The following managers were appointed by the W.A. board at its last meeting:

The senior hockey team was defeated 2-0 at the hands of the sophomores last Monday. Yesterday the juniors took the seniors over to the tune of a 4-0 score. Captain Wagner scored three of the goals for the juniors, and Wunderlich tallied the extra point.

The juniors and sophomores will battle for the interclass championship next Monday, and the game should be a classic. Both teams have unbeaten records, but the juniors have piled up the largest number of points against their opponents. The last game between these teams resulted in a scoreless tie.

Girls interested in Rifle should sign up in the Mac Hall lobby and report for the first practice November 20 at 4 o'clock in the Armory.
