

Pruitt, Smith, Young Win Presidencies

Students To Join Protest Against Imperialistic War

Demonstrations Here To Include Mass Meetings At 11, 4 O'Clock Tomorrow; Players To Give Anti-War Play.

Administration Grants Permission To Students; Faculty Members Will Cut Classes Tomorrow.

Penn State students will join 100,000 other college students here in the United States, as well as students in South America, in a giant demonstration against imperialistic war at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

According to an order from the President's office, students and faculty members desiring to attend will be excused from 11 o'clock classes.

The resolutions, which will eventually take the form of letters to members of Congress, protest militarism in education, and urge the diversion of federal expenditures from an armament race to funds for education.

Editor May Speak at 11 Prof. Harold E. Dickson, of the department of architecture, will be one of the faculty speakers, while the other has not yet been selected.

A nation-wide broadcast on the "Significance of the Student Protest" will be made over WABC, WCAU, WIP, and other Columbia stations at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon.

No Disorder Expected Although no violent demonstrations are expected, much controversy has been aroused, especially on Eastern campuses.

2 Leave for Detroit Drs. Nellie B. Guerrant and Jesse E. Hunter, of the School of Agriculture, left for Detroit early this week.

Billiard Champ Plans To Drop Cue For Comic Strip Artist's Brush Twirling a billiard cue in one hand and juggling eight billiard balls in his other, John L. Miller '35, who laid aside the boxing gloves to become a felt artist and win a $2 shirt in the Student Union pool tournament, declared today in an interview that he is going to retire from the professional field and become a comic strip artist.

Thomas Praises Anti-War Drama

Branded as the most controversial play in the history of the Penn State Players, "Peace On Earth," the Theatre Union's anti-war drama, will be produced in Schwab auditorium tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock.

A letter received yesterday by Frank J. Neusbaum, director of the play, from Norman Thomas, prominent Socialist leader, lauded the play as a masterpiece of production.

Binns Portrays Professor "My heartiest congratulations to the Players and my best wishes for the success of the first performance of 'Peace On Earth' by a college group. The day that you have chosen for it is especially fine because it's the day of the student strike against war. In that kind of thing all the hope we have for peace."

College Biennium Proposal of $3,932,234 Awaits Final Action of House. Passed unanimously in the Senate by a vote of 46 to 0, the proposal of Senator Edward J. Thompson, Centre, to appropriate $3,932,234 to the College for the 1935-37 biennium, awaits House action today.

College Aid in Moving Transient Camp Asked The Pennsylvania Board of Fisheries and Game and the State Relief Organization have asked the College for its cooperation in the case that a proposed plan of moving the transient camp at Treaster Kettle to a site near Snow Shoe is adopted.

Newly Elected Presidents of the Classes of 1936, 1937, 1938

J. BRIGGS PRUITT '36 (C)

J. FRANKLIN SMITH '37 (L)

FREDERICK L. YOUNG, JR. '38 (R)

Tabular Results of the Elections to Student Council Posts

Table with 3 columns for years 1936, 1937, and 1938, listing candidates and vote counts for various departments like Agriculture, Chemistry, Education, etc.

Resolution

The department of economics adopted the following resolution at a meeting in the office of Dr. Carl W. Haskok, head of the department, Tuesday afternoon: "It is with profound regret that we, his colleagues in economics, have noted the passing of Dr. O. F. Boucke from our midst."

Senate Approves Appropriation Bill

Passed unanimously in the Senate by a vote of 46 to 0, the proposal of Senator Edward J. Thompson, Centre, to appropriate $3,932,234 to the College for the 1935-37 biennium, awaits House action today.

College Biennium Proposal of $3,932,234 Awaits Final Action of House.

Passed unanimously in the Senate by a vote of 46 to 0, the proposal of Senator Edward J. Thompson, Centre, to appropriate $3,932,234 to the College for the 1935-37 biennium, awaits House action today.

Temple Gets $1,000,000

Last fall the College asked for an appropriation of $4,210,000. Of this amount, $135,000 was to have been used for emergency reimbursement for the dairy building repairs, while $1,007,500 was to have been used for new buildings.

College Aid in Moving Transient Camp Asked

The Pennsylvania Board of Fisheries and Game and the State Relief Organization have asked the College for its cooperation in the case that a proposed plan of moving the transient camp at Treaster Kettle to a site near Snow Shoe is adopted.

Dr. Hunt Will Address Pre-Medical Students

Dr. Henry F. Hunt, director of the clinical laboratories of the Geisinger Memorial Hospital, Danville, will speak on "The Origin of Red Blood Cells" at an open meeting sponsored by Alpha Pi Mu, pre-medical honorary, and the pre-medical society in the Chemistry amphitheatre at 7 o'clock tomorrow night.

Hayward Will Address Senior Women Group

Miss Grace Hayward, placement secretary of the Katherine Gibbs School, will speak to the senior women students in 405 Old Main Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Lektrich, Linton, Harkness Elected Class Secretaries

Smith, Morini, Raphael Selected Treasurers As Balloting Reaches Highest Mark On Record for 3-Day Period.

Voting Machines Successfully Used for First Time in Elections, Tuesday, Yesterday, Today.

J. Briggs Pruitt '36, representing the Campus clique, won the presidency of the next year's senior class in the voting which finished here today when he polled 340 votes to 336 for Herbert E. Bohren '36.

J. Franklin Smith, Locust Lane, won the presidency of the class of '37 when he got 354 votes to 320 for George W. Hacker, Campus. Frederick L. Young, Locust Lane, defeated Robert V. Donato, Campus by a vote of 474 votes to 318.

Armstrong Gets La Vie Editorship

James H. Armstrong '36 was elected editor of the 1936 La Vie at a meeting of the board Tuesday night. William S. McKinney Jr. '36 was named business manager and Amelia Brooks '36, art editor.

McKinney Named as Business Manager; Brooks, Koehler, Schwartz Win Places.

In all, seventeen were elected to the senior board. Ernest Nachod '36 was named fraternities editor; Edward A. Novack '36, College editor; Jane W. Fernster '36, women's editor; Dorothy F. Hull '36, class editor; and W. Bernard Freunsch '36, sports editor.

Music Contests Will Draw 1000

Approximately 1,000 high school musicians representing seven counties, will visit the campus Saturday to compete for district honors in the Central district competition of the Forensic and Music League.

Grange Men To Work On Program Planning

Program planning will be the principal theme of the fourth annual Grange Lecturers' Short Course to be held here in cooperation with the College on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

M.I. Seniors To Make Mine Inspection Trip

Senior students of mining will leave for Pittsburgh Sunday on an inspection tour of coal-cleaning plants and the work of the U. S. Bureau of Mines on the experimental mine at Bruceton.

Frolic' Booth To Hold Old Style Square-Dance

The largest booth at the Ag 'Frolic' in the Armory tomorrow night at 8 o'clock will be that created by the Penn State Grange which will feature old-fashioned square dancing for anybody who wishes to try it.

To Attend Conference

Drs. Robert G. Bernreuter and William M. Lepley, of the department of education and psychology, will attend the annual meeting of the Eastern Division of Psi Chi, national honor society of psychologists, at Princeton, Saturday, Dr. Bernreuter will read a paper titled, "Chance and Personality Inventory Scores."

Dr. Hunt Will Address Pre-Medical Students

Dr. Henry F. Hunt, director of the clinical laboratories of the Geisinger Memorial Hospital, Danville, will speak on "The Origin of Red Blood Cells" at an open meeting sponsored by Alpha Pi Mu, pre-medical honorary, and the pre-medical society in the Chemistry amphitheatre at 7 o'clock tomorrow night.

Hayward Will Address Senior Women Group

Miss Grace Hayward, placement secretary of the Katherine Gibbs School, will speak to the senior women students in 405 Old Main Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.