

Lion Cubs To Face Mercersburg Away in Opener Tomorrow

Denise To Lead Yearlings In Attack on Highly-Rated Prep School Grid Combine

Mercersburg, With Strong Line and Speedy Backfield, Will Prove Worthy Opponent.

With a backfield reputedly speedier and a line as heavy and aggressive as last year's forward wall, the Lion Cubs will open their 1935 gridiron campaign with the Mercersburg Academy eleven at Mercersburg tomorrow afternoon.

Confident that his freshman combine will prove a worthy opponent of the powerful Mercersburg machine, Coach Nels Walke, well pleased with the showing his charges made against the varsity last Saturday, will leave here with a squad of twenty-nine at seven o'clock tomorrow morning. The game is called for 1:30.

Mercersburg, defeated by the Cub eleven alone in last season's campaign, already has one victory to its credit, having soundly trounced a strong Dickinson Jayvee team, 20 to 6, last Saturday. The opponents have a strong line and a speedy backfield, according to all reports, and one man the Lion freshmen will have to watch is Ewing, fullback captain of the Academy team. He scored two of the three touchdowns against Dickinson last week.

Leading the Cubs in their attack on Mercersburg will be Bill Denise, former Germantown Academy star and protégé of Cooper French, and one of the speediest ball carriers seen on Beaver Field in several seasons. Denise at quarterback should prove a heavy factor in leading his teammates to victory over the Academy eleven.

Lang, Gregory at End
At ends, Walke will use Alf Lang and Tom Gregory. "Truck" Hanley and Joe Peel will be at tackle positions, while "Punchy" Sabatino and "Mush" Parker will hold down guard positions. At center will be "Toar" Toretti. Halfback selections will be

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By DICK LEWIS
This by way of introducing ourselves as the torchbearer of this tradition, which has been willed to us through lack of any other volunteer. In keeping with precedent, we definitely will not include our analysis of the World Series, but restrict our comments to local talent, after the manner of our illustrious predecessors.

Our one and only policy as regards this column is brief. We will come out in the open and face the mob and not unwittingly identify ourselves, for the sake of inglorious anonymity, as some variety of maniac. We dedicate this space to men without uniforms who also play the game.

As the autumn breezes blow the smoke of burning leaves through the broken window of our office prospective putters, inspired by the hope of qualifying for one point toward the cup, wander over the diggings, in preparation for the forthcoming putting tournament. Sunday afternoon saw grass-stained scrummers trampling the turf and bushes as touch football got under way on a dozen different lawns.

Some of the boys are even filing the rust off last year's track shoes, although that's the only indication we have seen so far of building up a wind resistance for cross-country competition. No need to warn prospective harriers that the going will be tough, and that ample practice adds a little more zest in appreciating autumn colors while jogging over the hills.

One consoling thought which we urge entries, at two bits a head, to adopt—no entry ever finishes last. We harried ourselves over hill and dale in the distant past, and even we didn't finish last—we never finished. So we can sympathize with each sobbing gasp.

Out of the tall grass comes the clink of horseshoe pitching as prospective entries slide the iron on and excite the pin, in such a fashion as to excite the admiration of the Alpha firehouse light brigade, reputed masters of the sport.

We venture one prediction. It will be lots of fun for all, except us. We can safely say... we can't lose. Tonight, the managers will gather up in Room 201, Recreation hall, at 7:30 o'clock to thrash out the final plans and exercise the prerogative of all managers: the privilege of changing the rules.

Other letter winners are Walt Storrs, Bill Gookin, Ed Bowen, and Carl Brodhan.
Dick Lewis, Spence Potter, and Manbeck are numeral winners who are counted upon to help the team repeat its undefeated record of last year.

Coach Walke emphasized that previous experience was unnecessary for those who wished to try out for the team. A freshman round-robin will be started early this month.

Ullery Heads Physical Activity at Rockview

William "Bill" Ullery '20 has returned as physical director for Rockview Penitentiary. Bill is still remembered for his remarkable feats on the gridiron and diamond. Michael A. Zeleznock '35, last year's boxing captain, is his assistant.

Compiling an imposing array of activities and honors, Bill is one of the biggest men to ever graduate from Penn State. Besides being an outstanding halfback, captain of the baseball team, and a track star, Ullery was a Lion's Paw, Parmo Nous, Friar, Phulax, and a member of Student Tribunal.

His college career was split by service in the United States Navy as a lieutenant. After graduating, he played professional football and big league baseball with the St. Louis Browns. He followed this by coaching football for seven years at Susquehanna.

Perfect Season Prediction Made For Soccer Club

Varsity Will Play 2nd Team In Practice Tilt Tomorrow.

By TOWNSEND SWALM

On the strength of our own observations, strongly bolstered by Bill Jeffrey's emphatic optimism in regards to the prospects for his 1935 soccer club we feel impelled at this time to predict another undefeated season for the Nittany Booters.

Incidentally should our physis bid prove true this will mark the third season in a row that the soccermen will have repulsed all comers and will only add more evidence to support our contention that the soccer team is Penn State's best and most outstanding athletic organization at the present time.

Looking back on past performances of Lion soccer teams it is seen that since 1919 they have gone through twelve undefeated seasons, including a run of six years from 1919 to 1924, and a four year clean slate from 1928 to 1931 inclusive. In '32 the Booters suffered a disastrous northern trip when they lost to both Springfield and Harvard, and later during that year they suffered the only game ever lost by a Penn State soccer club on Beaver field when they were defeated by a lone Syracuse goal.

Springfield is Toughest

Recouping their losses in 1933 the Booters were undefeated and untied and last year though undefeated were forced to an even split by a strong Springfield aggregation. Springfield, incidentally, is the team which can generally be depended on to put up the strongest opposition for the local boys and it is significant to note in passing that they opened their season the other day by defeating a tough East Stroudsburg State Teachers College by two goals to one.

Anyone interested in getting a preview of the 1935 soccer machine will have an opportunity to do so by repairing to the soccer field beside the golf course at about 1:30 tomorrow when the varsity is scheduled to play a reserve team which will be considerably strengthened not only by certain outstanding freshmen but also by the presence of Bill Jeffrey himself occupying the key center forward position.

Playing in tomorrow's tilt for the varsity will be Bell at goal; Binns and Barns at the fullback spots; Long, Bielicki, and Sulliff as halves; and on the forward wall, Wacker, Osterlund, Corbett, Michoff, and Welsh. For the junior varsity: Palmer at goal; Borda, Hosterman, and Eddie Binns will all see action at the fullback positions; Weddel, Forbes, Megrail, and Merwin will alternate at half; and Hassler, Spyer, Underwood, Taylor, Rankin, Corman and Coach Jeffrey will all see action in forward positions.

Mussolini is hardly an exponent of "Do unto others as you would have them do to you."

Powell, Bennett, Buck Win First Round Golf Tilt

Last 3 Places in Second Sixteen Decided By Withdrawal.

Results of three first-round matches in the all-College golf tournament were announced today by C. K. Lucas, Brightman '36, tourney manager.

Powell defeated Offut, 1 up; Buck defeated Wetterau, 2 and 1, and Bennett defeated Gottlieb, 4 and 3. All first round matches must be played before Monday, according to the tourney manager.

Waters, Cleveland and Gordon take the last three positions in the second flight of sixteen following the withdrawal of Clem. The four were tied for the last three positions in the qualifying round.

Players who have qualified should locate their opponents and play off their matches. Opponents are listed on the bulletin board at the caddy house. Addresses and telephone numbers of players may be secured at the office of the Registrar.
