MEN SELLING SUBSCRIPTIONS REVEALED AS FRAUDULENT

That the two young men soliciting subscriptions to magazines, especially Esquire, were a fraud was indicated by a telegram received by Stark Bros. and Harper late this week. When they heard that the solicitors were offering Esquire at half-price, they became suspicious and wired the publishers of that magazine.

Esquire replied that as they had no field organization of any kind, they would appreciate an investigation by local police. Chief Albert E. Yougel has sent out teletype flyers.

THUNDERING THE SAVAGE BATTLE-CRY OF AMERICA'S FORGOTTEN MILLION . . . .

"Not since 'The Dawn Patrol' has Barthelmess had a sturdier cinema vehicle than 'Massacre' . . . a striking document . . . courageous in its treatment and ruthless in its indictment, the picture drives home its stirring message with vigor and righteous indignation . . . the picture combines with its indignation all of the speed and red-blooded action to be found in the best of the western melodramas."
—Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

"Most vigorous assault upon American injustice the films have produced since 'I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang.'"
—N. Y. Herald Tribune

"Easily the best picture Barthelmess has had in several seasons."
—N. Y. Journal

"Barthelmess gives a vigorous and effective performance."
—N. Y. Times

"+++ Moves with speed and force . . . packed with exciting events."
—N. Y. News

"A picture worthy of your attention."
—N. Y. World Telegram

" . . . Barthelmess gives an energetic performance."
