

COMPLETE CAMPUS COVERAGE

Henn State

Collegian

ESTABLISHED 1904

Volume 31—Number 58

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1935

PRICE FIVE CENTS

A. A. To Conduct Election For President, Secretary in Old Main Lobby Monday

Students Will Ballot On Swimming Question Amendment.

Nominate 5 Candidates For Association Head

Elections for president and secretary of the Athletic Association will be held in Old Main lobby Monday morning from 8 to 12:10 o'clock and afternoon from 12:45 to 5 o'clock.

Five candidates for president and four for secretary were nominated by a committee of coaches, captains, and managers of athletic teams Tuesday night. Nominees for president are: Joseph W. Bielicki '36, Arthur G. Fry '36, Frank O'Hara '36, Bernard A. Riley '36, and James L. Smith '36. Nominees for secretary are: Raymond O. Bell '36, Francis W. McAndrews '36, Penrose R. Miller '36, and Richard A. Stewart '36.

Majority Vote Necessary

Students must present their second semester athletic books in order to vote. The elections will be supervised by the same committee which had charge of class elections. The candidate must receive a majority of votes cast in order to be elected. If there is no majority, the two highest will be voted upon later in the week.

One amendment has been recommended by the committee and will appear on the ballot, namely: Are you in favor of adding swimming here as an intercollegiate sport, provided that funds are available?

The following recommendations which were passed by committee Tuesday night will appear on the ballot:

- (1) If swimming becomes an intercollegiate sport here, it is recommended that the letter be minor.
(2) It is recommended that fencing shall remain a minor sport.
(3) It is recommended that numerical awards be made to second assistant managers in baseball, boxing, and wrestling.

Child Actors To Give First Show May 25

Under the sponsorship of the division of dramatics and the Penn State Players, forty State College school children, who are being coached by graduate students in dramatics, will present two performances of Elizabeth Hanchett Bruce's fantasy, "Little Boy Blue," in Schwab auditorium, Saturday, May 25, with a matinee at 3 o'clock, and evening performance at 8 o'clock.

Two puppet shows, "My Man Friday," and "Ali Baba," will be presented by students of the marionette class, in conjunction with the "Little Boy Blue" performance. "My Man Friday" was written and produced by the famous Yale puppeteers, and is a smart, sophisticated satire on "Robinson Crusoe."

Under the general supervision of Arthur C. Cloetting, director of the division of dramatics, graduate students in dramatics Nellie B. Cravat, Gretchen Macquardt, and Clayton R. Pace are directing the acting. Mari S. Yanofsky '35 is coaching the dances. Geraldine E. Broberg '35 the music, and Ann B. Fagan '35 will be accompanist. Sets and costumes were designed by Amelia Brooks '37.

Welsh '36 Named Head Of Si Tien, Travel Club

Conwell Welsh '36 was elected president of the Si Tien club, recently organized for the purpose of discussing foreign travelling experiences, at the last meeting of the organization. Adam W. Dutcher '38 was named vice president, and Virginia M. Stevens '37 was elected secretary-treasurer.

Diesel Expert Speaks

Walter F. Barnard, representing a manufacturer of agricultural implements, spoke on the subject of the automotive type of Diesel engines before the student branch of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers Tuesday. This is the first showing of the automotive type of Diesel engines here.

$2 Deposit Necessary For Cap, Gown Orders

Orders for caps and gowns will be taken at the Athletic store today from 4 to 8 o'clock, tomorrow from 11 to 1 o'clock, and Monday from 4 to 8 o'clock.

A deposit of two dollars must be made with each order, and three dollars must be deposited on receipt of caps and gowns. Orders should be given immediately so that they may be filled as soon as possible, according to J. Markel Hall '35 and George L. Donovan '35, co-chairmen of the committee.

Pottsville To See Thespian Musical

'Don't Let On' Cast Will Travel To Coal Regions Tuesday For 2 Performances.

Taking the road for the second time this season, the Thespians will present their hit musical show, "Don't Let On," at Pottsville, Tuesday afternoon and night. Ninety-six persons comprise the cast and technical staff which will make the trip.

The scenery and the technical staff of the production will leave here on Monday night, while the cast will leave at 7:45 o'clock Tuesday morning. Two buses are used to transport the technical staff and cast and a large van is used to carry the scenery. The return trip will be made Wednesday morning.

To Give Two Performances

Two performances will be given, one for high school students in the afternoon, and the regular evening performance at 8:15 o'clock. Both performances will be given in the Pottsville high school auditorium. The advance ticket sale indicates full houses for both performances, according to Herbert R. Kinley, graduate manager of the Thespians.

The show, which has been revised since first presented here Interfraternity Ball week-end, played to an enthusiastic audience in Phillipsburg on its first road trip and was presented for the second time on the campus last week-end.

Written by John S. Naylor, of the department of English composition, and directed by J. Ewing "Sock" Kennedy '26, the show stars Norman Holland '37 and Margaret R. Giffen '37 and the three White Flash Stooges. Also featured are William B. "Bill" Edwards '35 and Helen E. "Hotcha" Taylor '35 in a new Spanish dance routine.

The music for the production was arranged by James Warren, orchestrator for "Ozzie" Nelson, and is under the direction of Prof. Hummel Fishburn, of the department of music. Many of the musical numbers were written by T. Robert Bassett, of the department of English composition, the lyrics for all his numbers being written by John S. Naylor, author of the production.

P. S. C. A. Re-elects 4 of Directing Board

Four faculty members were re-elected to the P.S.C.A. board of directors at a recent meeting. One additional member of the faculty was added to the board.

Dean Ralph L. Watts, of the School of Agriculture, Prof. John H. Ferguson, of the department of history and political science, Prof. Mary J. Wyland, of the department of education and psychology, and Amos E. Neyhart, of the department of industrial engineering, were all re-elected for a term of one year. Prof. S. K. Stevens, of the department of history and political science, was the new board director elected.

Members of the board of directors and the P.S.C.A. cabinet will hold a joint meeting at the C. A. cabin in Shingletown Gap Wednesday night. Important board matters will be brought up for consideration at that time.

Counsellors To Elect

Election of officers for 1935-36 will take place at the May meeting of the Fraternity Counsellors' association to be held at the Sigma Nu fraternity, Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, according to an announcement by Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the department of agricultural education, president of the organization.

Grier Gets Honor As Valedictorian Of Senior Class

Lucy J. Erdman Named Salutatorian; Honor Men Announced.

Student Leadership Considered in Award

Harry D. M. Grier was chosen valedictorian and Lucy J. Erdman was named salutatorian of the senior class Wednesday night by a committee composed of John H. Frizzell, of the department of public speaking, John H. Brutzman, and Richard Sigel.

Senior honor men were also announced. John H. Brutzman will be Spoon Man, A. Kenneth Maier will be Barrel Man, and Alan R. Warehime will be Cane Man. Burton Rowles Jr. was elected Pipe Orator.

The awards this year were made not solely on the basis of scholarship, but also on extra-curricular activities participated in by the candidates. Members of the committee were asked to make their choice on the basis of contributions made to the undergraduate life here.

Grier was a member of the Student Union Board, president of the Purple Quill, treasurer and advertising manager of the Thespians, a member of the Blue Key, campus activities society, assistant manager of the cross country team, and on the staff of the Old Main Bell.

Among the honorary societies to which he belonged are Tau Beta Pi, engineering honor, Phi Eta Sigma, Phi Kappa Phi, Scab, architectural fraternity, president of Honors' Society Council, and Honor Society Council Medal.

Miss Erdman was president of the W.S.G.A. during the past year, member of the Student Union Board, president of Owens, president of Women's Senate, and a member of the Louise Homer club.

She is also a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic fraternity, and Arcus, senior women's honorary. Miss Erdman is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Both Grier and Miss Erdman will speak at the annual Class Day exercises to be held in Schwab auditorium Monday, June 10.

Gillespie Will Lecture On Research Tonight

Prof. James E. Gillespie, of the department of history, has been selected by the College Senate to deliver the annual Faculty Research Lecture in the Home Economics auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock. His topic will be "The Discovery of America as an Intellectual Factor."

The Faculty Research Lecture forms a part of the official Scholarship Day exercises of the College, although it is given on Friday night. The lecture was inaugurated last year when the senate decided to select an outstanding investigator from the College faculty to give a public address in his special field.

Prof. Gillespie has been a member of the faculty for thirteen years. During this time he has written a number of books on history, covering discovery, European history, and the English expansion influence. He was chosen to deliver the lecture because of his researches in these fields, which has gained wide recognition.

The committee of selection this year consisted of Dr. Nelson W. Taylor, of the department of ceramics; Prof. R. Adams Dutcher, of the School of Agriculture; Prof. Merritt M. Harris, of the department of English composition; Dr. Elwood C. Davis, of the School of Physical Education; Dr. Wayland F. Dunaway, of the department of history; Dr. William R. Ham, of the department of physics; and Dr. Charles C. Peters, of the department of education and psychology.

STUDENT UNION BULLETIN

TODAY All sophomores interested in becoming candidates for the business staff of the "Handbook" report at the P. S. C. A. office at 4 o'clock. A general practice for the May Day exercises will be held on the front campus at 2 o'clock. All participants are required to attend.

TOMORROW Miss Anne Wertsner, of the Pennsylvania School of Horticulture, will give an illustrated lecture on "Rock, Wall and Moraine Gardens" in Room 100, Horticulture building, at 6:45 o'clock. The Floral Club, which is sponsoring the lecture, invites every one to attend.

SUNDAY Freshmen candidates for the Business Staff of the Penn State Collegian will meet in Room 312, Old Main at 7 o'clock. MONDAY Alpha Tau Alpha will meet in Room 318, Old Main, at 7 o'clock. TUESDAY Sophomore men desiring to become editorial candidates for next year's Freshman Handbook staff should meet in Room 304, Old Main, at 4 o'clock. Sale of programs, invitations, and announcements for commencement will positively end tonight at 8 o'clock. All who have not yet bought theirs should get them today at the Student Union office.

2 Classes Suspended For Scholarship Day

In accordance with the usual pre-Mother's Day custom, students will be excused from Saturday morning classes between 10 o'clock and noon, Adrian O. Morse, executive secretary to the President, announced yesterday.

This action is being taken in order that students may attend the Scholarship Day exercises in Schwab auditorium. It will also give them an opportunity to meet with parents or friends who are coming to attend program and the other events of the day.

Woodruff Given Research Medal

Phi Eta Sigma To Give Awards At Scholarship Exercises; Bracken Wins Prize.

Dr. Eugene C. Woodruff, of the electrical engineering department, will be announced as the winner of the Phi Eta Sigma research medal at the annual Scholarship Day exercises tomorrow morning, Charles P. Case '37, president of the organization, announced. At the same time Frank L. Bracken will be awarded the Phi Eta Sigma Senior Medal for outstanding attainment.

The committee on the research award is headed by Dr. Stevenson W. Fletcher, director of research of the School of Agriculture, and a former medal winner. It is made up of one representative from each school. Other members include: Hugo Bezek, Physical Education; Dr. Carol D. Champlin, Education; Dr. Wayland F. Dunaway, Liberal Arts; Dr. Arthur P. Honess, Mineral Industries; Dean Frank D. Kern, Graduate; Prof. Oscar F. Smith, Chemistry and Physics; and Prof. Elton D. Walker, Engineering.

Has Worked in Radio

Dr. Woodruff's work has been in the fields of electrical transportation, automobile, and radio. He is the inventor of a system of remote control for electric trains and has several notable inventions in the automobile field. In later years he has devoted his time to a study of radio communication. At present he is working on short wave phenomena and has a well-equipped laboratory at his own home for the study of the reception and transmission of radio waves.

After receiving his B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Michigan between 1894 and 1900, Dr. Woodruff taught in high school, Montana College, and Millikan University until 1913, when he came here. He has taught in the electrical engineering department since that time.

He is a director of the American Radio Relay League, and a member of several professional associations and societies. He has also made numerous contributions to scientific journals. In addition to his scientific work, Dr. Woodruff is interested in psychology and philosophy. He is also an accomplished pianist and pipe organist.

Packard '36 Elected Sigma Delta Chi Head

Vance O. Packard '36 was elected president of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism honorary, for the coming year at a meeting of that organization Monday night. He will replace William Y. E. Rambo '35, head of the fraternity during the past year.

Other officers who were elected are: Charles M. Schwartz Jr. '36, vice president; Walter B. Frounsh '36, treasurer; and William P. McDowell '36, secretary.

This year, Sigma Delta Chi sponsored the annual Gridiron Banquet and the High School Reporter's contest. It will conclude its program for this year on May 27, 28, when its members act as guides at the Pennsylvania Press Conference on this campus during those days.

1,000 Parents, Friends Expected To Attend Mothers', Scholarship Day Exercises Saturday, Sunday

Dr. Pattee To Address Scholarship Day Assemblage.

Program To Open With Academic Procession

Dr. Fred Lewis Pattee, professor emeritus of English literature here and professor of American literature at Rollins College, Winter Haven, Fla., will speak on "The American Scholar" at the seventeenth annual Scholarship Day Exercises in Schwab auditorium tomorrow morning.

President Ralph D. Hetzel will preside at the exercises which will open with an academic procession. This will form in the first floor lounge of Old Main at 10 o'clock. The program will start at 10:15.

Noted as Author Dr. Pattee came here about forty years ago and was connected with the faculty until a few years ago when he accepted his present position at Rollins. He is the author of several textbooks on American literature and is about to publish two new works, "Mark Twain," a collection of his best stories, and a "History of American Literature from 1776 to 1865." He has also written several novels, "The House of the Black Ring," a mystery story, being the best known.

The presidents of all honor societies will sit on the platform with the members of the faculty this year. The President will personally make awards of the highest scholastic honors and there will be no other presentations. The program will contain the names of those receiving honors, together with a brief explanation of the basis of the award.

Special Award Listed

Among these special awards are the Alan Nutt memorial scholarship to John W. King '36; the Arthur C. Bigelow memorial scholarship to Elton B. Tait '37; the Daughter of the Revolution scholarship to Henrietta B. Nichols '38; the Detwiler Memorial scholarship to Jack N. Zimmerman '36; and the McAllister scholarships to John C. Hoffman '38, David S. Nace '38, Donald F. Seales '38, Oliver W. Squier '38, and Annis L. Underwood '38.

Winners of minor awards include the State Federation of Pennsylvania scholarships by Eleanor C. MacLean '35 and Jean R. Berman '36; the John W. White Spanish scholarships by Jorge P. Valledjuli '35, Arthur G. Lewis '36, and James P. Olive '37, and the Women's Student Government association scholarship by Jean C. Zeigler '37.

The Alpha Rho Chi medal will go to Harry D. M. Grier '35, the Alpha Zeta cup to Alex W. Kirnak '36, and the American Institute of Architects prize will be awarded to Marion D. Ross '35 and John Dallas Jr. '35. Robert H. Van Horn '37 will be the winner of the Eta Kappa Nu sophomore prize, the Sigma Tau prize, and the Tau Beta Pi award.

The Maude Elizabeth Foster economics and sociology prize will go to Katherine B. Humphrey '35, the Omicron Nu prize to Marian W. Barbey '37, the Penn State Engineer scholarship cup and the Pi Tau Sigma prize, both to William P. Davenport '37, the Phi Lambda Upsilon cup to Herman Skolnik '37, and the Sigma Lambda Epsilon to Harold A. DeVincentis '37.

The extemporaneous speaking contest awards will go to Joseph A. Pattee '36, Willard A. Der '35, and Vaughn R. Jackson '35. John A. Brutzman '35 and Marcia B. Daniel '35 will receive the Sigma Delta Chi certificates.

The Russell L. Klopff award will be given to James W. Shearer '35, the Delaware County Junior Award to Elsie M. Douthett '35, the Irene Kaufman scholarship to Robert R. Sigel, and the L. V. T. Simmons award to John C. Kreeger '35.

Prof. Long Publishes New English Grammar

Prof. Mason R. Long, of the department of English literature, is the author of a new book, "The New College Grammar," published by the Ronald Press company of New York City. The book of over 600 pages attempts to correlate the practices of good English usage with the grammatical principles underlying them.

Previous books by Professor Long include "A Handbook of English Grammar," "A College Grammar," and "Poetry and Its Forms." A group of essays which Professor Long has been writing at intervals over a period of six years are also to come from the press of a New York publisher soon.

Week-end Program

TOMORROW 10:00 Scholarship Day Exercises, Auditorium; Dr. Fred Lewis Pattee, speaker. 12:30 Freshman baseball: Dickinson Seminary. 2:00 Tennis: Bucknell. 2:00 Golf: Lafayette. 2:00 Track: Pittsburgh. 2:00 Freshman Track: Pittsburgh. 2:00 Tea for Mothers, Second Floor Lounge, Old Main. 3:30 Baseball: Western Maryland. 4:30 May Day, Front campus. 8:00 Minstrel Show by College Glee Club, Auditorium. SUNDAY 11:00 Chapel, Dr. Frank Kingdon, speaker; Special music by College choir. 3:00 Blue Band Concert, Front campus.

Players Choose Final Production

Spring Houseparty, June 8, Set As Tentative Date for 'Enter Madame.'

Gilda Varesi's play, "Enter Madame," has been chosen by the Penn State Players for their last presentation of the dramatic season and will be presented for Spring house-party, Saturday, June 8, has been set as a tentative date.

The production will be directed by Prof. David D. Mason, of the department of romance languages. The cast has not yet been announced, but, in accordance with custom, seniors will figure in the prominent roles.

Alexander Woolcott has said of the play, "It concerns a world famous prima donna, a spoiled, petted, whimsical, stormy lady, whose tenderness and tantrums make up what's most easily described as a temperamentally comedy."

The playwright, Gilda Varesi, is the granddaughter of Felice Varesi, the Italian opera star, for whom the baritone part of the Quartet from "Rigoletto" was created. It was in "Enter Madame," that Brock Pemberton made his Broadway debut as a director and producer.

Kingdon Will Address Mothers' Day Chapel

Dr. Frank Kingdon, president of Dana College, Newark, N. J., will speak on "Creative Familiarities" at the Mothers' Day chapel services in Schwab auditorium Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

After studying at the University College School in London, Dr. Kingdon matriculated at London University. He came to this country in 1912 and since that time has done graduate work at Harvard and Michigan State College.

Dr. Kingdon has received degrees from Boston University, Albion College, and Ohio Northern. He has served churches in Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and Michigan.

On October 1 of last year, Dr. Kingdon assumed the presidency of Dana College. He is also trustee of Drew University and Centenary Collegiate Institute.

Sunday's speaker has written extensively on theological subjects. His published works include: "The Religious Implications of Modern Science," "Humane Religion," and "When Half-Gods Go."

Dr. Hartmann Writes Volume on Psychology

"Gestalt Psychology: A Survey of Facts and Principles," written by Dr. George W. Hartmann, of the department of education and psychology, and published by the Ronald Press, will soon make its appearance.

It was written by Dr. Hartmann after several years' study of Gestalt psychology, including a year with Koehler at the University of Berlin. This book has been tried out in manuscript form for two years in graduate classes here.

Seamans Gives Speech

Harry W. Seamans, executive secretary of the P.S.C.A., addressed representatives at the Cabinet Training Conference at Lock Haven Wednesday. Nine students and two faculty members accompanied Mr. Seamans.

Full Program Planned For Guests Over Week-end Here.

6 Athletic Events Set Tomorrow Afternoon

With about 500 mothers expected, more than a thousand visiting parents and friends of the College will be here over the week-end to attend the annual Mothers' Day and Scholarship Day programs held tomorrow and Sunday. A varied program has been planned by the committee in charge, headed by Prof. Edward L. Keller, secretary-treasurer of the Association of Parents of Penn State.

The program will open with a May Day breakfast on Holmes field at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. The Owens, women's activities honorary, will be in charge. At 10:15 o'clock the annual Scholarship Day exercises will be held in Schwab auditorium. Dr. Fred Lewis Pattee will be the principal speaker.

Tea in Afternoon

Six athletic events are scheduled for the afternoon. Freshman baseball, varsity and freshman track, varsity tennis, varsity golf, and varsity baseball will run from 12:30 o'clock until late in the afternoon.

A tea for Mothers of both men and women students will be held by the women students in the second floor lounge of Old Main from 2 until 4:30 o'clock. Representing the students in the receiving line will be E. Doris Brubaker '35 and Mary E. Freeman '35. Assisting them will be Mrs. Ralph D. Hetzel, Miss Edith P. Chase, Mrs. Arthur R. Warnock, and Miss Charlotte E. Ray.

Mothers Will Pour

Thirteen Mothers will assist in pouring tea: Mrs. John-B. R. Dickey, Mrs. Frank N. Fagan, Mrs. Richard W. Grant, Mrs. Fred G. Heckler, Mrs. J. F. Horning, Mrs. Charles L. Kinsloe, Mrs. Carl E. Marquardt, and Mrs. Robert E. Minshall, all of State College, will be among these.

Mothers from out of town who will help include Mrs. Henry D. Brown, Mrs. John Dallas, Mrs. Albert C. Hirsch, and Mrs. Henry Saxer.

Following the tea, the annual May Day exercises will be held on the front campus at 4:30 o'clock. Margaret R. McIntyre '35 will be crowned May Queen at the ceremony which will open with the procession from Old Main by all the participants. A hemlock chain, formed by fifty senior women, and a May Pole dance by members of the sophomore and freshman classes will be other features of this program.

Minstrel in Evening

In addition, the May Pole dancers, under the direction of Amy M. Fischer, instructor in physical education, will perform two English folk dances. Kappa Gamma Psi, musical honorary, will furnish the music for the procession and the dances. E. Virginia Wevill '36 and Amy M. Fischer are co-chairmen of the affair.

A minstrel show, starring the team of Taylor and Edwards, "Sock" Kennedy, Kenny Sauer, and John O. Linton, and featuring the Men's Glee Club and "Mike" Zeleznock, will be given in Schwab auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Frank Kingdon, president of Dana College, Newark, N. J., will give a special Mothers' Day address on "Creative Familiarities" at the regular chapel services in Schwab auditorium Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The choir will present special music for the occasion.

Blue Band Concert

The Blue Band, under the direction of Major Wilfred O. Thompson, bandmaster, will present a concert in Schwab auditorium at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

An original composition by Bandmaster Thompson, the march, "President Sparks," will open the program. The march is dedicated to a former president of the College. The band will then play Godard's "Berceuse" from "Jocelyn."

Other numbers on the program include: "Memories of Stephen Foster," a medley of compositions of the famous American composer arranged by Gallett; selection, "The Vagabond King," by Rudolf Friml, and Meacham's "American Patrol." The grand march, "Democracy," by Lake, will conclude the program.

Chairman heads of the various student committees in charge of arrangements are: Olive A. Dewalt '35, properties; Geraldine E. Broberg '35, and Anne B. Fagan '35, music; N. Eleanor Baisor '35 and Doris B. Hartle '35, serving; Irene R. Goble '35, ushering; Alice T. Allebach '35, flowers; and L. Marybel Conabee '36, publicity.