

Between the Lions with The Sports Editor

Much discussion has been going the rounds lately as to whether Penn or Penn State will be named champions of the Intercollegiate Soccer Association. Both claims are based on the fact that their teams have been undefeated in league contests this year, but the assertion of the Nittany Lions seems more logical in that only one goal has been scored against Bill Jeffrey's eleven, while five points have been tallied on the Red and Blue booters.

Unless a play-off is scheduled between the two schools, the question will have to wait until the association meet in January to award the championship, and since the president of that group is from Penn, breaks are very liable to go that way. Because the College has made no steps in arranging an extra-season game, only real interest on the part of the students will bring it about. Letters favoring the tilt, and sent to Philadelphia papers will aid considerably.

Although the swimming team is not sponsored by the College, a great deal of student interest has been shown in the sport. The victory over Johnstown Saturday showed the potentialities in the squad, and promises a good showing in future meets this year.

The original conception of the safety in football was to protect a team's lead, although that is seldom the case today. That is why it was given the name to play safe. Coop French used it to good advantage in a game with Syracuse in 1929.

The Nittany Lions had scored in the third period, and were leading 6-0, when the Orange eleven began a rush which carried to the Blue and White goal. After the Lion team had recovered the ball on downs French immediately grounded the ball behind the goal line to prevent the possibilities of a Syracuse touchdown. But again the Hill team started a march down the field, but was held on the goal, and French grounded the ball again. The final score was 6-0-0.

Penn Holds Tie With Lions For Soccer Championship

Jeffrey's Undefeated Squad Deadlocked With Quaker City Booters—Student Body Here Favors Challenge

By A. CONRAD HAIGES '33

As a rule to the victor belong the spoils, but Coach Bill Jeffrey's undefeated soccer squad, even though it attained the most nearly perfect score in the Eastern Intercollegiate league for the past season, cannot claim a championship because of Penn's 6-0-0 triumph over Cornell last Thursday. Since both the Philadelphia aggregation and the Nittany Lions emerged victorious in all of their six games, the contest has resulted in a dual-possession of the eastern championship. Penn's schedule included six teams of the Eastern league while State's listed only four. Jeffrey's team, however, amassed five shut-out scores to Penn's three. Only four games were needed for league recognition.

5 Goals Scored Against Penn

A glance over the Blue and White record for this season reveals that twenty-three goals have been scored against its opponent's one—and that in the Navy game by virtue of a penalty kick. While Penn has scored twenty-five tallies for the year, five black marks have been posted against it. Princeton registered two, Temple two, and Yale one.

Unless a match for the final play-off can be arranged with the Quaker City men, the contest will undoubtedly remain a tie. Graduate managers of athletics and undergraduate managers of the sport from each of the sixteen colleges in the league will vote upon the two contestants for the championship when they meet at the league convention in New York City the first Saturday in January.

Won Trophy Twice

Student opinion here seems to be highly in favor of challenging the Red and Blue squad for a game before the league meets in January. Judged as the strongest team in the east, the soccer fans have registered their desire for a contest and reports indicate that a move is being made to schedule a match.

Coach Jeffrey has tutored two championship teams for Penn State since his arrival here in 1926. The Nittany booters captured the Intercollegiate trophy in 1926 and again in 1929. During their existence, the squads have lost only five varsity games in seven years.

Joe Belicki took scoring honors during the past season with six goals to his credit. Don Masters, who set a new record for scoring goals as a substitute player, came second and tallied five points, while covering the post of center forward.

Eddy Finzel, inside right, kicked four goals during the entire season, and equaled Corbett, center forward, who also scored four. Captain "Shorty" Edwards aided his team by bagging three tallies, while Jack Fletcher scored one, to help pile up a total of twenty-three goals.

SIGMA PI WINS SECOND I. M. HORSE-SHOE CHAMPIONSHIP

Sigma Pi won the intramural horse-shoe pitching tournament for the second consecutive year when they completely outclassed the Alpha Phi Delta team in the final game played on the Recreation hall grounds yesterday afternoon.

The Sigma Pi team took three straight games. The winning team, composed of Robert G. Struble '35 and Bernard A. Riley '36, is the same duo which annexed the cup last year.

6 Varsity Harriers Receive Letter 'S'

Six members of the varsity cross-country squad were awarded major letters at a meeting of the Athletic Association last night. They were Captain William B. Rishel '34, Joseph S. Alexander '35, Duveney C. Book '36, George W. Harvey '35, John H. Light '36, and Paul L. Vandermark '35. Robert C. Hawnawalt '34, this year's student manager, also received a letter award.

Freshmen to receive numerals were: James M. Cahuff, Thomas D. Crum, Howard A. Downey, Arthur A. Gottlieb, James P. Hutcheson, Jack M. Patterson, Elton B. Tait, and William Trimble.

BERRY WINS MAJOR LETTER

N. Parker Berry '34 was awarded a major football letter, making twenty-nine instead of twenty-eight letter-winners as was previously announced. Berry played tackle until this year, when he was shifted to a guard position.

ALL I. M. FOOTBALL TEAM ANNOUNCED

Kappa Sigma Places 8 on Squad, Parks, Aldrich Repeat as Honorary Members

By KENNETH C. HOFFMAN '33
For the second consecutive year, the intramural touch football tournament winners have placed four men on the all-intramural team. In the 1933 selections, two line positions and the two halfback posts were awarded to members of Kappa Sigma's championship eleven.

Chi Phi, runner-up in the tournament this year, were represented by three players, while Sigma Phi Epsilon, 1932 tournament winners and quarter-finalists this year, secured two positions. Phi Kappa Tau, tournament quarter-finalists, and Chi Upsilon, semi-finalists, each placed one man on the first team.

Parks Retains Position

Jack Aldrich, who won honorable mention in last year's selections, and his running mate, Dick Flenniken, were named to the halfback posts. Aldrich's sweeping end runs and forward passing contributed largely to Kappa Sigma's successful season. Dick Ritenour, left end, who was on the receiving end of Aldrich's passes, and Roger Hetzel, right tackle, were Kappa Sigma's line representatives.

Keith Parks, Sigma Phi Epsilon's quarter back, won the first team position for the second year. Langford Dobbins, his teammate, was named all-intramural guard. Ed Atkinson, fullback; Briggs Pruitt, center; and Joe Bone, left guard, represented the Chi Phi gridgers.

Bob Watkins, Phi Kappa Tau, was awarded the left tackle position, and Jim Reed, Chi Upsilon, was named right end. The selections were based on lists submitted by the group who acted as officials for the games this fall.

COLUMBIA HONORS SLUSSER

Football Captain Tommy Slusser was selected as left end on Captain Cliff Montgomery's all-opponent selection for Columbia University.

The Biggest user OF FINE TURKISH TOBACCOS

—why Luckies taste better, smoother

On certain mountains in the Near East is a limited collar of earth—called in Turkish, "Yacca." Tobaccos grown there cost as high as $1.00 a pound. Carefully they are examined, leaf by leaf. Often it takes a man a whole day to select two pounds of certain of these fine tobaccos. Lucky Strike is the world's biggest user of fine Turkish tobaccos. For these tender, delicate Turkish leaves are blended with choice tobaccos from our own Southland—to make your Lucky Strike a cigarette that is fully packed—found and firm—free from loose ends. That's why Luckies taste better, smoother.
