

Between the Lions with The Sports Editor

Tommy Slusser has entered his last sports event for the Nittany Lion. He has been forced to stay out of the ring for the rest of the year because of the extraction of four abscessed teeth, the result of three years of boxing. We will always remember him as the gamiest Penn State boxer who ever put on the gloves. Never a great mitman, but always fighting, Tommy put himself over because of his grit. Football made him a shining light. As the greatest end here since Bob Higgins, Slusser culminated his feats by being selected on the "Brain Trust" all-American team this year. May we have more player's of Tommy's caliber in the future.

A Syracuse man to watch Saturday night—Don Pickard, a sophomore substitute forward who picked off sixteen points against Cornell. Also Ronnie Phillips—Captain and star veteran forward. Elky Maister, sharpshooting guard. Johnny De Young, veteran tip-off man. but they lost to Penn and Colgate.

LION COURTMEN TO TANGLE WITH SYRACUSE SATURDAY

Lesliemen To Face Same Men Who Won Last Year

Dear Messrs. Leslie and McFarlane: Could you please Orange to beat Syracuse Saturday night. —Loyal Son. If postage rates weren't so high and people didn't worry so much about the depression, this is just the type of letter that would be flooding Spike Leslie's office. Syracuse is going to be tough, plenty tough. Exactly the same team that lined up against the Lions at Syracuse last year and defeated them 42-to-21 will step out against the Lesliemen here Saturday night. And this year they nonchalantly started their season by winning nineteen straight games, including in the list, Cornell, Union, and Princeton.

However, there's a cheerful note in the air. After their nineteen wins, the Salt City warriors lost to Colgate, a team the Nittanymen defeated without too much trouble, 39-to-22. The most dangerous opponent that the team will have to reckon with is Johnny De Young, Hill center, who last year scored twenty-one points against the Nittanymen. He'll be out to repeat his performance. Next on the list of threats is Elky Maister, guard, who is a defense trap for even the best of forwards, and who has so far this season certainly held up his end of the scoring. Captain Ronnie Phillips, forward, who is rated as one of the best floor men in the East, Skids Sanford, also a forward, and Boots Alkoff, guard, will give the Nittanymen lots of trouble. Spike will start McFarlane and Stocker as forwards, Curt Henning at center, and Dave Thomas and Jack Fletcher as guards. Every one except Jack Fletcher played against the Syracuseans last year, as did Blyler and Wittum, both of whom will probably see service Saturday night.

LIONS TO ENGAGE LEHIGH WRESTLERS

Nittany Grapplers Will Meet With Engineers for First Time Since 1928

It's the meet they've been pointing for all year—the Lehigh meet Saturday afternoon. In the resumption of a rivalry suspended in 1928, the Lions will attempt to add another victory to a list that has been complete every year since the inception of the series. The Lions met the Engineers for the first time in 1911, and have taken sixteen of the seventeen subsequent encounters, dropping one in 1919 by a 19-to-13 score. They redeemed this, however, by winning another meet later in the year by a 19-to-14 count.

Lehigh has a perfect record so far this year, beating Syracuse 24-to-9, Illinois 21-to-11, and Yale 19-to-9. To balance this, the Lions can boast of a 15-to-13 victory against Columbia, a 34-to-0 whitewash of W. & J., and last Saturday's 16-to-16 tie with Cornell.

As yet, Coach Charlie Speidel has not definitely picked the squad that will make the trip, but either DiRito or Wolfson will meet Lilo Mixewell, Brown and White 118-pounder, who has three victories to his credit. Bob Ellstrom or Eisenman, 126-pound Lions, will meet Case, who has won two, or Taylor, who lost his only match.

Johnny Horvath or Johnny Light will meet Peck in the 135-pound class, while Capt. "Rosy" Rosenberg, in the 145-pound division, will meet Gonzales, who has won two and dropped one match. Bill Cramer, Lion 155-pounder, will have a tough time against Capt. Ben Bishop, who has scored three falls this year. Bishop was intercollegiate champion in 1932 and A. A. U. champion last year.

"Red" Johnston will meet Crockett in the 165-pound class. Crockett to date has two victories and one loss. Lou Kreizman, whose twenty-four-second victory was the highlight of last week's meet, will be opposed by Loux in the 175-pound division. "King" Cole will attempt to continue his winning streak against Scobey who has won one and lost two this year.

NITTANY RINGMEN TO FACE SYRACUSE

Nebel, Turnbull May Fight for Slusser, Ferrero on Team Crippled by Losses

A crippled Lion boxing team will face the Orangemen, last year's intercollegiate champions, at Syracuse Saturday night. Captain Tommy Slusser will be out of the Nittany line-up for the remainder of the season as will Paul Ferrero, Lion 155-pounder.

Yesterday afternoon Coach Leo Houck was undecided as to replacements which will be necessary for the Syracuse tilt. Leo mentioned Frank Nebel as a possible substitute for Slusser in the 155-pound division, while Alex Turnbull was named as the man who will probably replace Ferrero in the 155-pound division.

Otherwise the Lion line-up will be much the same as usual although there is no possibility of any of the Houckmen appearing in the unlimited class since Leo has reluctantly but definitely decided to forfeit this entry.

Loading a pipe, son, is like building a fire. NOW if you want to build a fire you've got to have the right kind of chimney, and you've got to have the right kind of wood, seasoned right and packed right in the fireplace. If you've got all this, it's easy to light up. "It's pretty near the same way in smoking a pipe. Now if you've got Granger Tobacco—the right kind of pipe tobacco—any old pipe will do. "And if you put in a pinch at a time and pack it down good and tight—the way to load a pipe—all you need to do is strike a match. "Granger smokes sweet and cool right down to the bottom of the bowl. "That's pipe comfort, I tell you." Granger Rough Cut the pipe tobacco that's MILD the pipe tobacco that's COOL —folks seem to like it
