Rutgers Sneaks Past Lion Five, 35-34, as Matmen Blank Doctors, 34-0

Between the Lions with

The Sports Editor

When Harry Balthaser announced that Carrol of Maryland would meet McAndrews of Penn State in the 125pound class, we wondered just how many times that "McAndrews of Penr State" had resounded through Rec

Captain Johnny when the kid brother was winning a championship in the 135-pound class. Now Johnny has made a comeback in Francis' corner and is helping the other kid brother his search for a crown. We doubt there ever were two boxers who 34-to-33. No one thinks of sitting looked more allied that the looked was the life that the looked were the boxers who 34-to-33. No one thinks of sitting looked more allied to the looked was the life that the looked was the l Captain Johnny when the kid brother out. looked more alike in the ring than down. Kozusko gets the tip off down. Kozusko gets the tip of down. Kozusko gets the tip off down. Kozusko gets the tip of down. Kozusko gets the tip of down. Kozusko gets the tip off down. Kozusko gets the tip off game Saturday night kept getting shorter and shorter to us when Rutgers was in the lead, but when the Lion team took matters under control during the last few minutes, we thought the game would never end. It ended all too soon, because there seemed to give the challenge much thought. Now the rumors are floating around that Carriera would be willing to meet Hamas in a bout in Philadelphia in early summer. The financial success of the Hamas-Schmeling flight is drawing the attention of the Italian's managers more than anything else. If the match should come off, the former Nittany Lion will be entering the biggest fight of his carrier, with the edge and ham in the sum in the half period, the Lions took the lead and held it for a couple of minutes, until Gadlin, until then an obscure figure in the Rutgers and success of the Hamas-Schmeling the New Brunsteil defense, and fumbled. Scoring with the edge up until the last few minutes. Those last few minutes, nothing but a miracle could have stopped the Lions. The third member of a fighting. seemed to give the challenge much eer, with the odds all against him. He will have to be prepared to meet the bullying tactics of the giant Car-

Announcing the opening of Kalin's Dress Shop 144 S. Allen St. Tues., March 6

BLUMBERG BLASTS NITTANY HOPES

Scarlet Forward Sinks Winning Basket in Final Moment To Halt Lion Rally

By JAMES B. WATSON JR. '35 Three and a half minutes to play
... the Lions are trailing a 33-to-27
score ... people are starting to leave
... Norrie McFarlane booms a long State" had resounded through Rec hall. It seems to be a custom of the Nittany Lion boxing team to carry a McAndrews, and how those names do bolster the team!

First Marty came along, and as captain of the Lion mitmen grabbed himself a title in the heavyweight class. Ho stepped in again and seconded Cantain Johnny when the kid brother

Score Tied at Half

The second half of the Rutgers game Saturday night kept getting shorter and shorter to us when Port the ended all too soon, because there wasn't time for the Nittanymen to sink another shot after the Red team had caged the winning basket in the last minute of play. Up to that time it looked like a Frank Merriwell finish for Coach Spike Leslie's team, with Captain Norrie McFarlane playing the hero's role.

When Steve Hamas stepped into the ring before the Carnera-Loughran bout and challenged the winner to a match for the championship, nobody second to give the chellenge much be second to give the challenge much to see the coarse and the coarse and to give the challenge much to see the coarse and the coarse and to give the challenge much to give the challenge much to see the coarse and the coarse and to give the challenge much to give the challenge the challenge and to give the challenge the chall the challenge the challenge the challenge the challenge the ch

McFarlane Nets 22 Points miracle could have stopped the Lions. But the miracle happened.

McFarlane topped his season's recthe bullying tactics of the giant Carnera, tactics with which Loughran was unable to cope.

—J. M. S.

—J. M. each picked off two, and Jack Fletch er squeezed in a foul goal. Three Rut-gers men, Blumberg the fatal, Grower, and Captain Peaches Heenan scored nine points each, while Cudlin, with seven points, trailed for the New Brunswick team.

Comment: A great game—a fitting end to the Penn State court careers of four men, Norrie McFarlane, Dave Thomas, Curt Henning, and Laddic processing the second of the s a processing of the state of th

Call 811	Delivery Service
	se Discriminating Tastes aplete Satisfaction at Con	ipiete Satisfaction at 15
ALC: NO.
A Mitter
A Secretary
conti	ard strong lane are
SPR1	NG SUITS—$24-$40 extra for Sport Models
Cleaning	Acts for Sport Biodels
Creating	Tailoring

Andrew College College

Lion Mainstays During Season

Lion Boxers Drop 4½-to-3½ Fracas to Maryland Team

Forfeit in Unlimited Division Fatal to Nittany Mitmen—Pruitt Rolls Up Colorful Decision Over Herbsleb

By JAMES B. BEATTY Ir. '35

Splitting seven contests with their frame. In the third Zeleznock tried opponents, Lion mitmen fell short of hard to land a lethal right but could-possible victory when they forfeited the military of the mi splitting seven contests. In the ossible victory, when they forfeited he unlimited class fight to Farrel f Maryland to give the inyaders the eavy cnd of a 4½-to-3½ score in the ing tilt in Recreation hall Saturday light.

Fighting in the 165-pound division, Briggs Pruitt gained the most colorful Lion victory when, after being knocked down by Herbsleb in the pening round, he twice seat the Marylander to the canvas in the second in which the bell saved his opponent from a K. O. In the closing round, Pruitt downed Herbsleb for five counts to clinch his right to a clear dicision.

Criswell Wins Opener

Criswell Wins Opener

Criswell wins Opener

Criswell had a rugged if somewhat erratic puncher to handle in Waller, Maryland 115-pound and 115-pound entry, but weathered a bad first round to return in the closing rounds and gain command of the situation. Waller tried hand to refer the meet and exhibited promotor in the interest of the meet and exhibited promotor in the interest of the meet and exhibited promotor in the closing round a superior and heavier Maryland optonent in the closing round as a sug-fest but was unsuccessful and the Lion won the decision.

Maryland to give the invaders the find the mark. Babcock gained hat the decision.

And the mark. Babcock gained hat decision.

Flenniken stacked up against a right-hand slugger in the 155-pound til when he took the ring against of Maryland fernation and recovered beautifully from a knockdown in the second to come up fast and hang a right on the Mac-boy jaw. In the third Mac-boy jaw in the tring debut was maked Sattle Webb of Maryland for a draw in the late of the pening for a K. O. one minute and forty seconds after the round opened.

Webb of Maryland for a draw in the late of the mark of the best bat when hat a superior and heavier with Mac-boy jaw in the third Mac-the decision.

The third member of a fighting family made a ring debut under the Blue and White mantle when Francis McAndrews, 125, cleverly out-punched and out-manouevered Carrol of Maryland to hang up a decision for the Lions. McAndrews brought his lanky opponent to the canvas for a short count in the first round when he landed a hard overhand right to the head.

Mike Zeleznek Lases

Mike Zeleznock Loses Mike Zeleznock Loses Mike Zeleznock stopped out of his 125-pound position to oppose Babcock, Maryland 135-pounder, in a hard tilt in which both weight and reach were on the side of his opponent. In the second round Babcock gained a short knock-down following an exchange of rights but except for this advantage the Marylander gained little in this

ne Marylander gained li	ttie	ın	ın:
Grower, f	1 1 1 1 0	3 1 1 0
Totals15	5	11	3

presentative was a goodly supply of courage which he has been displaying throughout the season. McCaw took I. M. WRESTLERS

Vinners of First 3 Places in All Classes Will Receive Points; Medals

ENTER SEMI-FINALS

Intramural wrestlers will go into the quarter-final round of the tour-nament in the 135-pound class this week, while those in the 115-, 125-, 165-, and 175-pound classes will go into the semi-final rounds, according to Bruce D. Stratton '35, manager of the tournament.

the tournament.

Winners of the first three places in each class will receive gold, silver, and bronze medals, respectively

'Never a Fight in Three Years' Says Bezdek of John McGraw in 1932.

"You see, I was just coming up at termendous loss to baseball—in color, and tradition, as well as presented that time and I was anxious to learn anything about the game I could," leave the helm of the Pittsburgh National League club. "I respected his knowledge and influence on the game, and was always ready to accept his advice.

"McGraw realized the feeling by helping me all fee could," the former manager and tradition, as well as presented to remember about the remember of base and the rough-and-ready school on the diamond, but after the game. He was one of the personalities of the game.

"I always considered McGraw one of baseball's greatest leaders, along the could," the former manager and was to make the could, "Mack used to go out of his way to divise me, and often without my asking. Huggins, of the Yankees, was another who would help me out."

and never a fight in This should be a major league record of some sort, since Bezdek and the three years."

Hugo Bezdek, director of the School of Physical Education, was winding in sixty-six games during the three up reminiscences about John Mc-Graw, who died early this week after a reoccurrent attack of uremic poisoning which caused him to resign as manager of the New York Giants in 1932.

"You see I was instantiation."

Nittany Mat Team Swamps Johns Hopkins Saturday

Wolfson, Rosenberg, Turnbull, Johnston Throw Rivals in Delayed Match Here

when the Bluejays failed to enter nan in that division.

CUB CAGERS DOWN

BELLEFONTE, 42-16

titzie, Fetterman Score 10 Marker

Each as Yearlings Trample

Academy Visiotrs

Using a completely revamped line-up, the Lion Cub cagers scored their third victory of the season when they smothered Bellefonte Academy under

By JOHN A. BRUTZMAN 35

It was a make-shift team that and threw McDaniel, Bluejay 155-Coach Charlie Speidel sent against the pounder in eight minutes, fifty-eight seconds. "Red" Johnston had little ternoon, but it was still good enough difficulty with Mitchell in the 165-to defeat the Bluejays by a score of 34-to-0. Four falls and three time minutes, sixteen seconds. advantages, capped by a forfeit in the heavyweight division, enabled the Lion matmen to amass the most points since defeating W. & J. by the same Yoder, Lion 175-pounder, won in his first match of the season, holding the advantage over Katche for most of the match, amassing a time advar tage of nine minutes, thirty-two sec-onds. Lou Kriezman moved up to the heavyweight division while "King" Cole nursed an injured shoulder and was awarded five points and a ferfeit

It began look as if spectators were It began look as it spectators were going to miss a perfectly good wrest-ling meet when match time came, with no sign of a visiting team. It de-veloped later that the Bluejays missed a turn or two on their journey here and found themselves in Lewisburg at 2 o'clock. Saturday's fog delayed their return here, and almost half of the spectators had left before the Bluejays made their appearance abou

Wolfson, DiRito Win

Sammy Wolfson scored the first ive points for the Lions when he five points for the Lions when he threw Gelber, 118-pounder, in seven minutes, twenty-seven seconds. Di-Rito, who has been alternating all season with Wolfson in the 118-pound division, moved up to the 126-pound class, and defeated Miller by a two-minute time advantage in two extra periods.

Waite, 135-pounder, had little trouble with Captain Hartman of the Johns Hopkins team, securing a time advantage of six minutes, forty seconds in a split bout. Captain Rosenberg threw Waters in the 145-pound along in Second class in four minutes, twenty-five seconds.

Turnbull Secures Fall Alex Turnbull, the versatile mit and nat man, returned to his first love

Stratton explained, although the re-ceipt of these medals will not give extra points to the teams which the extra points to the teams which the winners represent.

Five points will be awarded for each fall obtained and three points for a time advantage. Five points will also be given to a man winning by forfeit, provided that he has already wrestled once. He cannot receive these points, the manager explained, unless he has had one previous encounter.

plained, unless he has had one previous encounter.

If the tournament progresses as regularly as it has this past week and the meets are run-off on time, Stratton believes the finals in each of the classes will be held in Recreation hall on Saturday night.

The box score:

Track Squad Leaves For IC-4A Games

A squad of Lion trackmen left State College early yesterday mor-ning to compete in the annual IC-4A meet to be held tonight at Mad-ison Square Garden in New York City. Seven men are making the tring Gity. Seven men are making the trip.

George Harvey will compete against the outstanding runners of the country in the 1,500 meter run, and Jackson will step the high hurdles. In addition to Sayland and O'Shea, a freshman relay team, composed of Crum, Rosenberger, Oesterling, and Downey, is also making the trip.

LION SWORDSMEN CONQUER RUTGERS

Win First Match 9-8; Lose Se By 7-6 Score to Penn on Saturday Night

Unbeaten for two years in intercol-legiate competition, Rutgers swords-men bowed before the Lion fencers, 9-to-8, at New Brunswick Friday. The Blue and White then lost a close-

The Blue and White then lost a closely-contested match to a more experienced Penn team at Philadelphia the following night, 7-to-6.
Kreeger won two matches in the epee event at Rutgers, which had been listed for an exhibition match only.
After his victories, however, it was decided to count the results in the final score. In the followest Contain smothered Bellefonte Academy under a 42-to-16 score in Recreation hall on Saturday afternoon. Three veterans, Smith, Perry, and Linton, saw no action during the contest.

The yearling courtmen ran up fourteen points before Bellefonte was able to garner a field goal near the end of the first quarter, which ended with the score standing at 16-to-3. Fetterman hit his stride in the second period, accounting for three field goals. The half ended with the Cubs leading, 24-to-7.

The Academy team put on a spurt in the third period and outscored the vearlings, nine points o six. Kemple leading, 24-to-7.	clashes, however, State took three of

	The Academy team put on a spurt	the four bouts, Lipesczky winning
۰	in the third period and outscored the	1
•	yearlings, nine points to six. Kemple accounted for five points near the	PENN STATE FRESHMEN-12 end of the quarter, sinking two field	FIG FIG FIT Die.
,	goals from beyond the foul line and	Meeder, f 2 0 0 4
	goals from beyond the four fine and	Ritzie, f. g 5 0 0 10
	adding a foul shot as the period end-	McWilliams, c 2 0 0 4 Morini, g 2 0 0 4
į	ed. In the final period, the Loebs	Robbins, g 2 0 0 4
ı	proteges regained command of the	Fetterman, f 5 0 0 10 ı	contest, holding their opponents score-	Girton, g 0 0 1 0
ı		Radeliffe, c 2 0 0 4
ı	less while they rang up twelve points	Dunn, f1 0 0 2
ı	on the score-board.	Totals21 0 1 42
ı	Ritzie and Fetterman divided scor-
ı		FIG FIG FIG FIG
Į	ing honors for the Cubs, each netting	H. Mansine, f 0 1 2 1 five field goals, while five other fresh-	j. Uhler, f 2 0 0 4
ı	man cagers made four points each.	Harter, c. 0 0 1 0 Thomas, g. 1 3 3 5
Ì	Kemple was high scorer for the los-	Kemple, g. c 2 2 6 6
ı	ers, with six counters to his credit.	B. Mansine, g. f 0 0 0 0
l		Miller, g. 2 0 0 0 0
I	while Thomas scored five points.	Totals T T T
Ì	The box score:	Totals 5 6 12 16 Referee—Stewart.

ADVERTISING ITS QUALITIES

To cure dull times—apply an advertisement to the afflicted part.

A sign-board can't tell everything-it takes an advertisement to do that.

All who advertise do not get rich, but few get rich

The world is full of advertising, yet everyone wants to see what is new.

The world's memory is short. It will forget you if you do not jog it frequently.

Your advertisement is your representative. It need not be large or imposing, but should be honest and re-

The advertisement puts you into communication with your buyers.

PENN STATE COLLEGIAN

Wednesday :: $1 DAY $1 :: Stark Bros. and Harper