

RYAN REFEREE'S GAME

Sergeant Jack Ryan, instructor in military science and tactics, returned from Lewisburg Sunday where he officiated at the Bucknell-Lafayette soccer game on Saturday.

The University of Idaho is sponsoring a Dad's Day, the main feature of which will be a special section at the football game at which dads will be charged only half price. The mothers, however, must pay full price.

LION SOCCERMEN DOWN MAROON, 7-0

McEwan Nets 3 Goals, Bielicki 2 as Blue and White Take Third Straight Tit

By WALT FREUNSCH

Bucking a biting wind in addition to the somewhat manicured claws of the Lafayette Leopards, the Lions earned decisively their 7-to-0 victory over the Maroon on Beaver field last Friday.

'Nip' Ambler opened the rout by dribbling the ball a third of the length of the pitch and then slamming it past the goalie. Later in the period Joe Bielicki emerged from a scrimmage to score from a few yards out.

The third marker was scored in the second quarter when Bill McEwan took a long boot from Jack Binns, dribbled it directly to the goalie, and as both went to the ground in a nasty spill, hooked it into the net. Bielicki headed the next point in cleverly on a pass from Frankie Osterlund. McEwan then caged one from near the penalty kick spot after some elusive dribbling.

Early in the third period Ambler neatly took the ball up the sidelines, evading two defense men on the way, and then from near the corner of the field sent the ball whizzing into McEwan, standing almost on the goal line. 'Mac' scored.

The last session was marked by rough play and snappy kicking, with Don Masters winding up the scoring on a goal-line rush. He, Ambler, and the goaltender collided, with diminutive Donnie bouncing up first and scoring.

Individual stars must go unsung in the case of the Lions; a team that functions so well as a unit should not be dissected or analyzed too minutely for outstanding individualists. Center half Hoy and fullback Elenevski were leading Leopards.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By VANCE PACKARD

For the Glory In order to prove that he was entitled to be called a full-fledged leathery-lunger, Al Bickel, junior cheerleader, walked off with the intramural X-country meet Thursday afternoon. However, the unit winning first place was not Delta Sigma Phi, but Triangle. Triangle's fleet-foots were Grandy, Zierdt, Roudenbush, and Peipon.

Leading teams: 1. Triangle—54 2. Beta Theta Pi—55 3. Alpha Zeta—65

Individual leaders: 1. Al Bickel—Delta Sig 2. Larry Madison—Sigma Nu 3. Bernard Riley—Sigma Pi 4. Rus Criswell—A.Z. 5. Dap Grandy—Triangle 6. Bob Gans—Beta Theta Pi

Football Drive! Our candidate for the most intriguing frolic of the week occurred when Pi K.A. subdued and humbled Kappa Sig, last year's champion, on Thursday. Neither team could score and so Pi K.A. won on first downs, 3-to-2. On the last play of the game, Pi K.A. completed a pass for a first down which proved to be the margin of victory.

Varsity, Freshman Harriers Win in Pitt, Cornell Meets

Goal—IC-4A championship and retirement of the national intercollegiate cup.

Method—Teamwork. That seems to be the line-up for the varsity harriers after winning their hardest dual meet of the season against Pittsburgh by a 21-to-36 score here on Saturday.

In their meet the yearlings placed five men among the first seven to smother Cornell first-year men under a 20-to-35 score. Although it was their first meet and it is still too early to judge, it would appear that they may have their eyes on the IC-4A freshman title.

Teamwork and balance, so outstanding in practice, won both meets, with the fifth Lion in the two races finishing less a minute after the first-place man and only in seventh and eighth places.

Harvey, after tripping and injuring his hip, finished with Book in 27 minutes, 46 seconds in the varsity five-mile. Three Pitt thinyclads finished one, two, three after them, and then came Detwiler, Downey, and Alexander to complete the Lion scoring.

Although not especially painful, Harvey's injury slowed him up somewhat. The winning time was 21 seconds over the course record. Harvey may not practice for several days but he will be in shape for Saturday's Homecoming meet with Syracuse.

The freshman race, scheduled to be featured by a duel between Cornell's Cornell and State's Olexy, turned out as scheduled with Olexy proving too strong for Cornell to finish 8 seconds ahead in 14:51. Three State yearlings, Clark, Wear, and Rubino, finished after Cornell; sixth place went to Bohner of Cornell; and Daugherty ended the Lion's scoring in seventh place.

The summary: Varsity 1. Harvey, S . . . 27:46 2. Book, S . . . 27:46 3. Kirkpatrick, P . . . 27:53 4. Wagenhauser, P . . . 28:00 5. Musico, P . . . 28:11 6. Detwiler, S . . . 28:14 7. WRIGHTING BETWEEN THE LIONS

By FRED W. WRIGHT

We have been allowing our 'fan' mail to pile up on us of late. In our absence, a letter arrived at this department.

Merrill Morrison, football captain, writes: (1) That our suggestion that Everhardus could be of no little help to Higgins in points concerning backfield coaching was fundamentally unsound in that it necessitated changing systems in the middle of the season; (2) That we insinuated that the coaching staff was a failure if the team didn't succeed in 'making the mental hurdle' of 'Columbia-in-New York'; (3) That we are a species of 'barber shop coach' for commenting that excellent material is at hand and then blaming the coach when the team lost; (4) record by winning the summer tournament at the Brookside Country Club. Thompson is still the favorite, but it will be a close match.

A hard-fought hockey game between the juniors and the sophomores resulted in a 1-1 tie. Captain Wagner, playing an outstanding game, scored for the juniors, and Emma Jane Foster tallied the point for the Sophs.
