CHEDSEY TO STUDY MINES

Professor William R. Chedsey, head of the mining department of the School of Mineral Industries, has been appointed a member of the committee on mine fans' ventilation of the American Mining Congress. This committee is concluding some investigation and research work which, Prof. Chedsey believes, will improve ventilation and result in higher fan efficiencies.

are to be played in Recreation hall: Alpha Omicron Pi will meet the Downtown Women at 7 o'clock; Theta Phi Alpha and the Women's building will play at 7:15 o'clock.

MISCELLANEOUS

Finals in the intramural basketball tournament will be held at 2 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, March 24. Semi-finals will be run off Thursday night, March 22. Members of the freshman basketball squad will not be permitted to play on the teams.

Alpha Omicron Pi and Delta Gamma, Phi Mu and Theta Phi Alpha are requested to play-off semi-finals in the women's intramural bridge tournament before tomorrow night.

Patrons of the Artists' Course who find it impossible to attend single numbers of the course are requested to turn their tickets in at the Student Union office. They will be sold and the proceeds given to the holder, or if the owners prefer, given to those who might otherwise be unable to attend.

FARMER STAFF COMPLETED

James W. Shearer '35 was elected managing editor of the Penn State Farmer for next year, in addition to the officers already listed in Monday's COLLEGIAN.

LIBRARY SHOWS COLLECTION OF RARE BOOKS, MAGAZINES

An exhibition of rare old copies of discontinued magazines, valuable first editions, autographed books, and personal letters written by now famous authors to Prof. William L. Werner, of the department of English literature, is being shown in Room K, College library, during this week. The purpose of the exhibition is to illustrate various phases of contemporary American literature. The items have been classified under the following heads: The gay and tragic nineties, Greenwich Village, the experimental magazines, the new poetry, the censors' war, Sinclair Lewis, eroth novelists, and the columnists.

WAR POLL RESULTS DELAYED

The results of the COLLEGIAN poll in cooperation with the Brown Daily Herald of student opinion on methods of outlawing war will be published on Monday.

A LADY writes:—"I like your candid way of asking me to compare OLD GOLDS with my present brand... instead of bombarding me with brazen claims. I have been wedded to another brand for five years. But your sporting approach has persuaded me to try OLD GOLD."

We've simply found that the best way to make an OLD GOLD convert is to invite him to try OLD GOLDS a few days and smoke out his own facts.

No better tobacco grows than is used in OLD GOLDS. And they are PURE. (No artificial flavoring)

We claim no special credit for being fair to the other fellow.
