Twisting The Dial

If Houseparty deflates the pocket-books as much as we suspect, student entertainment will be derived this week chiefly from radio . . . and that's not a bad idea, for there are many offerings of merit being flung on the air lanes this fall and winter.

TONIGHT Our pet peeve—network officials that line up three top-notch shows at the same hour . . . For instance . . . at 8:30, we must choose between Wayne King and his soothing music (WEAF-NBC) . . . the smart rhythms of Abe Lyman (WABC-CBS) . . . and the stirring voice of Lawrence Tibbett (WJZ-NBC) . . . you can't go wrong . . . and the same situation exists at 9 o'clock with Ben Bernie and his crew (WEAF-NBC) opposing Bing Crosby and the Boswells (WABC-CBS) . . . if you can stand for Ed Wynn's horse, insane cackle, and even worse puns, Maestro Eddy Duchin's music might even enable you to get some real joy out of the period from 9:30 to 10, over WEAF-NBC . . . but we honestly think you'll prefer millionaire band leader Isham . . . one of the Jones boys—at the same time over WABC-CBS . . . Virginia Rea, once known as Olive Palmer, guest stars . . . the Casa Loma outfit at 10, over WABC-CBS, does right well with Walter O'Keefe as m. e. . . judging from the number of Glen Gray recordings heard on this campus, he is still mighty near the top of the college man's list . . . and so to the books.

WEDNESDAY Fred Allen's mad buffoonery at 9, over WEAF-NBC, is superb . . . and with Lennie Hayton's band, nearly approaches the perfect hour of air fun . . . bring the kiddies . . . Lombardland at 10 on WEAF-NBC, gets one strong vote . . . Jack Denny's band, with Harry Richman, is causing many dials to be turned to WJZ-NBC at 10:30 . . . Art Kassel, a real old-timer, bobs up in a welcome manner at 11:30, over WJZ-NBC . . . and if you miss Red Nichols on WLW at 12:30, it's definitely your loss . . . man, that wailing theme, that torrid trumpet!

THURSDAY Despite the recent birding that he took at the local "chinema," Richard Himber is clicking with campus listeners at 7 o'clock on WEAF-NBC . . . Vallee's variety hour at 8 (WEAF-NBC) . . . need we say more? . . . ditto Waring at 9:30, on a coast to coast CBS hook-up . . . and you're missing out if you fail to tune in one of these at 10 — Paul Whiteman (WEAF-NBC) . . . or 45 Minutes in Hollywood, with movie previews, studio gossip, 'n' everything . . . and at 11:30 the network bands include Dorsey Brothers, Clyde Lucas, and Eddy Duchin . . . bend an ear . . . and for the fun-loving boys still up at 1, Claude Hopkins is back at the Roseland, with a WABC-CBS wire . . . —MIKE

Co-ed Chatter

Now that Panhellenic Council has withdrawn its rule prohibiting the expenditure of money for rushing, the fraternities will entertain legally as they have been doing otherwise this year. The council now allows each house to spend $1.50 a week for informal teas and rush parties.

Several senior and alumnae women were among those who assisted Mrs. Joseph W. Henzey at her tea in honor of her daughters-in-law, Mrs. William P. Henzey (nee Ruth Niebel '23), and Mrs. John H. Henzey, given at her home on Hamilton Avenue Thursday afternoon. They were Margaret B. Kinsloe '35, Emily Espenshade '35, Anne D. Pagan '35, Nellie B. Gravatt '34, Betty B. Thompson '34, and Jean F. Woodruff '36.

'Houseparty Virgie' Declares 1934 Affair 'Positively Swellest Week-end I've Spent'

"Positively, boys, this was the swellest week-end I ever spent." This from Houseparty Virgie, who knows the racket from the cellar up, was indeed a compliment. Tossing a couple of shoes and a battered bag into the tonneau of her Stanley Steamer, Virgie relinquished her shovel to an admirer. "You know, boys," she crooned, "I adore your parties. There is always something to do." Virgie's sigh was like the wind whistling in the trees of Mt. Nittany.

For the last four years Virgie has held the intercollegiate houseparty queen title, and she has recorded more houseparties in her diary than One-eyed Connolly. Fresh from a wild week-end at Vassar, Virgie sailed into town late Friday night, unknown, undated, almost forgotten. Years of experience have not robbed her of her maidenly reserve. She was still reticent about accepting any blind dates, but she did "want to meet the boys."

"Ever since I first came to a houseparty here, six years ago," she said, "I have always wanted to come back."

Penn State Players and of Theopians, Sphinx, Student Union Board, and Interfraternity Council. Perkin was voted the best dressed man on the campus in 1932 in the annual Froth poll. He was a graduate of the School of Liberal Arts in the curriculum of Arts and Letters. Since his graduation he has been a student in the University of Pittsburgh law school. His home was in Allentown, and he was a brother of Morris Perkin '28.

Saniel only matriculated here for two years. He did not complete the course at the College. He studied law at the University of Pittsburgh and only recently opened his law offices in the Grant building in Pittsburgh where his home was located. Both Miss Jackson and Miss Webster were enrolled in the School of Education and both were majoring in the home economics curriculum. The two lived at the same rooming house at 111 East Foster Avenue.

Miss Jackson was graduated from Coatesville high school in 1929. Before entering Penn State she attended the West Chester State Teachers' College for two years. Her home was in Cochransville. Her funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

Miss Webster was a graduate of the North Girard high school in the class of 1932. At the time of the accident they were traveling with Mr. and Mrs. Musser to Altoona to attend a dance. Perkin, Saniel, and Graver were enroute to State College to attend Houseparty and the Penn State-Lafayette football game.

Hetzel Approves Merger Revisions

partment until Dr. Asa E. Martin returns. The division of political science will be supervised by Dr. Jacob Tanger, of the department of political science. The departments of music, German, classical languages, journalism, mathematics, and philosophy will not be divided as the rest have been.

Group Chairmen Named Three general groups which include allied subjects have been created and the chairman of each has been selected. A Fine Arts group, consisting of the divisions of dramatics, speech, and the department of music, will be headed by Prof. Richard W. Grant, head of the department of music.

The divisions of French, Spanish and Italian, as well as the department of classical language and German, will be fused under the Foreign Language group. Lucretia V. T. Simmons, head of the department of German will be in charge. Dr. Hasek will act as chairman of the social studies group, which consists of the divisions of economics, history, political science, and sociology.

Responsibilities Placed Those in charge of divisions and the heads of departments, which are not divided into divisions, have been made responsible for teaching schedules, recommendations for new members on the faculty, and changes in courses.

It will also be a part of their duties to recommend extension teachers to the Dean of the school through the extension director, to order books for their divisions from the funds allotted by the College Librarian and the Dean, to change rank and salary of the members of their divisions with the approval of the Dean, and to preside at meetings of their groups to discuss matters of policy.

The chairmen will be appointed for one year at a time by the Dean of the school in which they are located. To relieve those in charge from routine administrative duties, executive secretaries will be appointed wherever possible.

Deans To Supervise The Dean of each school will call occasional meetings of the heads to discuss matters of general concern. He will also be chairman of the committee on administration and academic policy. The members of these committees will consist of five heads of divisions or departments and will be appointed annually. Other committees will include those on lower division, admissions to the upper division, lectures, and social affairs.

The faculty will make final decisions on matters of educational or administrative policy. All members of the faculty, and not only members of the committees or divisional heads, will be permitted to make suggestions. Committees at Work The committee on admissions to the Upper division has been working on

The requirements to be made of students. Proficiency in English, and one foreign language, as well as recommendations from departmental heads, aptitude, and personal qualifications have been listed, so far, to be passed by all applicants.

In the Lower division students will be given the same work for the first two years whether they are enrolled in the School of Education or the School of Liberal Arts. At the end of that time they will receive a certificate for their work which will certify that they have completed two years of general college training.

Those who wish to specialize, will make application for admittance to the Upper division and if accepted will be granted the regular diploma when they complete two more years of instruction.

"In approving these recommendations in keeping with the plan suggested last June, there are two purposes to be accomplished," President Hetzel stated in a letter to Dean Stoddard. "They are to free the division heads and investigators from administrative details and to correlate the subject matter of related fields."

Tobacco.. there are just as many kinds as there are kinds of folks

A bale of aromatic Chesterfield Turkish tobacco.

Mild ripe home-grown tobacco used in Chesterfield Cigarettes.

long · short · thick heavy · dark · light all kinds and styles

... but it takes mild ripe tobacco—Turkish and home-grown—to make a milder better-tasting cigarette.

... and that's the kind you get in every Chesterfield package.

Down South in the tobacco country, where they grow and know tobacco—in most places Chesterfield is the largest-selling cigarette.
