

Varsity Baseball Team Defeats Bucknell 6-to-2; Parks Allows Only 2 Hits

MILLER SWITCHED TO SHORT; SCORES ANOTHER HOME RUN

Kascsak Scores Twice; Witwer Shines at Center Field

By BILL McDOWELL

Pitching by Keith Parks which allowed the Bisons only two hits, was the principal factor in the 6-to-2 victory that the varsity baseball team scored over Bucknell in Lewisburg Saturday afternoon.

In an effort to cut down on the number of infield errors Coach Joe Bedenk shifted 'Pete' Miller from center field to shortstop for the fray. Witwer, a sophomore, gave a good account of himself in Miller's position in the garden.

Both Bucknell points were scored in the first inning. Kiehl reached first through an error and Sitarsky and Reznichak were walked. Dobic singled to bring in the first two batters; and the last two outs were made through a fly to Parks and a grounder to Miller who threw to McKechnie.

In the second Penn State inning Kascsak got on and Mikelonis sacrificed to advance him. Bill came in on a double from Witwer's bat. After being walked in the fifth inning, Parks reached home on a drive of Bielicki's which the Bison first baseman muffed.

Kascsak tallied his second run of the day in the sixth inning and 'Zev' Zawacki scored the second run of the inning after taking his base on balls.

Miller's homer came in the seventh inning with none on base. As leader-off man in the final inning, Johnny Stocker singled and McKechnie sacrificed. The sixth point was made when Stocker came in on Bielicki's single.

With no game scheduled for Wednesday, the boys will have plenty of opportunity to rest up for the West Virginia game here Saturday afternoon.

LION FOUR DRUBS PITT GOLFERS, 5-1

Beyer, Marshall, Ritenour Win; Masters Drops Close One On Eighteenth Hole

By WALT FREUNSCH

"Back to the Alkaline Side?" Yes indeed, for there certainly was nothing sour in the performance of the Lion golfers when they submerged the highly-rated Panthers of Pitt under a flock of birdies, to win 5-to-1 on the College course Saturday.

Belting out a terrific long ball from the tee, and stroking in his putts with lethal accuracy, Captain "Chick" Beyer won from Pitt's debonair captain, Regis Wolf, 2 up, in a match not decided until the eighteenth hole. Here Beyer triumphed when he rolled a discouragingly-trapped ball out of the hazard, up on the green, and plunk! into the cup for a birdie three.

Tom Marshall, unruffled as always, trimmed Claude McKee in handy fashion, 5 and 3, his putts dropping with delightful precision. The best ball for the party went to the Nittany club-swingers, 2 and 1.

Ball-Snatcher Adds Interest

Dick Ritenour topped Johnny Wasco, 2 and 1, in a spirited contest made more interesting by the activity of a raggie-taggle 'urchin who fled with Ritenour's Krb-fife on the second hole, compelling him to drive again and eventually to take a 6 for the hole. Nothing daunted, "Rit" came back strong to play the last nine in 38, only three over par.

Don Masters lost a game battle to Sam Decker, who took the match one up by halving the last hole. Masters, four down at the fourteenth, staged a rally then that nearly carried him to victory, shooting pars to take the next three holes in succession. However, hard luck on the eighteenth green, coupled with an understandable tension, forced him to take a five when he needed a four for the hole.

'36 LACROSSE TEN TAKES OVER FROSH. 6-3, IN FINAL GAME

Sophomores Win After Losing Tilt, 7-5, On Thursday

By HARRY HENDERSON

Inter-class lacrosse was closed Saturday afternoon on New Beaver field when the sophomore ten handed the frosh stickmen their second defeat of the season to the tune of 6-to-3.

The sophomores had trouble getting away from the frosh during the first half which ended 2-to-2, but during the second they managed to score four points to the freshmen's single goal.

Only Gerber's work at goal saved the sophomores from being the victims of more of the fast-moving frosh attacks which were led by Himoff, Frosh center, and Connelly, frosh home. Serge Pechinsky and "Woody" Douthett stood out for the second year men on defense. Ed Rumbaugh, Johnny Kilfoil, Chick Overend, "Tony" Robeson put up a good game for the sophomores while Eisenman, Schreiber, and Hoff stood out among the frosh.

Thursday afternoon the freshmen beat the sophomores, 7-to-5, in a soaking rain. The sophomores were handicapped by man-power, there being only ten of them all together to fight off the large number of freshmen reserves.

The sophomores scored early in the contest and maintained their lead until near the end of the contest when they finally weakened defensively and let the frosh attack slip in a few goals.

The line-up, the same for both games, is as follows:

Soph	Pos.	Frosh
Gerber	G	Lesko
Pechinsky	GP	Eisenman
Golder	P	Sheirudolo
Douthett	FD	MacCario
Kilfoil	SD	Cresson
Overend	C	Hoff
Eddie	SA	Schreiber
Steckmen	FA	Connelly
Robeson	IH	Malasoff
Rumbaugh	OH	Gordon

Games Won: Sophomores—2; Freshmen—1.

GREEN SELECTED TO HEAD NETMEN

Cornell Blanks Nittanymen, 9-0, In Final Meet of Season; All Matches Close

By CHARLIE SCHWARTZ

G. Nelson Green '35 was elected captain of the tennis team for next year by lettermen late this afternoon. Coach "Terry" Terentief's Red warriors from Cornell ran roughshod over the Lion netmen on Saturday to help them close their season in a complete blank-out, 9-to-0. However, the final score was in no way indicative of the individual matches, eight of which the Nittanymen dropped by the skin of their teeth.

"Little Mountain-car" Block played some of the best tennis of his college career against Steve Hamilton,

8 Boxing Bouts To Feature Memorial Day Performance

To Referee Local Bouts

HOUCK

Boxing will be the featured activity on Memorial Day, Wednesday afternoon, when eight open-air bouts will be held at the high school athletic field at 4 o'clock. Sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of State College, they will be for the benefit of underprivileged children.

The featured bout of the afternoon will be between Izzy Richter, national A. A. U. heavyweight champ, and Ray Crissop, Middle Atlantic A. A. U. heavyweight champ. Leo Houck, Lion ring coach, will referee the contests. General admission will be forty cents, while reserved seats will be seventy-five cents.

In the first bout, Jackie Taylor, of Pittsburgh, will match blows with Young Reynolds, of Phillipsburg. Al Mellenger, of Monument, will then meet Charley Duke, of Clearfield. Following this, Bob Beatty of C. C.

a man whom he used to trounce regularly while in high school. The Ithaca man's beautiful placement shots and considerably steadier game was too much for 'Pip,' and he dropped the encounter, 7-5, 6-1.

Nels Green lost another close one to Bernie Marcus, mainly on placement shots, 7-5, 6-1. Captain Sklarisky downed Jimmy Smith, 6-3, 6-4, while Homer Manwaring had the closest match of the afternoon with Tilden, losing 7-5, 7-5. Jack Heyison showed lots of improvement against Doughty, who stopped him, 6-4, 7-5.

Captain Skillen was turned back by Reiss, a southpaw, 7-5, 6-1. In the doubles, the feature of the meet was the three-set match of Block and Heyison vs. Captain Sklarisky and Marcus. The latter took the encounter, 8-6, 2-6, 7-5.

Camp No. 121, will contact Pat Cavanaugh, of Clearfield.

Moving up to the heavier weights, Berk Velle, Middle Atlantic 135-pound A. A. U. champ, will fight Mike Evans, Philadelphia 135-pound amateur champ. In the light-heavy division, Woodrow White, former State A. A. U. 175-pound champ, will again encounter Goose McGoslin.

'37 NINE TROUNCES WYOMING SEM, 8-2

Smith Shuts Out Visitors, Hits Homer as Yearlings Win Final Contest

By DONN SANDERS

Trouncing the Wyoming Seminary nine, 8-to-2, the yearling nine won their final game of the season on New Beaver field Saturday afternoon with a record of five victories and one loss for the season.

A three-bagger from one of Smith's slants by Mekios, the first Seminary batter, followed by an overthrow at first and another hit accounted for two Wyoming runs in the first inning. After that the piebets tightened and held the invaders scoreless for the rest of the game.

Frankie Smith, who has pitched in every game the yearlings have played, besides holding the Kingshove boys to two runs, knocked a home run under the grandstand in right field in the fifth frame. Robbins was the piebets' mainstay with the stick.

Coach Leo Houck, who insists on calling Frankie Smith "Smythe," had the umpire believing that was correct... "for Penn State, Smythe and Kornick." Mike Kornick tells the batters that it's going to be a hook, and it is a hook, but they strike out anyway.
