

Juniata Trips State; Tennis, Golf, '37 Baseball Scheduled Here Saturday

Baseball Nine Loses 13-to-3; To Play Bucknell Away Sat.

Miller, Bielicki Score Lion Counters as Errors of Omission Cost Game Despite 12 Hits

By BILL McDOWELL

Timely hitting by Juniata and untimely errors of omission by Penn State gave the visitors a 13-to-3 victory over the varsity baseball nine on New Beaver Field yesterday afternoon. A rally in the eighth inning when two runs were made from four hits, including a homer, failed to check the invaders.

Approximately twenty-five members of the squad will make the trip to Bucknell Saturday for the first baseball game that State has played on Bison territory for a decade. "Bedenk" will use the regular line-up and it is probable that Parks will be assigned to the pitcher's box.

"Pero" Miller scored first for the Lions in the second inning when "Zev" Zawacki drove him in after he had doubled. Captain Kasesak, Bill Sutliff, and "Shorty" Mikelonis singled to threaten Juniata in the seventh; but two flyouts and an out at third when Kasesak tried to advance spoiled chances of tallying.

Penn State organized another renouche in the eighth. Bill McKechnie hit a line drive out to left field which was good for one base but he was put out at second when he tried to stretch it into a two-bagger.

Joe Bielicki followed him with a single which Miller made good with a homer over the head of Hummel in left field. "Pero" was responsible for two of the three Nittany runs.

Juniata opened the game with Kepler, the lead-off man, gaining his base on a shortstop error. Nicholson chased him home with a homer, and Wareham took another circuit of the bases later that inning.

Matlack, who was walked, and Kepler, who took his base after being hit by a pitched ball, scored in

9 LION TRACKMEN CHOSEN TO ENTER IC-4A COMPETITION

Harvey Stands Out As Best Chance For Lion Scoring

By JACK BARNES

Coach "Chick" Werner has selected nine varsity track and field performers to match their wares against the cream of the crop at the fifty-seventh annual IC-4A championships to be held at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, tomorrow and Saturday. The group left at noon today.

Harvey, by virtue of his season's performance, has the best chance of scoring. In the half-mile event he has scored a second against Keller of Pitt, who won in a fraction over two minutes; was awarded a second place at Army, although winning by several inches; and took the event against Syracuse in the fast time of 1:57.6 in last Saturday's meet.

In the mile run, in which he will probably also be entered, he won against Pitt in 4:38; was third at West Point; and won last week in 4:24.2. Woolridge, after winning a slow victory in the Syracuse meet, will team up with Harry Sigel in the 440. Cassina and, probably, Sigel, the season's most consistent performers, will step the 100- and 220-yard dashes.

Jackson and Van Keuren, who, like Woolridge, will be completing their intercollegiate track days, will compete in the two hurdle races. Jackson, with two fast winning performances last Saturday, will enter both the 120- and 220-yard hurdle races; while Van, who has taken a first and a third in the 220-lows during the three-meet season, will enter only this event. Watch them.

Three field event men will make the trip. O'Shea, after having been sick most of the season, and winning a third place against Syracuse, will compete in the high jump. Sigel, with a first, second, and third in the discus—all under 130 feet; and Thomas, with a third in the discus, will compete in this event. O'Shea is the only senior.

WRIGHTING BETWEEN THE LIONS

By FRED W. WRIGHT

"There comes a time in every coach's life when it falls his lot to get credit for producing a team that doesn't appear very good in the light of games won and lost. That being the case Joe Bedenk, who was known as 'Dutch' when he was All-American guard here in 1924, shouldn't worry too much and cry around because his 1934 baseball team has lost five games.

A Lion baseball team with a .500 average under the Bedenk management this late in the season is something new around these parts. This is Bedenk's fifth year at the helm—four have been unqualified successes. Last year the club's record sagged, true, but coaches can't beat the rain.

"There's another factor they can't beat. Once, every so often, the veteran material runs out. That is what's wrong this year, apparently. To start with, Bedenk had only three ball players; right now he's got four. Progress, that.

Kasesak, Zawacki, and Parks were the goods, on pre-season paper. Zawacki, shifted from first-base to catcher, is thriving beyond all expectations; Kasesak is as good as he ever was; Parks, brilliant last season, ought to have been named Roy Mahaffey. A's pitcher who is known far and wide as the enigma of the major leagues.

That was the set-up when the season opened. Now the first two are still in that classification, with Johnny Stocker who wasn't anything extra as a rightfielder in 1933, and Bill McKechnie, sub-first-baseman, being added this year. Stocker at second and McKechnie at first are the life-blood of the infield, outside of what Zawacki adds.

But Bedenk has one consolation. Given four ball players this year, he'll have two next plus at least four more who are learning the business this year and are scheduled to arrive in 1935. Witness the Stocker-McKechnie case. Miller, Bielicki, Larson, Stokes, O'Hara, Mikelonis, Sutliff, Woolbert, and Dabulewicz are all candidates for the nomination; four of them should make the grade. And six ball players is a high percentage for any college baseball team.

'36 STICKMEN TOP FRESHMEN 5-4 BY LAST-MINUTE GOAL

Tally by Kilfoil in Final 20 Seconds Wins Class Game

Only a Merriwell shot by Johnny Kilfoil in the last thirty seconds of play saved the sophomore lacrosse team from defeat at the hands of the freshmen ten Tuesday afternoon. The final score was 5-to-4 in favor of the second-year men.

The field was very slippery due to the rain and so the real strength of either team could not be discerned; however, the freshmen proved that they could handle a stick with more than mediocre ability.

The sophomores were handicapped by lack of practice but the work of the men who played on the varsity ten was outstanding. "Tony" Roberson and Ed Rumbaugh, who captained the sophomores, led the attack. "Bob" Golder, "Serge" Pochinsky, "Woodie" Dourhett, "Ger" Gerber, who played varsity goal through the season, and Johnny Kilfoil played the fair game considering that they have never practiced together.

Freshmen who have developed rapidly this year and who showed up well in Tuesday's game are Cherundolo, and Eisenman, who looks like a good candidate for one of next year's varsity defense positions. The work of Conley, Ritzke, Macario, Williams, Cresson, Himoff, Houtz and Hoyt was also above par for boys who have been handling a stick for only a short time and it is expected that the frosh will give the sophomores ten a real battle when they play again tomorrow.

Netmen Will Close Season Against Strong Red Team

'Pip' Block, Nels Green, Jimmy Smith, Heyison, Captain Skillen, Manwaring To Play

By CHARLIE SCHWARTZ

With four victories and three defeats chalked up against them, the Lion netmen will close their season here at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon with a strong squad from Cornell. The Red courtmen have won most of their meets this year, and they carried a heavy schedule.

Coach "Dink" Stover estimates their strength as somewhat better than Pitt, but not as powerful as Navy. The Bears barely squeezed out a 5-to-4 victory over Rutgers last Saturday.

Coach Stover will use practically the same line-up as he did on last week-end's away tilts. "Pip" Block will come up against powerful opposition when he meets Hamilton in the first singles position. Another tough match is expected by Nels Green with Marcus, Condon, regular Red second position man, has been out of competition for several weeks. Jimmy Smith will meet Captain Skillen and "Marco Polo" Manwaring will try their wares on Anderson and Reiss.

Depending on the outcome of the first three or four matches, Pete Barber, whom Heyison replaced last week, might see service Saturday. This is Heyison's first year in varsity court competition. Although he is a junior, he never came out for the team before.

Only two Lions—Captain Skillen and Manwaring—will be playing their last matches under the Blue and White colors, and a powerful team is expected for next year.

the fifth on a long drive by Scott. The latter rounded the bases but overlooked the necessity of touching second base and so his trip did not score.

Juniata piled up six runs in the seventh and Daher, added the final counter with a tour of the sacks in the ninth. Coach Joe Bedenk started the game with Jack Lucher on the mound, substituted Stokes in the sixth, and finished the fray with Keith Parks.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By VANCE PACKARD

Rain Stops Swatters

Although the rainstorm Tuesday may have been a blessing to the farmers, it raised havoc with the intramural sports programs. Only four of the eight scheduled mubball games were played then, but under the present plans the quarter-finalists in the upper half of the bracket and the semi-finalists in the lower half will still be determined this week.

The abbreviated swatting clubs which came out on top of the heap in their engagements Tuesday and Wednesday are the D. U., D. T. D., Fear Hall, Pi Kappa Phi, Phi Sigma Delta, Delta Sigma Phi, and S. P. E. The Phi Sigma Delta game with Alpha Gamma Rho was played in 25 minutes to make it the shortest game yet. The Chi Phi were eliminated by the Pi Kappa Phi twirlers, 8-to-0, only after a valiant struggle in which the victor wasn't decided until the final stanza.

Recommendations for heroic service on the field of battle go to Pitchers Morini, of the D. U. estate, who has permitted only 4 runs; Bradford, Pi Kappa Phi; and Downey, Beta speedster. A bouquet of dandelions should also go to Atkinson, Chi Phi twirler, who gave nice performances somewhat spasmodically.

Boating Battles

Between avoiding conflicts with the mubball schedule and dodging rainstorms, the soccer tournament is gradually drifting toward the final meet. Manager Benner aspires to have the final contest Monday Wednesday at the Delta Theta Sigma boaters upset all calculations and pre-empted dope by downing A. K. Pi, 2-to-0. Alpha Chi Sigma also overcame Alpha Phi Delta, 2-to-1. Four games will be played tomorrow. Outfits which look like prospective championship material are the Chi U's and the Delta Theta Sigmas.

Co-ed Clod Clouters

After two weeks of piddling about Ginny Leathers, Phi Mu golfer, and Ruthie Everett, Kappa divot-digger, met Wednesday and Miss Leathers was declared the winner. The next match will be between Leathers and Tat Cole, of the Theta Phi Alpha lodge, providing that the College does not board up its windows before they get around to play it.

NITTANY GOLFERS WILL MEET PITT

Last Week's Foursome Ready To Attempt Comeback Over Strong Panther Team

By WALT FREUNSCHE

Pitt's golfing Panthers, boasting a record of seven successive victories up to last Saturday, will be just as anxious to maintain their record as the Lions will be to get back in the winning side of the book, when the two squads tee off on the College course at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Captain "Chick" Beyer and Tom Marshall will play in the number one and two positions as usual, while Dick Ritenour and Don Masters who seem to be rather permanent fixtures, will comprise the second foursome's Blue and White standard-bearers. Although other varsity squad members usually play off among themselves for the right to challenge one of the first four, this week found no one willing to tackle any of the regulars.

Following the Pitt match, the Lions will take a breather before they oppose Penn linksmen in the wind-up on June 9, in what should be a stiff meet, since the Red and Blue lost to Cornell only by a 4-to-3 score.

YEARLING BATSMEN TO MEET WYOMING

Smith, Kornick, Slated To Start As Battery for Plebes In Wind-up Tilt

By DONN SANDERS

The yearling batsmen will stack up against some of their strongest opposition of the season when they meet the Wyoming Seminary nine in their wind-up game on New Beaver field at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Coach Leo Houck plans to start Smith and Kornick, his most dependable battery combination, against the boys from Kingstons. Rhoads and Robbins will again start at the first and second bags, while Wassel will be at shortstop and Slobodan at third.

Substitutions Expected

In the pasture, Coach Leo will start Hackendorn, Dutka, and Zwicki. Others who will probably see action during the contest are Girton, catcher; O'Brien, third sacker; and Haaster and Ollendike, outfielders.

With only one loss on their record, and that in a ten-inning fray with the strong Bucknell Bison yearlings, the Cubs are out for a victory Saturday. And after their 12-to-4 defeat of the Cook Academy nine here last week, they are in top form and should get it.
