Sloppy Field Makes it Impossible To Judge Strength of Lion Team As They Outgain Yearlings, 5-to-1

Higgins Uses 2 Complete Line-ups; Harry Sigel Makes Most Consistent Gains

By DONN SANDERS

The Nittany Lion pounced upon its own Cub on a sloppy New Beav practice field Saturday afternoon with its customary meekness.

Head Coach Bob Higgins ran in two complete teams besides numerous substitutes, but they could do no more than tie the freshmen. Neither team scored. Although they gained five times the yardage gained by the yearlings, at no time did the varsity look impressive. But it was no day to judge a football team. The entire field was muddy and much of it was rovered with water. Rain poured down for the first half. Neither team

Jeffrey Speeds Pace of Practice Sessions

Not to be caught napping, despite the apparent medicerity, of the opponents carded for this year, Coach Bill Jeffrey is stepping up the pace of the practices every day, in an effect to get a team lined up that will be as good a combination as last year's championship bunch of booters. All the veterans are back in the fold now with the exception of Joe Bielicki, injured several days ago in an auto crack-up. Ben Palmer returned over the week-end to take up the guardiánship of the uprights, after a bit of trouble with an infected foot.

Nearly forty candidates are out in hard and fumbled.

The yearlings recovered. They gain.

Coach Harvey Harmon and his University of Pennsylvania foot-ball players suffered a severe at-tack of jitters Friday, brought on by the appearance of a lion on Franklin Field.

Harmon was so frightened that he called off a scheduled scrimmage.

The lion was an old one. It also was fat and grizzled, and to all outward appearances, it was harmless.

But it was a Nittany lion, and Harmon was taking no chances.

"You never can tell about those

The lion's name was "Hugobezdek."

"Just making a - social call," said "Hugobezdek."

Penn plays Penn State November 10 and the same instant Harmon and his aides saw "Hugobezdek" they thought in unison, "scout."
