Nittany Lion Gridmen To Meet Lehigh Here

zetti, Berg, Wolcott, and Pennauchi will form the backfield.

SOCCER

With the return of last year's high scorer, Bill McEwan, to the line-up the soccer team will be in splendid form when they meet the Temple Owls on Beaver field, tomorrow at 1 o'clock. McEwan, who last year bettered all previous high scoring records here by 100 per cent, will occupy the outside right position tomorrow, and Carl Wacker, who played that spot last Saturday will be shifted to the centre forward post, taking George Corbett's place.

After last week's slow start against Gettysburg, the Nittany booters should look much better tomorrow, what with McEwan in the line-up and the fact that in two starts this season, the Temple boys have only managed to break even, beating Franklin and Marshall, 4-0, in their first game and dropping to the East Stroudsburg Teachers last week by a lone goal. However, the Owl aggregation should not be underrated as it is developing that the Stroudsburg Teachers have one of the strongest teams in the East.

CROSS-COUNTRY

A seven-man cross-country squad, under Coach Charles "Chick" Werner, left this morning for New Haven where they will meet the Yale harriers tomorrow.

Headed by Captain Duverney Book, the squad includes Pete Olexy, Bill Trimble, Howard Downey, Bill Surmanis, Don Daugherty, and Charlie Clark. Yale has a formidable team and the three sophomores on the Lion team will have to come through if State is to win.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

With two full weeks of practice since their opening game, the Lion Cubs are all set to meet the Scranton-Keystone Junior College gridmen at Scranton tomorrow. Coach Nels Walke will take a squad of twenty-eight freshmen on the trip.

The interval between the first and second game has given Coach Nels Walke ample time to get the yearlings in shape for what promises to be a hard-fought contest. Bill Denise, cub quarterback, who was injured in the Mercersburg game, will be back at the signal-calling post for tomorrow's game.

FRESHMAN CROSS-COUNTRY

Facing Cornell tomorrow, the freshman harriers will hold their first meet of the season over the local 3-mile course. Although the entire freshman squad will run, Coach Werner will name ten whose places only will be scored.

BETWEEN THE LIONS

trail if players drop out of school every day because they can't find work that will permit them to study and play football as well? You know the answer to that.

Every other school on our schedule does better by their athletes than does Penn State. If we are to play these teams every year and plan on winning a reasonable percentage of games—well, it just can't be done by an athletic policy that keeps Coach Higgins from getting football men here. Incidentally, our hat is off to a man that takes the rap every year like Bob does with as little complaining. It's SO easy to blame it on the coach.

College authorities have their choice, as we see it: either the college provides a three meal a day training table for football season, or our athletic prestige goes smash for lack of material. That's a pity, especially when Penn State's football fortunes are looking up for the first time in years.

One at a Time, Please!

One hears nothing these days from the team but "on to Pitt" and "Wait till we hit those Panthers." All very fine. A commendable attitude. We wouldn't give two cents for a bunch of defeatists. But—does it occur to our very fine varsity fellows that the team they are playing tomorrow is not Pitt but Lehigh, and that this same Lehigh team must be vanquished in order that Pitt may be faced with any degree of assurance? More games have been lost simply because they are regarded as soft spots than we care to be reminded of; don't take this game so lightly, boys, or an improved Lehigh team will pin your ears back, all twenty-two of them. We should beat Lehigh—and will, if the varsity can get their minds off the Pitt game.

You'll note with interest some of the line-up changes. We have a good idea that some of the shifts have been caused by apparent indifference and the opinion that one's position has been cinched by last year's work. Tony Silvano is a fine player, for instance, but his injury isn't the only thing keeping him on the bench at the whistle tomorrow.
