. But fidence in he to at least with a chance the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tommy over the Bain the open Lions effection and Lefty past the michally to be Bluejay defeashibited he while the fi Mikelonis in quarterback	the goal with a Johns Hopfalling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- nimself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. the course of the game was the towering power of Cap- y Slusser and his eleven thimore team. Especially field were the Nittany to, with Merril Morrison Knapp carrying the ball dfield mark on kick-offs, the ball did with the last the same man. Harry Sigel is usual good prowess; eld generaling of Shorty sured him of the starting post in the Penn game. + + +	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was good this time. With the opening of the second quarter, the Lions opened another scoring drive from their 35-yard line. Sigel scored the third Blue and White touchdown from the 14-yard line. Cooper's kick was again good. Then came Boring's spectacular run for the fourth Lion touchdown. Nine plays later the score rose to	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in preparaversity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philadurday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin that will be uncovereduaker grid series is three-year lapse in the Considered as Pennatural and climaxing ame with the Red as sumed all-important the Lions. A victory will give the Blue as cossful season—both figures and in addition.	clion gridmen have list of Lion incapace one or both will be a game remained a ma today. Dick Woolbe also injured in the Station for the Univania game on delphia, this Sater of the week ser and his mates and drills and cong the offensive were suspended, chief in State's most in generating the service were suspended, chief in State's most in generating the service were suspended, chief in State's most in percentage and precentage in In percentage and presentage.	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn etter of conjecture trt, veteran tackle Syracuse game, is a remainder of the one of the oldest football history. In the football history. It was the rivality was is to carry it bere sportsmanship, one of the most Lion-Quaker grid costly to both	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Fazio intercepted. a Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next pline. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle again and ran fifty-nine yards for the last touchdown of the day. For the rest of the half, the play see-sawed back and forth between the 35-yard lines. As the second half opened, Bucknell kicked off, and the Lion cubs gained thirty-three yards on line plunges and	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jefrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumpherer Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Blue and White square for worry. Coach Bill Jefrey places his hopes for a victory against the Springfield bootermen on an abundance of first-string material, together with this year's perfect scoring record.	at Frat rin less who Kee cla for out MC
	gone over it kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a cham the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tommy over the Ba in the open Lions effecti and Lefty past the mich only to be the Bluejay defexhibited h while the fi Mikelonis in quarterback	re goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- minself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- Slusser and his eleven timore team. Especially field were the Nittany the, with Merril Morrison Knapp carrying the ball dfield mark on kick-offs, trought down by the last ense man. Harry Sigel is usual good prowess; eld generaling of Shorty sured him of the starting post in the Penn game. + + + k will get a pre-season	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was good this time. With the opening of the second quarter, the Lions opened another scoring drive from their 35-yard line. Sigel scored the third Blue and White touchdown from the 14-yard line. Cooper's kick was again good. Then came Boring's spectacular run for the fourth Lion touchdown.	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in prepara versity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philad urday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin that will be uncovered Quaker, grid series is three-year lapse in roconsidered as Penatural and climaxi game with the Red a sumed all-important the Lions. A victory will give the Blue a cessful season—both figures and in addition Nearly the entire.	cion gridmen have list of Lion ineapad one or both will be rach Bob Higgins shoothing out the ittany attack the sason. The Penn game is grid series in Lion second game. The 1933 game will second game. Following the 1925 Lions won by a 19-to were suspended, chief said at the time, tha becoming so bitter a sover the Quakers and Blue has assignificance to over the Quakers and White a suemal prestige. Lion squad came	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penn etter of conjecture trt, veteran tackle Syracuse game, is a remainder of the one of the oldest football history. In the football history. It was the rivality was is to carry it bere sportsmanship, one of the most Lion-Quaker grid costly to both	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass, Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Fazio intercepted a Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle again and ran fiftynine yards for the last touchdown of the day. For the rest of the half, the play see-sawed back and forth between the 35-yard lines. As the second half opened, Bucknell kicked off, and the Lion cubs gained thirty-three yards on line plunges and a penalty. Bucknell could not gain	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jeffrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumph ever Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Blue and White squad cause for worry. Coach Bill Jeffrey places his hopes for a victory against the Springfield bootermen on an abundance of first-string material, together with this year's perfect scoring record. WOMEN'S FENCING TO START Girls' fencing classes will start im-	at Frat rin less who keed for out MC Staviet me. The thousand surface was more war at the thousand surface was more war at the three war at three war at the three war at the three war at three wa
	gone over it kins player down. But fidence in I to at least with a cham the field, he ing the pigs. The whole marked by the tain Tommy over the Ba in the open Lions effecti and Lefty past the mich only to be the Bluejay defexhibited h while the fi Mikelonis in quarterback	re goal with a Johns Hop- falling on it for a touch- Boring had enough con- minself to return the ball the twenty-yard line, and the of getting further down sitated not a bit in catch- kin. The course of the game was the towering power of Cap- Slusser and his eleven timore team. Especially field were the Nittany the, with Merril Morrison Knapp carrying the ball dfield mark on kick-offs, trought down by the last ense man. Harry Sigel is usual good prowess; eld generaling of Shorty sured him of the starting post in the Penn game. + + + k will get a pre-season	"Barrel" Morrison penetrated the visitors' line for a seventeen-yard gain and followed it up with a series of short plunges that, coupled with an off-side penalty and help from Harry Sigel, left halfback, gave the Lions a first down on the Bluejay 5-yard line. Sigel went to the goal line, Fullback Cooper, carried it across, his kick went awry, and the Lions held a 6-to-0 advantage. The second touchdown was not long in coming. Morrison returned the visitors' kick-off fifty-five yards, but couldn't get past the Bluejay safetyman. Short, consistant gains, with Morrison, Sigel, and Cooper alternating at carrying the ball, rolled up two first downs and another touchdown, with Sigel going across from the 3-yard line. Cooper's kick was good this time. With the With time with the second quarter, the Lions opened another scoring drive from their 35-yard line. Sigel scoved the third Blue and White touchdown from the 14-yard line. Cooper's kick was again good. Then came Boring's spectacular run for the	Satisfied that the Lasound ground-work amentals, Head Coabegan work on smrough spots in the Ni afternoon in prepara versity of Pennsyl-Franklin field, Philad urday afternoon. For the remainde Captain Tommy Sluss will run through sign centrate on "polishin that will be uncovered Quaker, grid series is three-year lapse in roconsidered as Penatural and climaxi game with the Red a sumed all-important the Lions. A victory will give the Blue a cessful season—both figures and in addition Nearly the entire.	cion gridmen have list of Lion ineapad one or both will be rach Bob Higgins shoothing out the ittany attack the sason. The Penn game is grid series in Lion second game. The 1933 game will second game. Following the 1925 Lions won by a 19-to were suspended, chief said at the time, tha becoming so bitter a sover the Quakers and Blue has assignificance to over the Quakers and White a suemal prestige. Lion squad came	Contest citated. Whether eady for the Penu ther of conjecture rt, veteran tackle Syracuse game, is remainder of the one of the oldest football history. In the first since them mark the thirty-by game, which the resportsmanship. One of the most Lion-Quaker grid costly to both	State then punted. Bucknell was unable to advance the ball, and Genatle punted to State's 37-yard stripe. Robbins made another first down for the Lions. After an exchange of punts, State recovered a Bucknell fumble on Bucknell's 17-yard line as the quarter ended. Off-Tackle Plays Score After two line plunges and a pass. Girton tried a place kick. It was blocked and Bucknell recovered on their own 10-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle and ran 96 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Bucknell kicked off to State, and after an exchange of punts, Fazio intercepted. A Lion pass on the 41-yard line. On the next play, Smith broke through tackle again and ran fifty-nine yards for the last touchdown of the day. For the rest of the half, the play see-sawed back and forth between the 35-yard lines. As the second half opened, Bucknell kicked off, and the Lion cubs gained thirty-three yards on line plunges and a penalty. Bucknell could not gain and kicked to State's 48-yard line.	twenty-five wine, five ties, and only four defeats, the opponents will come here highly touted. During their short existence as a member of the Midwestern association, they have tallied 117 goals to twenty-four registered against them. Since Illinois is only an associate member of the eastern group, this engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jefrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter, the fourth and last intercollegate match. As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumpherer Haverford Saturday, only two teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Blue and White square for worry. Coach Bill Jefrey places his hopes for a victory against the Springfield bootermen on an abundance of first-string material, together with this year's perfect scoring record.	at rin less who keed for out the state of th

Nittany Cross-Country Runners

Selected for IC-4A Trip to

New York Friday Nttany varsity and freshmen bar-trials Friday afternoon, Harvey finished first.

Although final plans have not been made for the Lions departure, it is thought that they will leave State College Friday evening. This would enable the squads to survey the coat Van Courtland on Saturday

COMPLETE

RADIO REPAIRING

The Music Room

| Sourch Lion touchdown. | Since the score rose to 33-to-0 when a pass, "Red" O'Hora to Art Fry, was good for a thirty-five-yard gain as the half ended. Leo Skemp's kick was good. | Passes Score for Bluejays | Passes Score for

For First Session

Freshmen basketball candidates will report to Coach Gilbert F. "Mike" The freshman squad selected for the Loebs in Recreation hall at 7 o'clock to-night. Any freshmen who are out for football, cross-country, soccer, or and Patterson. Steitler, from the any other fall sport need not report Mont Alto Forestry school, is also until next Monday, according to making the journey. With but one exception, this team is the same that basketball candidates Coach Loebs. Coach hall Coach Loebs. In preparation for the coming season. alphabetical groups for practice. They No formal call for candidates has been issued as yet, only men from last least four scrimmages until that time, year's squad taking part in the work-outs.

Inasmuch as Coach Charlie Speidel and the properties of the light properties of the l

ORGANIZE FOR CONTESTS

Participants Excused from Required Physical Education Classes

ball tournament is being organized as an experiment in Physical Education. Plans have been made to hold a simil

Students who participate in the rames will be excused from attending regularly scheduled Physical Educa-tion classes the week the games are played. The games will be played on the intramural football fields.

The schedule for the first part of The schedule for the first part of the week, announced by J. Paul Ci-vitts '35, chairman of the football committee, will be opened Wednesday afternoon, and all of the games will be played at 4:15 o'clock. Sections 5 and 7 will meet Wednesday after-noon, and sections 3 and 8, and 1 and 9 will meet Thursday aftern

Cubs Outplay Bucknell Team By Margin of 5-to-1

As the second half opened, Bucknell kicked off, and the Lion cubs gained thirty-three yards on line plunges and a penalty. Bucknell could not gain and kicked to State's 48-yard line. A few plays later, Robbins made another first down on Bucknell's 46-yard marker. On four line plunges, the Lions carried the ball to the 35-yard line as the third quarter ended. HARRIERS CHOSEN line as the third quarter ended.
Robbins Outstanding

The fourth quarter was a duplicate of the first with all the action in midfield. The Lions tried several passes in the last few minutes, two of which were completed for short gains. The game ended with the ball in Bucknell's possession in the middle of the field. Robbins was the outstanding per-former in the Lion backfield, earryriers are entering the last week of training before the I C - 4 A meet to be held at New York City next Mon-day. Time trials were held last Friday afternoon, and seven men were chosen from each group to make the final trip of the year. the Lion backfield, early-hosen from each group to make the final trip of the year.

Varsity runners to make the trip to harmonial intercollegiate race at Van Courtland park are Captain Rishell.

Jarvey, Book, Alexander, Hoffman, with forty-five for Bucknell. the annual intercollegiate race at Van Courtland park are Captain Rishell. Harvey, Book, Alexander, Hoffman, Vandermark, and Light. In the time

TO THE BIG GAME PENN STATE vs

Follow your team to the big game, by Greyhound Bus. Congenial crowd—comfortable, cushioned chairs—schedules conveniently timed. You'll save money and have a pleasant, scenic trip.

GREYHOUND BUS DEPOT State College Hotel College Ave. & Allen St. Phone 300

GREYHOUND

School of Beauty Culture Now Open MARY E. CURRY

AUSTIN'S BEAUTY PARLOR TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14 Enroll now, otherwise it will be necessary to take the State Board examination DIPLOMAS AWARDED For Information Phone 219-W

SMITH MUSIC SHOP 108 South Frazier Street

Why Not Have the Best PHILCO RADIO $22.50 UP

BISONS SCORE ON Soccermen Wait Encounter With OFF-TACKLE PLAYS

40-6 AS PLEBES LOSE

PENNSYLVANIA

Round Trip to Philadelphia $790

Go Together Get the whole crowd together! Save money by chartering a Greyhound bus — direct to the Stadium.

Western Champs

Scrimmaging daily to offset any oposition that the University of Illinois soccer team might offer in Saturday's tion for an amateur ring tourney in encounter, the Blue and White squad anxiously awaits the meet with last year's championship team of the Mid-against them.

Since Illinois is only an associate Kessler who will enter the 160 pound engagement will not be considered as a championship match. Coach Bill Jeffrey believes, however, that this meet will determine the relative strength of the Lion booters for their approaching Springfield encounter and last.

As a result of Navy's 2-to-0 triumph cver Haverford Saturday, only two state Forestry gridmen scored a 6-to-0 teams, Penn and Springfield, remain to give the Blue and White squad men on Biddle field, Carlisle, recently. The single score of the game came in places his hopes for a victory against the Springfield bootermen on an babundance of first-string material, together with this year's perfect scoring record.

Girls' fencing classes will start im-mediately after Thanksgiving, accord-ing to Enid A. Page '35, manager. The lists of names for fencing have not yet been completed.

MITMEN TO ENTER SCRANTON TOURNEY

8 College Boxers Will Take Part In Charity Meet Sponsored By Penn State Alumni

By JAMES B. BEATTY jr. '35 Eight College mitmen have been orking out unofficially in Recreation hall during the past week in prepara-

Scranton town hall Friday night, The tourney, open to all non-profes sional mitmen whose home are with-in a fifty mile radius of Scranton, is under the sponsorship of Penn State alumni in Scranton who are promoting a community chest drive for chari-table purposes.

Zeleznock To Fight

All of the leather pushers from the College who plan to enter the tour-ney hail from points within fifty miles of the tourney site. All bouts at the tourney will be fought under collegiate

Among those who plan to enter the tourney are Mike Zeleznock, who fights at 125 pounds, Watkin, 135 pounds, Francis McAndrews, who will weigh in at 125 or 130, and Scooly, whose best yard and a touchdown.

The play came after the foresters took possession of the ball on the one-yard line as the result of a bad Dickinson punt from behind the goal line. Mont Alto outplayed the Dickinson plebes from the sound of the opening kick-off whistle, with the Carlisle team never getting anywhere within scoring distance of the foresters' goal.

CHREDDED WHEAT helps you go places and dothings. And that's lained. Shred ded Wheat is whole wheat. And whole wheat is man's greatest energy food, blessed by Nature with all the vital elements . . . proteins, vitamins, minerals, carbohydrates, and bran. All of these come to you in Shredded Wheat. Nothing has been added. nothing taken away.

The next time you draw up a chair in your favorite campus eating place, order Shredded Wheat. When the crispcuits are placed in front of you, just pour on plenty of milk or cream and top with your favorite fruit. And enjoy the best-tasting bowlful of energy that ever brightened your day.

When you see Ni-agara Falls on the package, you KNOW you have Shredded Wheat,

THE VITALLY DIFFERENT FOOD

A product of NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY