

RED TEEMEN SPOIL LIONS RECORD, 4-2

Masters, Marshall Star; Beyer, Ritenour Defeated; Haskell Cracks Par With 69

Hopes for an undefeated season on the links were blasted when Cornell's Big Red team took the measure of the Lions, 4-to-2, on the Ithaca Country Club course Saturday.

Captain 'Chick' Beyer lost to Dan Wilcox, 3 and 1, while Tom Marshall took over Charley Newman, 4 and 3. In the second foursome, Don Masters turned in the best Blue and White card of the day, a 74, to top Lewis, 2 and 1, while Dick Ritenour lost to Johnny Haskell, 7 and 6, the Ithaca burning up the course with an under-par score of 69.

The best ball point in the first party was taken by the Cayugans, while Haskell's performance in the second foursome gave them the other best-ball by the top-heavy score of 5 and 4. Masters, in tip-top form, had three consecutive birdies on the eighth, ninth, and tenth holes.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By VANCE PACKARD

Mushball Pruning Tomorrow Tomorrow has been set aside by tourney manager Hellick as the day for a wholesale slaughter of aspirants for the mushball crown. All but three of the seventeen remaining teams will battle for positions in the quarter-finals then. Two of the three clubs, the Sigma Pis and the D. T. D.'s will also clash then for the honor of meeting the Tekes, Wednesday to land in the quarter-finals. The eight outfits fortunate enough to reach this bracket will be given one day for recuperation before they compete for semi-final positions Thursday.

The Sigma Pis won their Friday's set-to with the Tau Sigma Phis, 16-to-13, when one of their rookies, who had been drafted at the last minute, pulled a surprise. Reputed to have never before participated in this modified form of the nation's favorite sport, he amazed both his brothers and himself by knocking out a very pretty home-run to win the game.

Another field behind the soccer field (S) has been located to replace the field in the high school 'hollow'. Tuesday's games at 4:15 o'clock are: Sigma Nu vs. D. U.—NB

D. T. D. vs. Sigma Pi—MI Frear Hall vs. Betas—NB Phi Gams vs. Phi Pi Phi—S Games at 5:45 o'clock: Chi Phi vs. Pi Kappa Phi—NB A. G. R. vs. Phi Sigma Delta—NB Delta Sigs vs. Kappa Sigs—MI S. P. E. vs. Phi Delta Theta—S

The contestants for the annual I. M. divot digging championship finished the first round of games last week, with four teams shaping up as potential winners. The Alpha Phi Deltas, the D. U.'s, the Betas—last year's first, second, and third place winners, and the Phi Sigma Kappas are among the eight teams still in the running, which look strong. The Phi Sigma Kappas, look especially dangerous—but then there is always that chance of a darkhorse appearing.

The quarter-finals will be played off this week, the semi-finals and finals next week. Tournaments scheduled for tomorrow are the Betas vs. the Phi Gams, and the Kappa Sigs vs. the D. U.'s. Wednesday's meets will be between the Alpha Phi Deltas and the Alpha Chi Rhos; and the Chi U.'s and the Phi Sigma Kappas.

Soccer Tournament The nine teams which remain in the intramural booting contest will begin competition for semi-final positions this week. Games to be played off this week will be Sigma Pi vs. Chi Upsilon, Delta Theta Sigma vs. A. K. an Alpha Chi Sigma vs. Alpha Phi Delta. The Kappa Sigs will also meet the winner of the Sigma Nu-Theta Chi contest.

CORNELL DOWNED BY '37 TRACKMEN

Eke Out 74½-60½ Victory In Thrilling Contest With Bear Cubs Saturday

By JACK BARNES

State yearling field men swept three events and took two of the three places in the other four to enable their team to eke out a thrilling 74½-to-60½ victory over the strong Cornell freshmen team on Saturday.

Barnes was the only double winner for State but Hucker, Cornell frosh, lived up to advance reports and overcame all opposition to take three firsts in as many starts. His 220-yard hurdle time was only three-tenths of a second over the track record.

The outcome of the meet was not decided until the last event—the broad jump—had been run off. A sweep in this event would have given the Cornell first-year men a close victory, but Barnes lead teammates Osterlund and Rosenberger in a sweep of all three places which clinched the meet.

TRACK EVENTS

100-yard dash—Won by Rosenberger (C); Peters (C) second; Rosenberger (S) third, Time—10.2. 220-yard dash—Won by Hucker (C); Peters (C) second; Rosenberger (S) third, Time—22.4. 440-yard dash—Won by Hucker (C); Downey (S) second; Acton (C) third, Time—49.9.
