

STUDENT UNION BULLETIN

All notices will be received at the Student Union desk in Old Main until 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for a Thursday issue, and until Saturday noon for a Monday issue. Additional notices may be phoned to the Old Main COLLEGIAN office on Wednesday and Sunday night.

TOMORROW

Prof George J. Free, of the nature education department, will address an open meeting of the Aero club in Room 107, Main Engineering, at 7:15 o'clock on "Meteorology." A weather Bureau motion picture will be shown. Seniors attending the Move-Up Day dance should bring matriculation cards in order to obtain favors.

MONDAY

The student branch of the American Ceramic society will meet in Room 119, Mineral Industries, at 6 o'clock. Wolfman, from a large commercial enamel company, will speak on "Enamels." All teams desiring to enter the intramural soccer tournament should pay their $1.00 entrance fee at Miss Kellar's office in Recreation hall before Wednesday night. The tournament will open on the following Monday.

MISCELLANEOUS

Candidates for second assistant managerships in golf report to the Athletic Association office immediately.

All students who have not received their FERA checks yet should call at the Treasurer's office, Old Main, immediately. Students must present their matriculation cards to draw their checks.

1,500 EXPECTED TO ATTEND CREAMERY MEETING TONIGHT

Fifteen hundred patrons of the College creamery are expected to attend the annual social evening held for them at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Armory.

The creamery will furnish ice cream and coffee, while each family will bring a home made cake. Dean Ralph L. Watts, of the School of Agriculture, and Prof. Andrew A. Borland, of the department of dairy husbandry, will speak and motion pictures will be shown. Music is to be furnished by the freshman R. O. T. C. band.

MARQUARDT TO RESUME POST

Dr. Charles E. Marquardt, College examiner, will terminate his annual vacation May 7, after having spent a month at home. Dr. Robert E. Dengler, professor of classical languages, has been acting college examiner in Dr. Marquardt's place.

Pleasant, cheerful rooms where your guests are always welcome. Reservations open for Alumni Day and Junior Prom week-end.

PROM TO FEATURE HAWAIIAN SETTING

Willgoos '36 Named Winner of Poster Award; Swerman, Balis Get Mentions

Several palm trees are being imported from Florida as a part of the decorations for Junior Prom, May 4. The committee is attempting to reproduce an Hawaiian setting as accurately as possible and several innovations are being made in the manner of decorating the hall.

Instead of having draperies on the walls, as has been customary at former major dances, hand-painted scenes of Hawaii are being substituted. The usual crystal ball is being replaced by several large mica lamps, lowered from the ceiling. As the feature of the decorations, the committee will place a reproduction of the highly-lauded Hawaiian moon in the background.

Robert A. Willgoos '36 was selected as the winner of the dance poster contest by Andrew W. Case, of the department of architecture, yesterday. The prize awarded to the winner was a free ticket to the dance. Honorable mentions were given to Jacob Swerman '35, and Joseph F. Balis '36 for their posters.

The final contract has been drawn up with Hal Kemp for the dance, and under the agreement the orchestra will be accompanied by Kemp's regular repertoire of performers, plus Maxine Gray.

Alumni To Revisit College With Prospective Students

Inaugurating an entirely new scheme for encouraging alumni to return to the campus, the first annual Alumni Visiting Day will be held here Saturday. Former students are being urged to return to the College then and bring their sons and daughters who are contemplating entering here next fall with them.

The event is being carried on more or less as an experiment, according to Edward K. Hibshman, executive secretary of the Alumni Association. The College is endeavoring to render the alumni a service by helping their sons and daughters secure all the information they can about the College and the courses they intend to study, before hand. In this way they will be
