

Unbeaten Lion Soccermen To Meet Orange Eleven Away Tomorrow

NITTANY MENTOR ANNOUNCES FEW LINE-UP CHANGES

Booters Seek Fourth Decision; 15 Men To Make Trip

By WALT FREUNTSCH

Facing a team as yet untried by major battles, the Lion soccermen will depart for Syracuse early this morning leaving the firm conviction that the Hillmen will be knocked off their eminence unless—and here is the refuge of the "second-guesser"—the Orange has improved many hundred per cent.

With a team conditioned by three victories so far, Coach Bill Jeffrey proposes to send the same squad against Syracuse that went to Temple. Fifteen men will make the trip. Ray Bell, with his penchant for being unscathed, will start at goal. Incidentally we must give no little credit to the defense men who see that he doesn't need to accept too many chances. In the game with Lafayette last Friday, he did not handle the ball at all during the third quarter, according to our unofficial observer.

Bob Graham and his side kick, round Jack Binnis, will man the full-back posts. Captain Jack Fletcher will capably hold down the center halfback position, with Bill Suttiff and Ed Long, two of the sturdiest men on the squad, on either side.

A shift in the line will probably put George Corbett at outside right, with "Nip" Ambler going over to outside left. Frankie Osterlund will play inside right, while Joe Bieliicki has an unshakable claim on the inside left job. Bill McEwan will form the spearhead of the Nittany attack at center forward, the position where his brother Johnny starred so effectively for the Orange until his graduation last June.

Others making the trip are Donnie Masters, who, as a substitute forward, scored in four consecutive games last year and has scored in all three games of the present campaign; Dick Sigel, dependable back; Connie Welsh, forward; and Ben Palmer, lanky second-string goalie.

A victory over Syracuse would help in some measure to eradicate the memory of the game in 1932, when the Orangemen handed the Lions their only defeat on Beaver field since

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By VANCE PACKARD

Putters Attention
Oyez, Oyez. All fraternities, clubs etc. desirous of picking up some easy points toward the Bezdek Cup take notice. The Intramural Board, after hours of pondering and scheming, has hatched an entirely unique idea—a golf putting tournament.

The contest will get under way on Tuesday and all entries must be in Miss Keller's office before tomorrow noon. Hank Beard has been blessed with the job of running the affair, and he says "The more the merrier."

Every club can enter as many putters as it can round up, and one point will be given for each one entered. The only catch is that it costs ten cents per head to enter. The winning club will get twenty-five points toward the Bezdek Cup, and maybe a cup, if the board's exchequer holds out. The runner-up will get ten points.

The tourney will be run on an individual basis; each entrant is a team in himself. Each contestant will putt eighteen holes, and the one securing the lowest score will win. The club which he represents will be awarded the twenty-five points.

Horse-Shoes
History repeated itself. Sigma Pi won the horse-shoe pitching contest for the third consecutive year on Tuesday night. The final meet with Phi Delta Theta was unusually close—Sigma Pi winning only four out of five games.

Bull-Bumper Riley and Bob Struble were the members of the winning team. The vanquished were represented by Joe Scott and Nancy Dunn. The winning club will receive twenty-five points and a nice, shiny cup.

Football Frolics
With only seven more contests to go, and with only eight clubs remaining, the football contest is rapidly coming to a climax. Mgr. Jacobs says that the final contest will be played off near the end of next week. Although not of the prognosticating Coach Jeffrey took over the post of mentor. Johnny McEwan was the big gun, the Blue and White succumbing, 2-10-1.

Again we predict for a victory for the Jeffrey men; at least a four-goal margin should be forthcoming on the basis of this year's team, conceded already to be superior to last season's championship outfit.

type, we feel brave enough to predict that either S.P.E. or Chi U. will land on top of the heap. Unfortunately, they will have to meet each other in the semi-finals, so that both of them can't be in the final clash.

Results of this week's games:

MONDAY
Phi Kappa Tau 6; Pi Kappa Alpha 0
The Phi Kappa Tau griders won mainly because they were on the ball and took advantage of every break. Their aerial attack was smooth. Their only score was made when Weibly made an off-tackle dash. Pi K. A.'s offense was not functioning up to par. Most of the ground-gaining for them was done by their star, Hal Kalb.

TUESDAY
S. A. E. 6; Beta Theta Pi 0
Although the S. A. E.'s were declared the winner, the game was protested, and will be replayed Friday. Bill Fetter scored the only touchdown of the game in the first quarter, on an end run.

D.T.D. 6; Sigma Pi 0
Little scored for D.T.D. with a pretty running play off-tackle. Lefty Davis, quarterback, pulled a sleeper during the latter part of the game and actually got away with it. Sigma Pi gained no first downs and found their flat passes covered by the ranchers.

Chi Upsilon 12; Sigma Nu 0
Reed and Buczkowski scored for Chi U. Both clubs showed fine form, and Chi U. won mainly on the merit of its superior passing attack. Sigma Nu smothered the Chi U. running plays completely. Both units gained two first downs.

WEDNESDAY
Sigma Chi vs. Theta Kappa Phi
Sigma Chi was given the nod since it was able to garner four first downs to two. Symington was pretty much in the lime-light for the campusers.

S.P.E. 47; Phi Sigma Delta 0
Oh, oh! Anyhow, the Phi Sig boys fought hard and had lots of fun wallowing around in the mud and rain. They did not submit to their drubbing peacefully, and so several delightful and entertaining slug-fests ensued.

Games for Friday:—
S.A.E. vs. Beta Theta Pi
Chi Upsilon vs. Phi Kappa Tau

Varsity, Freshmen Harriers To Meet Syracuse Tomorrow

With Syracuse varsity and freshmen thinyclads pointing toward the Penn State meet since their first day of practice, the Lion harriers will meet their most determined opposition of the season before the returning alumni tomorrow afternoon on Beaver field during the halves of the freshmen and varsity football games.

Syracuse will be attempting to repeat her 20-35 defeat of the Nittany men last year, the first time they had won a varsity meet against State in seven years. The Werner men, on the other hand, while realizing the threat, will be pointing toward the IC-4A meet in New York on November 10.

Harvey, winner by eight seconds last year, will repeat again this year and will probably take advantage of his last opportunity to break the course record of 27:25. Book will be close behind him for second place. Orange men, in the persons of co-captains Carr or Everingham, may take the next position or two. Detwiler, tiny sophomore star, should follow close on their heels; but then the trouble begins.

Downey, fourth-place man to date, may not be able to run because of shin splints. He has been bothered all year with them and Coach Werner may decide to keep him off his legs and save him for the Intercollegiate.

Alexander, who finished third in Tuesday's trials, will then have to finish as fourth-place man and Trimble, Crum, Hutchinson, or Tait will end the Lion scoring in fifth place.

Last year Syracuse took the next

All seven men on the team are eligible in the scoring but only the first five men finishing for each team are counted. The places in which the men finish are added to give the team's score and the low score wins. Both varsity and freshman races will start and finish on the track.
