STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1935

PRICE FIVE CENTS

2 Days Added To '35-'36 Thanksgiving Vacation as Christmas Period Loses 4

College To Open 1 Day Earlier, Will Close Sat., June 6.

Alumni Day Moved Up To Oct. 19 Week-end

An increase of two and a half days in the Thanksgiving vacation and the elimination of four days from this year's Christmas holiday are the major changes in the new calendar for the official school year of 1935-36, which was approved last week by the College Senate.

Under the revised calendar the Thanksgiving vacation will begin at noon on Wednesday and will end Monday noon, December 2. The Christmas holidays will start four days later than this year when it begins on December 19. The closing date will be the same, January 2, 1936.

Homecoming Date Changed

College will officially open next semester on the same day of the week as this year, Wednesday, but the date will be one day earlier, September 18. Freshman Week will start on September 12 and will close on the 17th.

Another significant change made is that the Alumni Homecoming Day has been moved up two weeks. Alumni will return on the week-end of October 19, which is the date of the football game with Lehigh University.

Easter Vacation Unchanged

The Senate has approved a half-holiday on some Saturday during the football season. The exact date of this holiday will be determined next fall by student selection, through the Student Council.

Easter vacation will fall a week earlier in 1936 than it will this year. While it will begin Wednesday, April 17 this year, it will begin a week earlier, April 8, in 1936. The period of the vacation will be a full week, the same as this year.

College will end two days earlier next year. The date set for the ending of the semester is June 6, while it will end on June 8 this year. Commencement will be held two days later on Monday, June 8, in 1936.

Committee Considers Bands for Senior Ball

With February 8 as the most likely date for Senior Ball, the orchestra which will play for the affair has not yet been signed although selection rests among six bands, Cecil C. Spadafora '35, chairman, announced yesterday.

Orchestras being considered are Mal Hallett, Paul Pendarvis, Bernie Cummins, "Red" Nichols, Emerson Gill and George Hall. By the early part of next week one of these bands will have been signed, Spadafora declared when asked about the negotiations.

At the present time Mal Hallett is on a tour of southern colleges and is playing for several dances in that part of the country. Pendarvis is at the William Penn Hotel in Pittsburgh while Bernie Cummins is in Chicago. Emerson Gill is on a tour and George Hall plays from the Hotel Taft over a Columbia broadcasting network. "Red" Nichols is also on the air at various times.

Dr. Fenn To Discuss 'Three Ways to Truth'

"Three Ways to Truth" will be discussed by Dr. Don Frank Fenn, rector of the Church of St. Michael and All Angels, Baltimore, Md., in the regular chapel service in Schwab auditorium, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. This is Dr. Fenn's first appearance on the College chapel program.

After serving several churches in Colorado, and also acting as chaplain of the Colorado State Penitentiary, the speaker became rector of the Gethsemane Church, Minneapolis, Minn., in 1922, where he remained until 1931. Since that time he has been at his present church in Baltimore.

Pugh Back From Trip

David B. Pugh, supervisor of the undergraduate centers, returned Wednesday from New York. Earlier in the week, Mr. Pugh addressed the Hazelton undergraduate center at their first Christmas party.

Hirsch Appoints 16 to Senior Ball Committee

Paul K. Hirsch '35, senior class president, today announced the Senior Ball committee. Carl C. Spadafora '35 was named chairman of the committee some time ago. The rest of the committee follows: Joseph N. Bresnowitz, J. Paul Civittis, David W. Davis, Joseph E. Dentice, Hudson H. Erisman, Samuel A. Lear, Mortimer H. Menaker, George H. Milligan.

Others on the committee are: Morgan J. Rees, Robert Senderowitz, Robert C. Simpson, John P. West, Clifford C. Wood, Helen J. Hinebauch, and Margaret W. Kin-sloe.

Tribunal Finds 4 Freshmen Guilty

Burgert Wears Dress; Maffay, Jones, Schmidt Ordered To Carry Signs.

Four of the eight freshmen tried by Student Tribunal in Room 318, Old Main, Tuesday night were found guilty, two others were declared not guilty, one man had sentence suspended pending further investigation of the charges, while the other student did not come under the regulations of the body.

Harold E. Burgert was found guilty of not wearing a dink, of dating, and of not wearing other freshman customs. He was sentenced to wear a woman's dress and hat for two weeks with a sign down his back "Ten Cents a Dance." In addition Leo N. Skemp '35, president of Tribunal, declared the man must appear at Recreation hall and skip around the gymnasium fifteen times between the halves of the basketball game to the tune which the Blue Band would play at that time.

Daniel V. Jones admitted not having worn a dink for a period of five or six days and was accordingly sentenced to wear a sign, "Note the Jade Top Piece," for three days. Clifford F. Maffay must wear a sign, "Hands off My Dink," for the same length of time. In addition to having to appear in Recreation hall to provide entertainment between the halves, James S. Schmidt will be required to carry the sign, "No Dink in the Rain," for three days after having admitted that he wore a regular hat whenever it was raining.

Sentence was suspended upon Joseph G. Walsh, charged with breaking all customs, not recognizing authority of men or the sophomore class in general. Further investigation will be made because of Walsh's statements that the charges were untrue. Skemp declared. Harold C. McConnell was excused from the charges made against him because of his being a two-year agricultural student with whom Tribunal does not deal.

In the cases of Thomas M. Wible and C. George Ruff charged with not wearing customs and of not having matches when asked for them, verdicts of not guilty were decided by Tribunal members. Three other men who were notified to appear did not show up and will be dealt with at the next meeting, Tuesday night, January 15, at 7:30 o'clock.

Old Favorites Leading as Returns in Best Dressed Professor Poll Start Pouring in

As incomplete returns in the Best Dressed Professor poll poured into the COLLEGIAN office last night, they seemed to indicate that Penn State's faculty is, at least, well dressed.

Although only a few of the local precincts had reported, nothing was so impressive about the returns as the diversity of professors who have received votes.

The conservatives, led by L. Tremaine Dunlap, last year's winner, Prof. Harold L. Dickson, Dr. William D. Butt, and Dr. Carl W. Hasek were again slightly in advance of the liberals, or White Spat school. But the liberals are expected to poll a heavy vote in the outlying districts.

A minor group, the Esquireans, are making some inroads into the liberal vote. "Only a flash in the pan" was the way the group was characterized by sartorial leaders last night.

The Liberal Arts School seems to be retaining first place as it did last year. Dean Charles W. Stoddart himself was well-in the running, as were Dr. O. Frederick Boucke, Dr. Butt, Dr. Willard Waller, and Prof. Shel-

Sarg's Puppets To Appear Here In 2 Programs

Famous Marionetteer Will Present 'Faust,' 'Uncle Remus.'

Night Performance Will Start At 8:20

With a matinee performance of "Uncle Remus" from the stories by Joel Chandler Harris, scheduled in Schwab auditorium at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon and the production of "Faust, the Wicked Magician," in the same place at 8:20 o'clock tonight, Tony Sarg and his Marionette Company will give a double performance under the auspices of the Penn State Players.

At the afternoon performance, fourteen characters will appear. They include Rufus, Rastus, Uncle Remus, The Little Boy, Br'er Rabbit, Br'er Fox, Miss Buzzard, Mrs. Rabbit, Mopit Rabbit, Floppit Rabbit, Mr. Tarry Pin, Mr. Coon, and Mr. Possum. There are three acts and seven scenes in the play.

Scene I is in Uncle Remus' cabin; the next scene takes place down by the meadow, while the last scene of the first act is set in the woods. In Act II, Br'er Rabbit's house is the setting of the first scene, the outside of the house is the second, while the third scene reverts to the woods. When the final curtain falls, the characters will be located in Br'er Rabbit's house again as in the second scene of the second act.

Costumes for this production were designed by Miss Pearl Craigie while David Pritchard is acting as manager for Mr. Sarg. The puppeteers include Mr. Pritchard, Donald Cordry, Russel Beachler, and Winifred Parkers. The characters were puppetized by A. C. M. Azozy, assistant to Tony Sarg.

At the night performance, sixteen century characters, will portray the parts of "Dr. Johannes Faust, Wagner, Casper, Mr. Beanpole, Mrs. Muller, Mr. Muller, Mephistopheles, Marguerite, Martha, Siebel, Valentin, Captain Cerano, Lelah, An Old Witch, A Prison Guard, A Cat, A Magician and charlatan of the sixteenth century, and Dr. Faust's secretary.

Other characters are A Country Lout, Two Patients, Husband of one of the Patients, The Devil, A Lady from Venice, Marguerite's Mother, A Young Cavalier, A Young Officer, Captain of the Guards, A Dancer in the Witches' Kitchen, Pet of Faust, as well as gondoliers, citizens, soldiers, devils, ghosts, skeletons, bats, owls, and other weird animals.

Scenes take place in Dr. Faust's house, Venetian streets, Marguerite's home and gardens, A Venetian canal bridge, Witches' kitchen in Germany, prison of Venice, and the last scene is atop the Brocken Mountain.

The same puppeteers will operate the marionettes. The figures and stage properties were built by Charles E. Searle and the costumes were designed by Miss Craigie. Music for the play was assembled and written by Richard Williams and sound effects will be produced by Amplion.

This company has appeared here three times previously, their last performance being "Rose and the Ring," which was presented in 1931. Other productions included "Treasure Island," in 1928, "Adventures of Christopher Columbus," in 1928, and "Spanish Fiesta" in 1931, along with "Rose and the Ring."

Senior Commencement Reservations Open Now

All seniors who are being graduated at the February commencement should make reservations for caps and gowns at the Student Union desk immediately.

Seniors who are being graduated at the mid-year commencement and who desire invitations to and announcements of their graduation should also make reservations at the Student Union desk.

Beaux Arts Ball Set for Tonight

Dancing in Mardi Gras Setting Will Begin at 10; Bottorf To Provide Music.

Penn State couples tonight may step from the bleakness of this chill campus into all the warm color of a New Orleans street decorated for a Mardi Gras celebration and dance to the music of Bill Bottorf's band at the third annual Beaux Arts Ball in the Armory.

Invitations to the Ball may be obtained from any member of Scabab, national professional architecture fraternity, which is sponsoring the affair. Dancing will begin at 10 o'clock and continue until 2. Co-eds may obtain late permission for the dance. Freshmen may attend.

Any sort of colorful costume may be worn, and the wearers of the most beautiful and original costumes will be awarded prizes. Members of the department of architecture faculty will judge the costumes.

All of the decorations will be amateur work done by members of the fraternity. The dance floor will be laid out like a New Orleans street at Mardi Gras time. The band will sit in a shop window just as in the real festival. Around the sides of the Armory will be houses in a riot of color, while streamers will hang from the ceiling.

College Borrows Over Half Million

State Senator, Representative Discuss Appropriations For Coming Year.

If State Senator Edward J. Thompson of Philadelphia can be accepted as an authority, the College has been forced to borrow $625,000 in the past three months to meet its regular monthly expenses. The Senator said that he learned of these loans while in a conference with College authorities recently.

When questioned regarding the appropriations which the College will receive for the next biennium, he said that the matter is still very uncertain. In regard to a new building program, however, he said that almost will adjust its corporate structure to anything is possible if the College become a public corporation and thus become eligible for PWA grants.

When Representative Blake Shugart of Clearfield was questioned concerning the appropriations, he predicted that the amount for the next biennium will remain approximately the same as it has been during the past two years.

"While I can't speak officially, I hardly think that the appropriation will be cut. Support of the educational institutions of the State was one of the platforms of the Democratic party in the recent campaign and we will carry out every promise as far as possible," he said.

Interfraternity Sing Will Occur This March

Plans for an interfraternity sing, to be sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha, honorary musical society, indicate that the vocal contest, in which fraternity groups will participate, will be held early in March.

Each fraternity can enter a chorus of from twelve to twenty voices. Selections will include a group of fraternity songs and one College song. The contest, which was not held here last year, was won by Beta Theta Pi two years ago. Members of the committee are John W. Kreeger '35, chairman, Ebert L. Badger '36, and Robert E. Carey '36.

Registration for Second Semester Set for Feb. 4, 5

Time For Enrollment Depends On Initial Of Last Name.

Usual $5 Fine Placed On Late Registrants

Registration for the second semester of the present College year will begin Monday morning, February 4, and continue through Tuesday afternoon, February 5, in Recreation hall. Regular classes will start Wednesday afternoon.

Registration will be carried on the same as last year with the assignment of registration periods for students being made according to the initials of their last name, a plan instituted five years ago.

As usual, a five dollar fine will be levied for late registration although students may register earlier than their assigned periods with the approval of their scheduling officer. Otherwise students will be required to register as follows:

A to B	Tuesday	8-12
B to C	Monday	1-5
C to D	Tuesday	1-5
D to E	Monday	10-1
E to F	Tuesday	8-12
F to G	Monday	1-5
G to H	Tuesday	1-5
H to I	Monday	10-1
I to J	Tuesday	8-12
J to K	Monday	1-5
K to L	Tuesday	1-5
L to M	Monday	10-1
M to N	Tuesday	8-12
N to O	Monday	1-5
O to P	Tuesday	1-5
P to Q	Monday	10-1
Q to R	Tuesday	8-12
R to S	Monday	1-5
S to T	Tuesday	1-5
T to U	Monday	10-1

This plan of assigning by initials is absolutely fair, explained Registrar William S. Hoffman, as any student attending the College for four straight years will register once on each of the four half days. Formerly, the assignments were made by lots.

"There is, though," he continued laughing, "one possibility of a student receiving unfair treatment. I would advise any co-eds thinking of marriage first to consider this."

Students should see their scheduling officers to make out their schedules the day before their assigned periods if possible, but scheduling officers will be in their offices all day during the registration period. There is no rule prohibiting the securing of scheduling cards in advance of registration.

No one will be admitted to Recreation hall to register during the last half hour of his assigned period, although anyone registering at that time will be allowed to finish.

Holders of memorial scholarships will, as usual, receive certificates in Recreation hall instead of at the President's office. The Treasurer will not accept checks for more than $10.00 over the total amount of fees.

Time tables listing time and place of second semester classes will be available at the offices of the scheduling officers and may be purchased for ten cents at the Registrar's office at the beginning of final week.

Libraries Open Sunday

For the first time departmental libraries will be open on Sundays, according to Librarian William P. Lewis, when the engineering reading room will be made available on Sunday afternoon and evenings and the Chemistry Library on Sunday evenings. In order for the latter to remain open on Sunday evenings it will be closed on Saturday afternoons.

College Budget To Show Profit of $98,876 For '34-'35, U. S. Education Bureau Reveals

Operating profits of $98,876 for the academic year of 1934-35 will be shown by Penn State, the report of Henry S. Badger, assistant statistician in the office of the United States Bureau of Education, reveals. Mr. Badger's figures show estimated receipts and expenditures of the College classified as to types.

Receipts from all sources will be $3,508,077, he estimated, while expenditures will total $3,409,201, exclusive of capital outlay, which item is not included in the computation of operating profit. $93,000 has been listed as the capital expenditure for this term, however.

Estimated receipts of the College include $1,854,000 from state, city or district; $535,247 from the United States government; $802,988 from student fees; $26,020 from endowment; and $18,425 from private gifts and grants.

Expenditures, on the other hand, include $2,232,854 for administration, instruction, library, operation and maintenance, $217,757 for organized research, and $858,590 for extension courses and correspondence. The report also compares the income and expenditures of the College for the past two years.

Guests To See Engine Tests in Laboratory

A group of automobile dealers and repairmen will be guests at the mechanical engineering laboratory Saturday afternoon to observe engine tests which the department has been conducting for the past eighteen months to determine the behavior of various lubricating oils under service conditions.

College Budget To Show Profit of $98,876 For '34-'35, U. S. Education Bureau Reveals

Income from public sources, student fees and government income show no change from last year, but private gifts and grants have decreased twenty-one per cent, the report estimates. On the debit side of the ledger, administration, instruction, library, maintenance and operation costs are estimated to be one per cent higher this year.

Organized research will cost three per cent more this year while the outlay for extension courses and correspondence courses is the same. Total current expenses will be increased one per cent. Educational and general income of the College including building, shows a forty-five per cent drop since the term of 1929-1930.

For the same period, educational and general expenditures, including extension, have increased six per cent. Salaries of the staffs have remained the same as those of last term, the report shows. However, the number on the payroll has been increased from 391 last year to 399 this season.

The wage scale this year is: President, $15,600; deans of the schools, $7,120; professors, $3,700; associate professors, $2,800; assistant professors, $2,500; and instructors, $2,200, according to the report.

Subjects of Discussion Include Athletics, Public Careers.

Warnock Will Welcome Group This Afternoon

Registration of the 125 students representing the student government organizations of their respective colleges, expected for the third annual convention of the Pennsylvania Association of College Students, will begin this morning at 9:30 o'clock. The main subjects to be discussed by the association, which was organized by John A. Wood '33, will be the subsidization of athletics and the extent college students are interested in public life.

Rostand Kelly, of the Bloomsburg State Teachers' College, president of the association, will preside at the opening session of the convolve Friday afternoon. Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock will give the welcoming address, according to Clifford C. Wood '35, Executive Secretary of the Association who is in charge of the entire affair.

Dr. F. B. Hass To Speak

Dr. Francis B. Haas, president of the Bloomsburg State Teachers' College, will give the principal address of the first session of the convention. The title of Dr. Haas's address has not been announced as yet. At 3 o'clock the panel discussions of the convolve will open.

Ferman H. McFerran, Temple University, will lead the discussion on student body organizations. Speakers scheduled under this topic include: Allen Farrington, Bucknell; Wendell Irwin, Lincoln College; Joyce Dunbar, Moravian College; Jack Beck, Bloomsburg State Teachers' College; and Betty Rosenthal, Albright College.

Mikelonis To Lead Discussion

The discussion on student finances and activities fees will be led by Albert P. Mikelonis '35. Other speakers on this subject will be Abram Morgan, Ursinus College, and Dorothy Horne, East Stroudsburg State Teachers' College.

Henry B. Coleman Jr., Drexel, will be the chairman of the group scheduled to discuss student publications. Edward Bracken, of the Indiana State Teachers' College, and Katherine Danneker, of the Seton Hall College, are also on this group.

Hirsch To Preside at Dinner

Paul K. Hirsch '35, senior class president, will open the dinner session of the convention. The main address of the evening will be given by Prof. R. E. Page, of Bucknell. His subject will be "Should College Students Be Interested in Public Life?"

The regular evening session of the convolve will open with discussion among the different groups on "What Have You?" Among the subjects which will be discussed are the honor system, student cooperative savings agencies, the value of college to students, athletics and subsidization, the participation of day students in college life, and plans to interest students in public affairs.

Will Divide Into Groups

Tomorrow morning the convention will open up with discussion groups at 9:30 o'clock. The groups will be divided according to the type of college which the delegates represent. Among divisions will be the co-educational group, women's college group, men's college group, and the professional college division.

At 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Elizabeth E. Barton '35, recording secretary of the association, will preside at the symposium session of the convolve.

"The subject of this session will be 'The College Student Looks Toward the Future.'" Featured speakers on this topic will be Dr. Clarence S. Anderson, of the department of agricultural education, and president of the fraternity advisers' association, and John R. Richards, assistant to Dean Charles W. Stoddart, of the School of Liberal Arts.

Will Hold Tea for Delegates

At 3 o'clock there will be a tea for the delegates in Old Main and from 3:30 to 5:10 o'clock Rostand Kelly will preside at a business session of the convolve.

John Lang, ex-president of the National Student Federation of America, will address the convention on the subject, "A Generation Faces Dry-rot," at the association's banquet at 6 o'clock. New officers of the Association will be elected at a special business meeting Sunday morning and there will also be a meeting of the advisory committee and the executive board.
