

Co-eds Install Leaders For Freshman Forum

New officers of the Freshman Forum were installed Wednesday night by the women's division of the Christian Association Cabinet, with Claire M. Lichty '35, president, and Gene C. Ziegler '37, in charge.

The new officers installed at this "recognition service" were Christine Hoffer '38, president; Martha Overholt '38, vice-president; Aylene Weaver '38, secretary; Ruth Linde '38, treasurer; and Ida Rainey '38, social chairman.

To Show Prize Horse At Chicago Exposition

Lord Lact, champion percheron stallion owned by the College will be exhibited at the International Livestock exposition, in Chicago, December 1-8.

Lord Lact was awarded grand championship honors at the Eastern States exposition at Springfield, Mass., and he won the same award at the Pennsylvania Farm Show in Harrisburg in 1932.

Otley's IC-4A Victory Reminds Scribe of Former State Star

Shades of a former Penn State harrier king are about all that any of the numerous newshawks covering the late-lamented IC-4A meet noticed so far as this College is concerned.

Arthur J. Daley, writing for the New York Times on Tuesday, said: "Not since the days when Big Bill Cox of Penn State used to turn the harrier classic into a runaway has any one so dominated the event as Otley did yesterday." And that finished all reference to Penn State, except that said, sad note of the finishing place in the summaries.

Bill Cox '29 flashed like a meteor across the cross-country sky in his sophomore year to win the IC-4A championship in the record-breaking time of 30 minutes, four seconds, cutting exactly thirty seconds from the former record. He received the tribute of the harrier world after his unexcelled triumph and the president of the IC-4A called him "America's hope in the Olympics."

Big, dark-haired, smooth-striding Bill had been a high school star and an Olympic representative while still in high school. His victory in 1926 led the Nittany team to its first team triumph—the first of a four-year reign. Acting as officials in that epic-making race ever Al Helfrich '25, America's lone conqueror of Nurmi, and Jimmy "Victory Song" Leyden '14.

Cox repeated next year to retain his title, breezing home an easy winner over a field of 250 competitors, and leading the Lions to their second team victory. In his senior year in 1928 he lost his title, finishing third; although the team again repeated. Weakened by the loss of Cox and two other strong varsity men, the team lost the title in 1929, but regained it in 1930 with 29 points, the lowest team score since the war.

Cox, by winning the individual crown two years in succession, set a record which had not been equalled since the war, and, until Otley's repeat victory of last Monday, that record still stood. The only other individual title holder from Penn State was Romig in 1920.

"I've never seen anything like it," said Coach Chick Werner, when interviewed yesterday on the poor showing in the Intercollegiate. "The boys tried hard enough; they were running in a way that would have won the meet under any other conditions, but their efforts seemed to be wasted. They worked too hard without getting anywhere. I can't understand it."

Captain George Harvey, 16th place man last year, finished only 33rd this year and was the first Lion hill-and-daler to cross the line. Last year the team had a score of 269 points to finish in 10th place, this year they cut that to 204 and finished in 8th position. The only bright spot in the picture was Pete Olexy's third place in the freshman race, after he had made a gallant bid for the title.

Election of the varsity captain for next season will take place tonight some place in the Nittany mountains south of State College when both the varsity and freshman squads, together with Coach Werner, Director Bezdek and the managers gather for the annual steak dinner and get-together which traditionally closes the season.

COACH SEEKS TALL CENTRE FOR SQUAD

Loss of Tap-Off Man Troubles Leslie With Opener Only 3 Weeks Away

By CHARLIE SCHWARTZ
WANTED: One long, lanky fellow, about six feet, four, who is a good, or at least fairly good, basketball player. Is needed to play center on the 1934-35 Penn State quintet. Applicants gratefully received. Apply to Spike Leslie, Recreation hall, Monday to Friday, between 5 and 7 o'clock in the afternoon.

The above advertisement tells in plain words what is bothering the basketball mentor right now. Trying to select a team, with the opener only three weeks away, and no one to fill Curt Henning's shoes in the tap-off position, is no easy job, Spike is discovering. Jim Hunter, of last year's plebe quintet, is the number one man at present for the post, but he's only six feet tall!

More than 30 candidates are practicing five afternoons a week now, with about five or six more expected to report as soon as the football season closes. Of these candidates, there are only two lettermen—Capt. Johnny Stocker and Jack Fletcher. Five men have had previous experience on the squad. They are Jack Heysion, Jimmy Smith, Bernie Riley, Al Mikolonis and "Lefty" Knapp.

Seven sophomores, who saw service on the freshman team last year, who are out, or are expected out soon, are Jay McWilliams, Jim Hunter, Charlie Glennon, Paul Perry, Van Linton, Frank Smith and Mike Kornick.

Warnock Relates Amazing Excuses

stitute the major portion of the students requesting excuses, especially over week-ends. This also applies to periods before and after vacations. The reason the Dean gave for this is that the upperclassmen don't bother to go to the trouble, while the freshmen and sophomores are much more conscientious about unexcused "cutting."

The Dean pointed out that excuses from that office are not final, but merely recommendations to the instructors. The final authority for accepting the excuses is vested in the individual instructors. Excuses from the Dean's office are mainly for out-of-town trips. He also added that that office did not grant excuses for illness. The dispensary takes care of that function.

"Our policy is to believe a student until he proves that he is unworthy of our trust. We don't attempt to check up on a student's story, for we have learned from experience that they nearly always tell the truth. However, if we find that someone does deceive us, we never give him another chance to do so," the Dean concluded.

Watts Gives Address

Dean Ralph L. Watts, and Prof. Stevenson W. Fletcher, of the School of Agriculture, have returned from Washington, D. C., where they attended a meeting of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities. Dean Watts presented a paper on "The New Emphasis on Old Elements in the Agricultural Program."

Granger Rough Cut

"I'm glad I live in a country where a dime is money

-and where I can get good pipe tobacco"

THE tobacco which we believe is best suited for pipes is used in making Granger Rough Cut.

It is made by the Wellman Process, and we believe that it will compare favorably with higher priced tobaccos.

We wish, in some way, we could get every man who smokes a pipe to just try Granger.
