

AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR METALS PLANS WEEK-END MEETING

5 State Chapters Will Attend Metallurgical Conference Friday, Saturday

HETZEL TO WELCOME DELEGATES AT DINNER

Visitors To Make Optional Tour Of Mineral Manufacturing Plant in Bellefonte

The Pennsylvania Inter-chapter of the American Society for Metals which is the most important society of its kind in America, will hold a two-day convocation here Friday and Saturday.

President Ralph D. Hetzel will open the conference with a short welcoming address following an informal dinner at the Nittany Lion Inn at 6 o'clock Friday night.

Allen To Discuss Steel The technical session will get underway Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock under the chairmanship of H. W. Gillett.

Frank J. Allen, engineer on production development for a York machinery company, will speak on "Steel—Its Selection and Application for General Shop Practices."

At the dinner Friday night, in addition to Dr. Hetzel's talk, President W. H. Phillips of the American Society for Metals will speak.

Thespians Will Entertain Entertainment will include music by the Glee Club, several Thespian songs and dances, and exhibitions by athletic groups.

B. F. Shepherd, vice-president of the A. S. M., will speak on "The P. F. Characteristics of Steel."

An informal tea will be given in honor of the women who accompany the men to the conference, at the Nittany Lion Inn Friday afternoon.

Thespian Club Prepares for Second Production of 'My Stars' Saturday

When a very pretty girl crawls through the window of a dormitory into a football player's room and demands of him a kiss, things have just got to happen.

Donald H. Dixon '37, who plays a lead opposite H. Grace Baer '34, is also the author of two of the show's hit tunes.

Josephine S. Stetler '34 while Richard H. Allen '36 wrote "Drink a Bromo" which is sung by a male ensemble.

When a very pretty girl crawls through the window of a dormitory into a football player's room and demands of him a kiss, things have just got to happen.

Faculty, Students Approve New L.A., Education Merger

Bissey, Warnock, Lewis, Bertolette Compliment Schools on Changes Made

General approval and agreement with the specific requirements for freshmen and sophomore students in the School of Liberal Arts and School of Education under the newly proposed plan was voiced by the students and members of the faculty who were interviewed today.

"This is the best move that the College has made in some time," Cyrus V. D. Bissey, scheduling officer, declared.

President Ralph D. Hetzel will open the conference with a short welcoming address following an informal dinner at the Nittany Lion Inn at 6 o'clock Friday night.

P. S. C. A. WILL FETE DR. FONG FOO SEC

Publisher Will Speak at Dinner Meeting in Sandwich Shop Monday Night at 6:30

Dr. Fong Foo Sec, Chinese publisher and director of Rotary International, will be the guest of honor at a dinner under the sponsorship of the P. S. C. A. in the Old Main Sandwich Shop at 6:30 o'clock Monday night.

Hartmann To Discuss War Dr. Fong, who will speak on international relations, is one of the two Chinese Rotarians credited with assisting in the negotiations which ended the Shanghai campaign two years ago.

Dr. Hartmann, speaking on "War and Peace," will present a summary of the recent report by Kirby Page on the attitudes of 20,780 ministers in this country on topics relating to war and economic problems of the nation.

Contest Winners Named In 'Froth'

Junior Prom Number To Go On Sale Friday Featuring Largest Issue In 2 Years

Carrying six full pages of photographs besides large pictures of the Best Dressed Man and Most Attractive Co-ed contest winners, the Junior Prom issue of Froth will go on sale at the Corner on Friday.

A double spread page will feature the photographic description of "The Rise of John T. Jones," a study of an underdog's life from the time of matriculation at college to graduation.

A full page caricature of various professors and administrative officials of the College and the impressions which they create is one of the main contributions of James T. Dugan '37, whose art work has been a feature of the magazine for some time.

"Margie Was a Lady" is the title of a full page ballad, written by James S. Norris '34. This is the swan song issue of the staff headed by Maynard P. Wood '34 whose work will be taken over by the newly elected staff immediately after this issue.

P. S. C. A. PUBLISHES BULLETIN Beginning this week, the P. S. C. A. will issue a weekly bulletin of coming events containing the Chapel program, all meetings, lectures, and social functions.

Proposal Would Reduce FERA Work 5 Percent

Student FERA work here will be reduced by five percent providing a proposal now being considered by the Federal Emergency Relief Board is finally approved.

The reason that the cut is being made is because the Federal Board under-estimated the amount of money it would need to carry on the relief at the colleges and universities, when the appropriations were first made.

When asked whether he thought the curriculum as proposed by the committee was too difficult for freshmen to carry, Dean Warnock replied that the average freshman today has more of a background than the best ones of ten years ago had and that the work shouldn't be overburdensome.

"The new plan will give the School of Education a chance to become what it should be, wholly a professional unit. The work as proposed in the new freshmen and sophomore curricula should not be too difficult to be handled efficiently," William Bertolette, newly elected president of the junior class declared.

"The new set-up is likely to benefit the College and its students in two respects, Prof. A. Howry Espenshade, head of the department of English composition stated today in an interview.

Dr. Ralph Flanders, president of a large machine company, will deliver one of the most important addresses of the conference following the dinner.

"The presence of mediocre students in the last two years of more advanced and specialized work, particularly in the School of Liberal Arts, would only tend to slow up the pace and lower the standards of both instructors and students.

W. L. Batt, president of a large Philadelphia manufacturing company, will introduce the subject, "The Future of the Manufacturing Industry," and Dean Barker of Columbia University will give an address on "Some Factors Which May Affect Engineering Education During the Next Decade."

10,000 Students Voice Approval of Anti-War Program in Wide Poll

An anti-war program calling for immediate adherence to the covenant of the League of Nations, nationalization and international control of the manufacture and sale of armaments, and severance of commercial relations with belligerent nations, has been approved by a majority of more than 10,000 students voting in the nationwide poll sponsored by the Brown Daily Herald.

Students in thirty-three colleges and universities participated in the referendum. Penn State's poll was taken about a month ago. A copy of the results of the "program for peace," together with a plea for united action, will be forwarded to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Secretary Cordell Hull, Senators Thomas Nye and William E. Borah, and Speaker Henry T. Rainey.

The proposal to nationalize the armaments and munitions industries was carried by a large majority in every one of the thirty-three colleges. Twenty-seven are in favor of severing commercial relations with belligerent nations. On the question of League entrance, undergraduate opinion was more evenly divided, with a majority of the students in twenty-one colleges favoring it, the total vote showing 5,710 students advocating adherence and 4,528 opposed.

SUDDS ATTENDS CONVENTION Prof. Richard H. Sudds, of the department of pomology, is attending the Eastern Fruit Growers Council meeting at Washington, D. C.

35 CLASS HEADS, PROM COMMITTEE TO LEAD FUNCTION

College Seal in White Leather Will Occupy Front Cover Of Dance Program

CHAPERONES TO SELECT CO-ED AS PROM QUEEN

Hawaiian Setting Chosen for Affair Tomorrow Night In Recreation Hall

A promenade, led by the past officers of the junior class and the Junior Prom committee, will feature the annual dance which will be held in Recreation hall tomorrow night.

Another feature which the committee has planned to make the dance a gala affair is the selection of a Prom Queen. The woman will be selected by the chaperones and will be presented with a bouquet of flowers sometime during the dance.

The programs will be of white suede with the College seal on the cover. Efforts are being made to reproduce a genuinely Hawaiian atmosphere through the use of decorations. Neither the crystal ball nor smilax will be used at this dance.

Chaperones for the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. George I. Bair, Prof. and Mrs. Frederick J. Bedenk, Dr. and Mrs. Elwood C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harper, Prof. and Mrs. Robert A. Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Mitten.

Members of the committee in charge of the dance are Alan R. Warchime, chairman, Elizabeth K. Barton, William Briantant, George L. Donovan, Hudson H. Erisman, Edmund R. Foster, Melvin J. Fox, J. Markel Hall, Helen J. Hinebaugh, Paul K. Hirsch, and Harry J. Hoshfeld.

Other members of the committee are Everett W. R. Johnson, Harold L. Kanes, Morgan J. Rees, Floyd E. Saxon, Robert Senderowitz, Cecil G. Spadafora, Jack E. Stevenson and John F. West.

In the past year Kemp's orchestra has risen rapidly so that it is now considered one of America's foremost dance bands. As evidence of its popularity, it enjoyed the distinction of broadcasting over more radio stations on New Year's Eve than any other dance band in the country.

The success of Kemp's band, to a great degree, lies in the fact that most of the musicians have been with the young maestro since the band was organized eight years ago at the University of North Carolina.

DR. GATESON WILL GIVE TALK IN SUNDAY CHAPEL

'Structure and Concept' Selected As Topic by Philadelphia Rector

Speaking on "Structure and Concept," Dr. D. Wilnot Gateson, rector of the Church of the Saviour, Philadelphia, will present the regular chapel address in Schwab auditorium at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Dr. Gateson received a B. A. degree from Trinity College and was graduated from the General Theological Seminary in New York. He has also done graduate work at Columbia University and at Lehigh University, serving as chaplain of the latter institution for nine years.

Dr. Gateson has served churches in Georgetown, Del., New York City, Williamsport, Bethlehem, and Philadelphia since his first charge in 1908. He frequently speaks on religious, historical, and social subjects, in addition to his other duties.

JOSEPH P. SWIFT '36 NAMED NEW PRESIDENT OF BLUE KEY

Joseph P. Swift '36 was chosen president of Blue Key, junior activities honorary society, at the first meeting of the recently elected members of the organization last night.

Clarence V. Watkins '36 was named secretary and Evan Politt '36 was elected treasurer at the same plenary session. No other business was conducted.

Buchman Will Remain To Address Students

Seeks 'Changes'

Oxford Group Founder Will Speak Friday At 2 O'clock

GROUP FOREGOES TRIP TO GRATIFY REQUESTS

Former College 'Y' Secretary, University Graduates on Team, To Lecture

Dr. Frank N. D. Buchman, founder and foremost figure in the Oxford Group movement, who has been holding meetings at the College during the past two days, will remain here until Friday afternoon at which time he will address a special meeting for students in the Little Theatre, Old Main, at two o'clock.

The internationally famous religious leader, who was for seven years Y. M. C. A. secretary for the College, and the young university graduates on his Oxford Group team have decided to forego a holiday on Long Island and remain on the campus in order to gratify requests of Penn State students who were unable to attend the other scheduled meetings which have taken place this week.

Young Members to Speak Dr. Buchman will lead the meeting and the talks will be by the younger members of the team, both English and American. As the greater part of the work of the Group is carried on through contact rather than in group meetings, all team members are free for conference all day tomorrow at the Nittany Lion Inn.

The speakers, all recent graduates, represent a cross-section of British university life. Among them is Robert T. Bowman, graduate of McGill University, Canada in the class of 1932. Mr. Bowman was editor of the McGill Daily, and was active in football, hockey, and tennis. He is a member of Delta Upsilon social fraternity.

Others include David Graham, who before his graduation from Oxford University last year was secretary and librarian of the Oxford Union, and also a prominent university debater and political leader; and Reginald E. A. Holme, also an Oxford graduate—class of 1932, who was a well-known motor-cycle racer and active in all forms of athletics.

Miss Joyce Machin, Oxford '27, who will be heard, was leader of the Conservative party in the woman's student parliament at Oxford, and also played field hockey for her college. With her will be Miss Mary Reynolds, New York City, who since graduation from Smith College, has been engaged in social work in the sea-board metropolis.

Other speakers will include W. Cleveland Hicks, Harvard '22, and George Marjoribanks, who graduated from Edinburgh University, Scotland, in 1932, with degrees in both agriculture and forestry. The youngest member of the group is George Wood, an eighteen-year-old native of Scotland, who has spent many of his spare moments while at Penn State in watching the wrestling squad at work in Recreation hall.

Although the meeting is being held especially for students all members of the faculty are invited to attend.

DR. BUCHMAN BELIEVES THAT STUDENTS HERE HAVE CHANGED LITTLE SINCE 1909

"I believe that Penn State students need 'changing' today just as greatly as they did when I first came here as Y. M. C. A. secretary in 1909," declared Dr. Frank N. D. Buchman last night.

This statement was occasioned by a query as to whether conditions in 1909 were as bad as they were painted in an article last year in the American Mercury which said that the College at that time was a cesspool of sin; that drinking was the accepted thing, that swearing was commonplace, and that tipsy students accosted decent women on the streets.

Dr. Buchman believes that this is rather overdone, although he himself knew of seventeen drinking parties on the campus.

However, he believes that students probably still drink just as extensively and are in as great need of the help to be found in the Oxford Group Movement as they were twenty-five years ago when he first used the present-day principles of the Group in his 'Y' work at the College.

By 'change' is meant giving up one's life to God and letting Him order it. This change is effected through following the four principles of the

Buchman Will Remain To Address Students

Seeks 'Changes'

DR. FRANK N. D. BUCHMAN

MUSIC TO FEATURE PLAYERS' PROGRAM

Little Symphony Will Furnish Original Arrangements By Paladine '34

As part of the Mothers' day program, the Penn State Players will present "Three Corners Moon" in Schwab auditorium on Saturday night May 11. Music for the performance will be furnished by the Penn State Players' Little Symphony Orchestra under the direction of John E. Ryan '34.

The overture will be a special arrangement by Vincent F. Paladine '34 of the song, "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise." Between the first and second acts, the orchestra will play a selection from "Sweet Adeline."

Between the second and third acts, a medley of original and popular numbers by Paladine will be presented. Another selection from "Sweet Adeline" will close the musical program. Paladine will conduct his own numbers.

The technical staff for the production will be composed of Bryson M. Filbert '36, stage manager; Amelia Brooks '36, scenic artist; Frederick H. Light '36, electrician; Sarah A. Ross '36, costume mistress; Joseph S. Alexander '35, advertising; and Katherine M. Gorman, '35, publicity.

The scene of the play takes place the Rimplegar home. The stage setting will be a combination of dining room and reception room. The same set will be used throughout the production. Prof. Arthur C. Cloothing, of the department of English literature, will direct.

PHYSICISTS ATTEND CONCLAVE

Dr. Wheeler P. Davey, research professor of physics; Dr. William Altar, assistant professor of physics; Professor William R. Ham, professor of physics; Professor Walter H. Picot, associate professor of physics; Harold L. Saxton, assistant in physics; and Henry L. Yeagley, instructor in physics, have returned from a two day conference of the American Physical Society held in Washington last week. Papers were read by each of the seven representatives.