

Nittany Batsmen To Engage Susquehanna Saturday Afternoon

Bedenk Names 3 Lions To Start First Contest

Remaining Lineup Will Remain Questionable Until Additional Practices Reveal Abilities of Candidates

By BILL McDOWELL
With the exception of three positions, the Nittany Lion baseball line-up for the opening game of the 1934 season with Susquehanna on New Beaver Field at 2:30 o'clock Saturday is just one big question as far as Coach Joe Bedenk is concerned.

Lack of opportunity for practice has been the Lion-diamondmen's bane ever since the April rains began to descend and the floods came. Only seven rehearsals for the Saturday fray have been "sandwiched" in between showers.

WRIGHTING BETWEEN THE LIONS

By FRED W. WRIGHT

Thanks for the send-off, J. M. S.

About the time that Phil Page was elected baseball captain back in 1926, a left-handed freshman by the name of Rus Van Atta was attracting no little attention, not only because of his Herculean stature but because he persisted in dropping quite a few batters in the box with his wildness. At the end of 1927, Page was graduated and tried his lot as a professional ball player. He bobbed up with Detroit in the American League about three years later, was farmed out, and this year bounced back into the limelight with Brooklyn Dodgers, the 23-man circus of the National League. Meanwhile, Van Atta stepped in where Page left off and, after finishing the 1928 season here, entered pro ranks. Last year he came up with the Yanks.

Early this week the two-ex-Lion twirlers faced each other across a major league diamond, from opposite dug-outs and then, in relief roles, became opposing pitchers. The former captain entered the game ahead 2-1, but Van Atta got credit for the victory 4-2 in one of these games that is decided by one blow that drives a lot of unnecessary runs across. Of course it was only a training game, but it was one place where the loser seems destined to come out on top. Page seems assured of his job. Brooklyn needs pitchers—any kind will do—and left-handed Phil is fortunate in being one of the top flight for a comparative rookie. On the other hand, Mynherr-Van Atta, after a brilliant first-year record, has a black future, so they say. An accident in December cost him a pitching-hand injury that hasn't aided his control. In winning against Page, he walked four in four innings. But the gentleman from New Jersey can still hit 'em, despite the p. that appears after his name in the box scores. He lined one out against the bleachers that hit the sign marked "350 feet."

LIONS TO ENGAGE IN SECTIONAL TILT

Morrison, Andrews To Captain East-West Grid Teams In Initial Clash

By JOHNNY MILLER
Whether it is in the East where men are men or whether it is in the West where modern Hercules are reared, will be decided when Head Coach Bob Higgins' 1935 varsity grid candidates clash in an East-West tilt on Saturday afternoon. Varsity Captain Morrison will lead the East team and Fritz Andrews will captain the West. McKee, Smith, Morini, Radcliffe, White, and Terry from the West team will match wit and brute strength with Sunday, Fry, Orlando, Ritzie, and Krupa for end positions. Schuyler Salisbury, Parks, and Quackenbush will attempt to hold the Eastern tacklers, Cromwell, Sauchak, Wismer, Pohe, and Scott from opening too many large holes in that territory. Guarding for the West team will be done by Barth, Latorre, O'Dowd, Eisenman, and Kessler. The East team will depend upon Kiezman, Stambaugh, Civita, Klock, and Zemina to win honors here. The pivot men will include O'Hara, Murray, York, and McWilliams for the West and Cherundolo, Perlman, Miller, Meeks, and Cino for the East.

The starting lineup has not yet been chosen. Every man will probably see action at some time during the game, as Coach Higgins will be scrutinizing the men closely to determine the prospects for next fall's varsity. The pigskin toters for the westerners include Rhoda, Girton, Andrews, Dutka, Kirkendall, Cooper, Ketcham, and Ellstrom. Opposing them for glories of the backfield are Morrison, Silvano, Maurer, Yett, Case, Hess, Engle, Ochroch, and Rice. The umpire will most likely be Duffy. The other officials have not been chosen.

LION TEN TO LEAVE FOR MIDDY GAME

Coach Leobs To Take 17 Players To Annapolis For Game Against Veterans

By HARRY HENDERSON

Seventeen very determined Lion lacrosse players will board a bus early tomorrow morning for Annapolis where they will try to stick a veteran Navy team Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Neither has been defeated as yet and the Blue and White squad is particularly anxious to add another victory to its comeback record.

The Middy aggregation, always one of the strongest teams in the East and rated third in the seeding of teams last year, is a more experienced squad both from the standpoint of veterans and from the number of games played this year. In Philadelphia several weeks ago they fired broadsides into the Penn goal and took the match with ease, 14-10-1.

Lion Chances Improved
However, last Saturday, the Midshipmen's fleet attack against the Princeton ten just didn't seem able to find the range for their shots and after several extra periods split the game with the New Jersey boys, 2-0-2. The Navy men also have the advantage of a few more weeks of practice due to the warm weather of the south. Last week's showing against the Hobart ten proved that the Lions will put up a much more satisfactory performance Saturday than they did against Navy last year when they dropped the match, 11-0-4, after holding a 2-0-2 tie throughout the first quarter. All of the Blue and White stickmen are in fine shape with the exception of Johnny Rathmell and "Hank" Mouthrop, stellar defense men who received leg injuries during a hard practice scrimmage Tuesday night. Both men are expected to be in condition to play Saturday, however.

Gerber to Start at Goal
Upon arrival at the Naval Academy tomorrow afternoon, Captain George Koth and his teammates will work out in a short practice session and limber any muscles that may have stiffened up during the long bus ride. Coach Leobs will probably start Gerber, speedy sophomore, at goal, and "Iggie" Weber and Jim Reed as points. "Hank" Mouthrop and Johnny Rathmell will be in their old positions at first and second defense while Kline will hold down the center berth. Jack Fletcher and Bates Barnes will open at the first and second attack positions with Captain Koth and Ernie Kaulfuss playing the homes.

WINS 1. M. BOWLING TOURNEY

Sigma Alpha Epsilon bowling team proved their right to claim the intramural championship when they blanketed the Chi Phi aggregation, 3-0-0, in a series of matches on the local alleys.

These humble quatrains are composed

To tell a sprightly tale
Of how a witty junior nosed
A senior with a frail.

The tale, ye hearties, goes like this:
It seems two lads were nuts
About a certain little miss
Whose name, we'll say, was Lutz.

Now Bert had honors, letters; he
Was quite the well-known lad.
While two-bucks-ten and faith-in-me
Were all that Tommy had.

When blond Miss Lutz declined to go
With Bert, he wondered why.
That Tommy should get all the show
Was quite a blackened eye.

The junior's Christian name was Tom;
The senior's name was Bert.
They both considered for the prom
The same blond, blue-eyed skirt.

He learned the night the prom was thrown
Why he had lost the date.
For Tom had made the timely loan
Of someone's Ford V-8!
