New Tea Room Opens
For Monday Service

The Sunset Tea Room, which is to be operated solely by the senior home economics women specializing in institutional administration, will open this Monday in the cafeteria of the Home Economics building. Club dinners at fifty-five and sixty-five cents will be served every Monday night from 5:30 to 6:30 o'clock.
The cafeteria has been redecorated by the class. The counter is to be closed off, producing the effect of a restaurant; the waitresses will wear brown costumes trimmed with orange rick-rack.

The object of the tea room is to give the students the real experience of running such a business of their own. It is their final course in quantity cooking. Reservations may be made for parties to be held in this tea room.
