State Nine To Meet Penn Away Saturday Afternoon

Between The Lions

We see by the papers that the boxing intercollegiate will be held in Recreation hall again next year. Penn State is being recognized as a sports center nowadays by everyone but the metropolitan papers. Incidentally, we are already making plans for next year as to just how we're going to catch inaccuracies on the second reprint of the front page of the boxing extra.

This freshman Redmond, track and field flash, is going places. In practice earlier this week, he high-jumped 6 feet 3 3/4 inches by actual measurement. The bar itself was at 6 feet 5. This jump would have been good enough to take a third at the Penn Relays last week. Moreover, the local field record was set back in 1913, at 6 feet 1 inch.

Corman, another freshman, is causing no little consternation among the weightmen of these parts. This week he threw the discus 135 feet, which would have given him an easy third in the Penn Relays. Under the tutelage of Chick Werner, he ought to develop into a mainstay of next year's track team.

Team Defeats Lebanon Valley; Drops To Bucknell Here.

By DICK LEWIS

The baseball team left State College at noon today to meet Pennsylvania at Franklin Field in Philadelphia Saturday afternoon.

In intercollegiate standing, Penn has dropped to the lowest rung of the ladder, after losing to Columbia by a 6-to-2 score Wednesday. The Red and Blue was also defeated by Dartmouth, 5-to-3. Coach Walter Cariss, of Penn will probably use Lefty Lees in the box against the Lions.

If Frankie Smith pitches, he will have to watch stocky Jim Hauze, of Penn, who has been hitting consistently this season. O'Donnell, Red and Blue centerfielder, is another man to keep an eye on. He hit a home run in the Columbia game with one man on the Columbia game with one man on base accounting for Penn's two runs.

The nine defeated Lebanon Valley 11-to-1 Tuesday, and lost to Bucknell by a 4-to-2 score Wednesday afternoon in two successive home games.

In the Lebanon Valley game, Mike Kornick, at bat for the first time this season, leaned into the wind and drove out a home run with Miller, Bielicki, and Robbins on the bases. In the following innings, he was walked twice. In the sixth inning, all nine men came up to bat, the first time this season that the Lions have batted around the frames. With a two-bagger by Pero Miller and two singles by Rugh and Bielicki, the batsmen collected six runs in that inning. Rugh allowed only three hits and one walk.

Frankie Smith managed to hold the Bucknell batters, in Wednesday's game, down to two hits until the seventh inning when Dobie, mountainous Bison right fielder, clouted a home run with two men on base, scoring three runs. The Nittany batsmen made a play for a comeback in the eighth inning when O'Hara took first on an error by Jenkins, Bucknell center fielder, and Frankie Smith brought him home by a double. Frankie managed to pass to home for the last score of the game. In the ninth, the Lions tried to rally but failed to score.

For both games, Kornick led the hitting list with one home run and three singles, and Slobodian came second with three singles.

Stickmen Ready For Penn Team Here Tomorrow

Injured Foot May Keep Capt. Weber From Playing Game.

By KEN BEAVER

Coach Nick Thiel has the lacrosse team going through its paces in preparation for the game with the University of Pennsylvania this coming Saturday. Concentrating on the offense, which he claims was the weak spot in the Maryland game, he's rapidly ironing out the bumpy spots and developing as strong a defense as his offense, with which he can find little fault.

Captain Weber has been out for the last two days with a bunched-up foot that has caused him to limp quite a lot, but he was playing, although for but a short time, Wednesday, when the varsity met the freshmen for a practice scrimmage. Coach Thiel is afraid there may be a bone broken in Weber's foot, but says that if, after an examination is made, this should prove wrong, he'll be playing Saturday.

The freshmen put up a real fight Wednesday, holding the varsity 2-to-2 for over twenty minutes. After that the varsity broke loose and the scrimmage ended with a ten-goal, or thereabouts, advantage for the big team. After this the team spent another half hour scrimmaging with the scrubs.

Several rather lively little rivalries have sprung up during the last week's practice that have added a touch of uncertainty to the final line-up for the Penn game. Hasek and Eddie Rumbaugh are fighting it out for second attack, both showing fine form, and alternating in the Maryland game with about the same amount of time to show for it. Houtz, a sophomore sub, has been showing up good on defense, and Nick guarantees that if he doesn't start, he'll at least see service, and plenty of it, most probably. Center has been weak and it is highly possible that Townley will start in place of Reed.

Coach Thiel thinks that the individual members of the team played well in the Maryland game, but that as a whole, the team didn't click. The Penn game coming up will be a tough one. Penn having victories over the Philadelphia Lacrosse Club, Lehigh, which team they beat by about the same score as the Lions, and Stevens who fell easily.

Golfers To Meet Pitt, Tech Teams

Lion Linksmen To Play Matches With Pittsburgh Clubbers Today, Tomorrow.

By BOB GRUBB

With a victory over Cornell—regarded as a formidable opponent—under their belts, the Lion golfers will hit their real stride this week-end when they swing into action against two Smoky City teams, University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Tech.

The six-man team, accompanied by Coach Bob Rutherford and Manager Bud Platt and assistants, left yesterday afternoon for Pittsburgh, where they will meet the Panther divot-diggers in a match at the St. Clair Country Club this afternoon. Tomorrow

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By TOWNE SWALM

With Easter vacation behind us (yeah, the nurses are swell at C. C. H.), trees and flowers budding, sunshine flooding the campus, and white shoes making their appearance on every hand, athletically minded students are once more turning their attention to the diamond, the cinder track and sawdust pits, and the fairways and greens. On every side books are being laid aside for bats, mashes, soccer boots, and spiked shoes. In other words, spring sports are in the air.

Spring sports manager Frederick Anthony '35 has selected his various sports managers and official activity, temporarily held up because of Junior Prom and Casa Loma, will begin on Monday.

Mushball

Because of complications which arose last year over various rules, complete sets of rules have been sent to all organizations entering teams in this year's competition. Rules must be strictly adhered to and as the following communication states, referees' decisions will be final.

Due to the short time left in which to run off the mushball tournament, certain rules concerning protests must be observed. Every hour will be notified at least 24 hours before a game. If a house wishes to postpone the game, the intramural mushball manager must be notified at least 12 hours before the scheduled time. If notified later the game will be forfeited. In order to avoid replaying of games, the referee's decision will be final, once both contesting houses agree on the referee. To insure absolute impartiality these rules will be strictly observed. Cooperation and good sportsmanship regarding these rules will be greatly appreciated.

(Intramural mushball manager, Beta Theta Pi, phone 127.)

Competition on five different diamonds will begin on Monday and a decided effort is being made to secure the most competent referees obtainable.

Track

Entrants lists for this sport, accompanied by a twenty-five cents per man fee, must be in Miss Keller's office in Recreation hall not later than May 17, according to Albert C. Herbert, manager. Entries are limited to three men in any one event. The track and field meet will be held on May 21, at 4 o'clock.

With only one event, the 220 high hurdles, dropped from last year's list, this year's track competition will include the 100, 220, and 440-yard dashes, 880 and mile runs, 220 low hurdles, and one mile relay. Field events will be shot put, discus, hammer, javelin, high jump, and pole vault.

Scoring will be on the basis of five points for first place, three for second, two for third, and one for fourth. This year the mile relay, which last year scored 15 points for the winner, will be scored 5, 3, 2, 1, the same as any other event in the meet.

morning at 10 o'clock, the Lion golfers will engage the Tech Tartans in a match at the Pittsburgh Field Club.

Hunter Sixth Man

Selection of Jim Hunter as the sixth man, Wednesday afternoon, completed the line-up. Co-captains Lloyd Beyer and Tommy Marshall, Don Masters and George Menard are paired off, while Mason Walsh will play as Hunter's mate. The team will remain the same for both matches, Rutherford said, stating that he does not like to "juggle" the team on such a trip.

While the Pitt team is the stronger of the two which the Lions will meet on this week-end trip, not much is known about either. A four-man Penn State team defeated Pitt here last year 5-to-1.

Nittany Netmen To Play Carnegie Here Tomorrow

'Dot' Anderson May See Action with Varsity Against Tech.

By PHIL HEISLER

"With the fine form the tennis team showed against Pitt, there is absolutely no reason for it not beating Carnegie Tech," Coach "Dink" Stover said after watching the work-out every afternoon this week. The Tartan netmen will meet the Lions here tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

"Dot" Anderson, State's net queen, who has been declared eligible for the varsity team, may see action in the coming meet. She did not play in the Pitt match according to her own wish, since she had started practicing several days later than the squad and consequently was not in shape. However, she is now in top form and ready for the stiffest competition.

Captain "Nels" Green and "Pip" Block will probably lead the attack, playing in number one and two positions, while Dick Campman and Jimmy Smith will have to fight it out for third and fourth man positions. The doubles teams are still undetermined.

New Material Expected

Coach Stover is conducting matches every practice with the idea that he may still uncover some hidden talent among the candidates. He said that there is a maximum of good material this year which gives plenty of competition for the positions and real reserve power.

The Lion team swamped Carnegie Tech last year with the score 8-to-1, losing its only game to the Tartan's star who is out of the line-up this season. Using comparative scores as a basis of judgment, State should have little trouble with Tech since Pitt defeated them easily.

Freshmen Will Meet Cornell Track Squad

By JOHN BRENNEMAN

Weakened by the loss of three of their men through ineligibility, a freshman track squad of about twenty men left early this morning for its first meet of the season with Cornell tomorrow.

Although earlier in the season he had held rather high hopes that the freshmen might take over the Red team, Coach Werner now feels that State's weakness in the distance events will be too great a handicap to overcome. Pete Olexy and Fitzgerald, whom he had counted upon to win places in the half-mile, mile, and 2-mile events, are now lost to the team for the season because of low marks. Ludwig, another distance man, is also ineligible.

In the other events the prospects are a little brighter. Jim Redmond, after breaking a 22-year record here for the high jump, should take that event. He should also win or score points in the broad jump, both hurdles, and the dashes, if Werner decides to use him in all of these events.

Corman, Bauer, and Koon are counted on in the weights, and Rothermel, Parks, and Mills should win or take places in the dash events. "Duke" Wear may score in the mile or the half.

The Cornell freshmen are an unknown quantity. At the Penn Relays last week their freshman mile relay team finished in sixth place, but this may indicate only a lack of quarter-mileers.

Right now the State freshmen seem to need a good, scholastic tutor more than anything else.

Freshman Team Takes First Trip

By LES BENJAMIN

"First we'll take Villanova, then we'll trounce West Chester," was the sentiment of Coach Leo Houck, freshman baseball mentor, and nineteen of his yearlings, as they boarded the bus at 12:45 o'clock yesterday, which was taken them first to Villanova and then to meet the West Chester freshman nine Saturday morning.

After the game today, the team will remain at Villanova overnight, and will meet West Chester on their field Saturday morning. They will then witness the varsity game with Penn at Franklin Field on Saturday afternoon, returning Saturday night.

In their first away trip of the season, the men are determined to continue the showing exhibited against Kiski Prep here last Saturday. But a more experienced nine will face Villanova this afternoon, even though only three work-outs have been held. The entire first string fielding looked quite professional in their work-out Wednesday night. Ben Lappen,

Team Heads Will Meet To Nominate Officers

Coaches, managers, and captains of athletic teams will meet in Room 417, Old Main, at 7:30 o'clock for nominations of Athletic association president and secretary, according to John M. Stocker '35, president of the association. Elections for officers will take place on Monday, May 13.

Sol Michoff, Bernie Klipstein, and "Mel" Vonarx showed plenty of power behind the bat, while pitcher Eshbach seems to have found his "lost control" in a miraculously short time. Those players who made the trip are: catchers: Klipstein, Jageman; pitchers: Eshbach, Simicelli, Ford, Schmidt, and Boho; first base: Vonarx, Katz, and Lenz; second base: Steckel, Keller; third base: Fisher, Peterson; shortstop: Wear; left field: Michoff; center field: Marsica and Korchin; and right field: Lappen.

Twelve of the 18 students initiated into Phi Beta Kappa at Northwestern University this year were co-eds.
