3 Nittany Teams Will Attempt Comebacks in Contests Here Saturday

Between the Lions with

The Sports Editor

Here we've been waiting two months to find enough space to write a column on the football situation at Bucknell, and now. Bison authorities have gone and selected a new coach, and only two and one half inches to write on it. It seems to us that "Hooks" Mylin is passing up an easy, job at Lebanon Valley to take over coaching at Bucknell. He is going from a school where he didn't have to win to keep his job to a college where, if he doesn't produce results, he'll soon get his walking papers. And it won't be too easy to produce winning teams on non-scholarship material.

"Peaches," rated as the best Scarlet court captain in years, will be playing his last game for the New Brunswick aggregation. Helping him will be Lou Grower, forward, high scorer last year, who is the fastest man on the court team, and is also a Rutgers football and track star. Edward Blumbers, a sophomore. Lou Cudlin, guard, who has been high scorer in several of the Scarlet games this year, in addition to starring as a defense man. He plays forward position a great deal of the time, as he has a perfect eye on peep shots from the foul line.

Nittanymen Prepared

The Lesliemen have been reviewing undamentals in preparation for this game. They've recovered from the isappointment of losing with victory disappointment of losing with victory in sight against Syracuse, and will be ready to deliver second-half performance from the starting whistle Saturday night. In addition to McFarlane, Henning, and Thomas, Spike will probably start Stocker at forward and Jack Fletcher at guard. Penn State's other two senior varsity men, Laddie Blyler and Keith Parks, will get into the game before it's very old.

In addition to their win over Colgate, the Rutgers crew has won from Lehigh twice, from Lafayette twice, from Stevens last week, and from Trenton and Montelair in opening

FOR BALTIMOREANS

Several Varsity Men Still Out

As Result of Meet With Lehigh Last Week

By JOHN A. BRUTZMAN '35'

By JOHN A. BRUTZMAN '35'
The Lion wrestling squad will attempt to resume its victory march when it meets the Johns Hopkins seam in Recreation hall at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It will be a rather patched-up team that Coach Charlie Speidel will send against the Baltimore doctors with several members of the varsity still injured as a result of the Lehigh meet last week.

The Johns Hopkins squad has met some of the toughest matmen in the country, including Lehigh and Franklin and Marishall. "Cheerful" Charlie is looking for a victory, but no walkaway, fearing that the Blue Jays. might prove just a bit too stiff.

might prove just a bit too stiff.

Nittany Line-up Indefinite.
The line-up is still undecided. If Bob Ellstrom can make the weighthe will be the 118-pound representative. If he cannot, Sammy Wolfson will represent the Lions in that division. Either Ellstrom or Eisenman will grapple in the 126-pound class. Probably Waite will hold down the 135-pound position, inasmuch as Johnny Horvath is through for the season. The arm injury he received in the Lehigh meet will keep him out of action for the rest of the year. Capt. "Rosy" Rosenberg will fight in the 145-pound class.

Either Jim Reed or Alex Turnbull will be the Lion grappler in the 155-pound division, Turnbull returning to the mats after a year's absence. "Red" Johnston, 165-pound Lion, will hold down his regular position, while Yoder will appear in the 175-pound class. Lou Kreizman has moved up a weight to replace "King" Cole, who is nursing an injured shoulder.

Palisin's Eliminiation May Cause Harvey, Downey Capture Middle Shifts in Line-up For Saturday's Meet week's work-outs is carried into the scrap Saturday night it should result in a victory for the Houckmen.

Since Red Palisin seems to be def-nitely out of the Blue and White lineinitely out of the Blue and White line-up it may be necessary to shift Mike Zeleznock out of his class and place him in the 135-pound division. If this change is made Francis McAn-drews will probably get the call for the 125-pound assignment.

McAndrews Shows Speed
Yesterday afternoon McAndrews went through three fast rounds with Mutt Kessler while Leo looked the boys over. McAndrews exhibited plenty of speed and punching power and kept his heavier opponent on the run most of the time. Incidentally, Mike Zeleznoek was allowed to rest last night and did not go through his usual ring work-out.

Yes 115-nounder, chased

Criswell, Lion 115-pounder, chased through a couple of rounds with Herasimchuk. Both boys looked fast but Criswell seemed to be favoring a little too much right, hand to suit the taste of Coach Houck, who stepped into the art of using the left without going off balance.

Pruitt, 155, took on Strubble in a short tiff yesterday afternoon. Pruitt exhibited a sparkling left which brought results and gave Struble plenty of trouble. Pruitt will probably see service Saturday.
