

Twisting the Dial By MIKE

All Times Eastern Standard. TODAY

Gilbert and Sullivan fans will like "Ruddigore"—and this satirical bit comes via WJZ at 2:15 . . . Columbia's Variety hour will feature a clev-er piano team, Fray and Braggiotti, on WABC at 3 . . . for modern music in the concert manner, pick up Meredith Willson on WEAF at 5 . . . for a show with painless plugs, get Leo Reisman & Co. on WEAF at 8 . . . Wayne King, the Waltz King, soothes with smooth syncopation at 8:30 on WEAF . . . at the same hour Lawrence Tibbett may be heard on the WJZ net . . . don't miss Winchell's appearance on the Ben Bernie show at 9 on WEAF—actually they are bosom pals, but this program should see some rare and stinging repartee . . . to a devotee of the pun, such as myself, Ed Wynn's program on WEAF at 9:30 should be ace-high—but I can't see it . . . suggest you get the Cleveland Symphony on WJZ at the same time . . . the Beauty Box Theater will present the first half of the "Rogue Song" at 10 on WEAF—masterful bits of condensation . . . keep your ears open for this man Orville Knapp on WABC at midnight—his arrangements featuring a guitar are sensational, deservedly so . . .

TOMORROW

Ray Noble, by whom this department swears, will be heard in an hour's show on WJZ at 2—vocalists are Gogo Delys and Al Bowly . . . a Vassar gel will speak on "Practical Political Education" before a WABC mike at 4, as a part of the National Student Federation program . . . Pickford's stock company, in "Let Us Be Gay," on WEAF at 8 . . . Everett Marshall's Varieties sustain interest on WABC at 8:30 . . . Fred Allen goes to "Town Hall Tonight" on WEAF at 9—but omigod! why drag in those sad amateurs? . . . for Burns and Allen—who must work from padded studios—dial WABC at 9:30 . . . Lombardo sweetness drips from the speaker when the dial says WEAF and it's 10 . . . Ray Noble again at 10:30 on WEAF . . . Hal Kemp, WJZ, 11 . . . Art Jarrett gets an NBC wire, at midnight on WEAF, from the College Inn, Chi . . .

THURSDAY

Phi Mu Alpha Little Symphony on WJZ at 2:15, if you have no class . . . we can honestly recommend this College Prom show now, what with their abandoning that patently spurious atmosphere—it stars Ruth Elting and Red Nichols, and is on WJZ at 7:45 . . . another show we shower roses upon is this Hour of Charm, with the all-girl orchestra and chorus—their "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" really touches the heart—get them on WABC at 8 . . . until television, we're gonna boost the Valley show also, on WEAF at 8—but when that famous smile starts to accompany his music—Twist the Dial! . . . Glen Gray pur-veys music both sweet and hot via WABC at 9 . . . Waring scores again at 9:30 over the same chain . . . Little Jack Little's piano is still much too much in evidence, but otherwise his spot on WABC at 11 is worthy of attention . . .

WATCH FOR THE return of B. A. Rolfe to the air this Friday. Joe Cook may also be on the show, making two good reasons for not listening to it.

WHAT IMPORTANT CIGGIES SALES are way down, undoubtedly due to the fact that they have no air show?

ART JARRETT HAS moved into the College Inn, Chi, where George Olsen had been holding forth.

GUY LOMBARDO CAN be heard almost every night (or rather morning) on KFI (640 kilocycles) at 2 o'clock. He is playing in the Coconut Grove, Los Angeles, where Freddy Martin will open this June.

LUCREZIA BORI, famous prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera company, starred on the Kostelanetz show every Monday night at 9, on WABC and affiliated stations.

TED LEWIS, THAT high-hatted tragedian of jazz, has opened at Castle Farm, Cincy. We caught him on WLW at 2 o'clock Sunday morn, and was everybody happy!

JEROME KERN, FOLLOWING the lead of Otto Harbach and Sig-mund Romberg, may soon have his own show.

ED WYNN CLAIMS THAT he's used 8,000 gags in the last 3 years. Shucks, Chief, there aren't that many; at least, not airable ones.

Smash Tunes of the Moment

Bandleaders are featuring these tunes just now: "Isle of Capri," "Blue Moon," "I Believe in Miracles," "Fare The Well, Annabelle," and "Good Ship Lollipop." Our own nominations for best of the week: "Every Day," "If the Moon Turns Green," and "Clouds."

WHY NOT A PENN STATE night on one of the College Prom shows? After all, we buy lots of that certain cereal that sponsors the show.

BEA LILLIE'S HUSBAND is Sir Robert Peel, founder or renovator of the London police system. Knowing that, it's quite easy to guess who might have said, "A policeman's lot is not a happy one," especially if Bea is inclined to humor in her domestic surroundings.

RAY NOBLE HAD never made more than two or three broadcasts before his NBC program. Yet his fame had spread to three continents. The cause lies solely in his recordings. His "Tiger Rag" is considered a classic by the disc fans.

PHIL BAKER FANS will probably miss the heckling of Beetle, who will go on a personal appearance tour. His jibes were always a high-light—every one likes to hear the comedian ribbed.

HENRY BUSSE IS OUT definitely as the other I. F. Ball band, since that tootin' Teuton will replace Guy Lombardo at the Coconut Grove, L. A., March 28.

Judge To Open Water Color Exhibit Tonight

Water color sketches drawn by Prof. and Mrs. Joseph Judge, of the department of architecture, will be put on exhibition tonight in the exhibition room of the Main Engineering building. The exhibition room will be open during the day from 8 to 5 o'clock, and in the evening from 7 to 10 o'clock.

The group of sketches represents work done in Egypt, Greece, Italy, France, New Mexico, New York, and State College. The exhibition will continue up to and including Monday night, March 11.

Grange Group To Meet

Men and women who serve as lecturers in Pomona and subordinate granges will meet here on April 17 for a three-day short course given by the College for instruction of grange lecturers in community programs.

Matmen Win 118 in 25 Years

State Teams Gain 6 Titles In 17 Seasons

Iowa, Lehigh, Cornell, Navy Alone Defeat Lion Grapplers.

When the Lion wrestlers overwhelmed Syracuse on Saturday, they not only retained their position as the only undefeated team in the Eastern Intercollegiate League, but they also added another feather to their enviable all-time record.

In 1910 Penn State took up wrestling on an intercollegiate basis. Since that year—twenty-five seasons of wrestling—only four colleges have defeated the Lions on the mat. They are Navy, Cornell, Lehigh, and Iowa State College. Penn State has engaged in 147 wrestling meets with 30 colleges, winning 123, losing 21, and tying 3.

State was admitted to the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association in 1918, and succeeded in winning the championship for the first four years of its membership, taking second place to Cornell for the next two years, and then winning the trophy two more years in succession. The Lions have continued their success in dual meets up to the present, although Lehigh has come to the front in late years and won the Association championship in the last three tournaments.

The dual meet record of Penn State teams with the other eight members of the Eastern Association, follows:

Cornell	15	5	2
Penn	14	0	0
Columbia	4	0	0

The Naval Academy and Iowa State are the only teams who have won more than they have lost from Penn State. Navy has won eleven, lost eight, and tied one, while Iowa has won three of its four meets from the Lions.

W. E. "Doc" Lewis and Charlie Speidel, coaches during seventeen years of the twenty-five, are largely responsible for the continued success of Penn State's wrestling team. Lewis left here in 1921 to become wrestling coach at Harvard, while Speidel took up his duties in 1927 and this season began his ninth year as head coach. Of the twenty-one meets which Penn State has lost in this twenty-five year period, only five defeats were administered to the Blue and White team on the home mats. This fine "home record" will be seriously threatened this year when Navy wrestles in Rec hall Saturday.

Rotary Club To Meet

Members of the State College Rotary club will observe the tenth anniversary of the club's founding at the State College Hotel tonight. David A. Kapp, first president of the organization, will be the presiding officer in place of L. Roy Porter, the present president. Guests from the Philipsburg and Lewistown chapters will be present.

Baseball Outlook Bright With Opener Month Away

Imposing 18-Game Schedule Faces Nittany Nine; Veterans Form Nucleus of Squad.

By BILL McDOWELL

Now that Babe Ruth has definitely made up his mind to go up to Boston to help Bill McKechnie's dad manage the Braves and baseball coach Joe Bedenk is beginning to wish basketball season were over so that he could get Frank Smith and Mike Kornick in baseball uniforms, it's time to think of the eighteen game schedule that Penn State will swing into in a little over a month.

Briefly and to the point: things look pretty good. The outfield and infield are well taken care of with veterans from varsity ball last year and the crux of the situation is the battery.

Although he hasn't worked out yet this year it isn't at all improbable that Smith is going to be another Keith Parks, namely a pitcher who can win his own ball games. You will recall that he stood out from the rest of the freshman team last year like a mole on a billiard ball and he pitched three no-hit, no-run games in sandlot ball in Altoona last summer.

Ernie Stokes pitched only one-and-a-third games of varsity last year, but this included the 6-0 shutout perpetrated against Dickinson. Lefty Knapp can be in the race if he gets down to business and takes it seriously. Wertz, Seltzer, Rugh, and Stobodan are also looking fair for the box.

The catching situation is more indefinite than pitching, but if Kornick comes through as expected after basketball season finishes, everything is going to be O. K. Ochrock, a transfer from Temple, seems to really have the stuff and Girton is holding them.

Bill McKechnie, who is this year's captain and the smoothest ball player on the team, returned to school last week after being out for a month with a leg that became infected after he tore a muscle playing handball.

The injury was so serious that his father delayed his trip to Florida with the Braves until the doctor assured him that gangrene would not set in. McKechnie is working out with the rest of the team in the corridors of the gym now.

Stocker, who played second base and was lead-off batter last year, will be at his old place after basketball season. Pero Miller who plays third base and hits home runs with commendable consistency, will be in center field and will probably not move into the infield as he did in several games last year.

O'Hara will probably play at the hot spot unless Wassel shows ability that outshines O'Hara's experience. Witwer is slated for left field where Bill Kasesak, who captained last year's team, reigned. Bielicki will take his old new in right field.

The boys have been loosening up their arms in the gym for several weeks so that they will be all set to practice outside when the weather permits.
