

Eddy Will Give Series Of Talks Here May 1

Dr. Sherwood Eddy, noted author, lecturer, and world traveler, will deliver a series of lectures here on May 1 under the sponsorship of the Christian Association.

His first address will be to a group of College administration officials and Christian Association directors at a luncheon gathering in the Sandwich Shop. "What Is Happening in Europe?" will be the topic of the second lecture which will be given in the Hugh Beaver Room, 304 Old Main, at 4 o'clock, and will be open to all students. The series will close with a night address before a mass meeting in Schwab auditorium at 7:30 o'clock on the topic "Problems of the Orient; What They Mean To Us."

Shortly after his graduation from Yale in 1891, Dr. Eddy traveled to India where he remained for the next fifteen years, working among students of the Indian Empire. He was then called to be Secretary for Asia for the national council of the Young Men's Christian Association, and served in this capacity for many years among the students and officials of India, China, Japan, and the Near East.

Through his untiring activity, his keen insight into Oriental problems, and his writing and lecturing ability, Dr. Eddy has achieved international fame, and has come to know leaders in all departments of life including Ramsay MacDonald, Bernard Shaw, Albert Einstein, and Mahatma Gandhi.

'Engineer' Names Keim Editor for Next Year

David Y. Keim '36 was elected editor of the Penn State Engineer for 1935-36 at a meeting last Monday. Others elected to the editorial staff are Conrad H. Zierdt '36, associate editor, and Robert L. Johnson '36, associate editor.

Stanley W. Mason '36 was elected business manager at the same meeting. With him on the staff are Clyde R. Null '36, and Wade S. Plummer '36, both assistant business managers.

Will Lecture Tonight

DR. RAYMOND L. DITMARS
Dr. Ditmars, Curator Mammals and Reptiles at the New York Zoological Gardens, will speak in Schwab auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock on "Animals: Friends and Foes."

Concert To Feature American Composers

Kappa Gamma Psi, honorary music fraternity, will present a program of music of late and contemporary American composers in Schwab auditorium Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Major Wilfred O. Thompson, College bandmaster, will conduct the orchestra.

The program will open with "Cripple Creek" and "Love Refrain" by the orchestra. Marvin L. Eschelman '35 will then sing "A Spirit Flower," "Iris," and "Who Knows?" The orchestra will follow with "Indian Summer" and "Pale Moon."

M. Clair Swoope '37, pianist, will be accompanied by a string ensemble in presenting "A Reverie—Traumerei" and "Cradle Song." Henry K. Beard '36 will play as organ solos, "Meditation" and "Toccata on G Fili et Filiae." The orchestra will conclude with "Wedding of the Winds" and "Soldiers of the Air."

The officers of the fraternity are William B. Merrel '35, president; W. Henry Keire '35, vice-president; and Vernon E. Dyer '36, secretary-treasurer.

Early Excuses Banned

"Students will absolutely not be granted early leave excuses this vacation on the plea that they must see their family doctor, unless they present both a certificate from their doctor and their parents," Dr. Charles D. Ditterich, of the medical department, announced last Tuesday. "This racket of getting prolonged vacations through this department is going to stop," he added.

3 Students Arrested For Traffic Violations

Three students were arrested on Friday night for violations of the motor vehicle code. Richard J. Fisher '35, arrested by borough officials for failing to observe a stop sign, was fined five dollars and costs by Burgess Leitzell.

J. Markel Hall '35, and William J. Robinson '35, arrested by members of the state highway patrol for reckless driving, will have a hearing before Justice Frank P. Miller, April 19.

Alumni Will Entertain

The Penn State Alumni club of Lancaster County has made arrangements to entertain seniors from various county high schools at the Lancaster Y.W.C.A. on Monday night, April 22, at 8 o'clock. A program of slides and talks about the College, and special wrestling and boxing features is to be presented.
