

Between the Lions with The Sports Editor

Another Penn State grid season has passed into history. With it goes a five-hundred percentage of three games won, three lost and one tied. It is difficult to find any fault with such a record, especially when the team finished its season at Penn in such a blaze of glory.

Prospects for a better record next year are encouraging, especially in the backfield. With the loss of only one senior, Dave Long, Coach Bob Higgins will have the same backs to work with.

Graduation will tear a terrific hole in the line. With the loss of Captain Tommy Slusser, "King" Cole, Tony Bedoski, Parker Berry, "Rem" Woolridge, "Bucky" McKee, and Andy Anderson, the Nittany Lion coach will have trouble getting together an experienced forward wall.

Soccer will come into its own Saturday. Penn State sports followers will have their chance of seeing Bill Jeffery's prospective champions in action against Springfield, the toughest game on the schedule.
