Mrs. Sparks Gives Rare Newspaper To Library

A newspaper rarity much sought after by collectors, a genuine copy of The Daily Citizen, printed in Vicksburg, Miss., June 27, 1863, has been presented to the College library by Mrs. Edwin E. Sparks, widow of a former president of the College.

The paper, which is included in a miscellaneous collection of books and material presented by Mrs. Sparks, is printed on wallpaper because of the scarcity of ordinary paper at that time. A letter proving the authenticity of the paper is included. The library also has a counterfeit copy of an issue of the same newspaper.
