

COMPLETE
CAMPUS
COVER

Penn State

Collegian

ESTABLISHED
1904

Volume 85—Number 13

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1935

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Thespian Musical Comedy Features Parody Program

Fall House-Party Show To Depict Bowe's Amateur Hour.

"Fools Rush In" Script Written by Students

Written by four students, "Fools Rush In" will be presented by the Thespians and the Glee Club as the fall house-party show in Schwab auditorium November 9.

The presentation, a musical comedy in two acts and four scenes, is the work of John E. Binns '36, Richard H. Allen '36, J. Lloyd Larkins '37, and Edward T. Binns '38, and is under the joint direction of J. Ewing "Soc" Kennedy and Prof. Richard W. Grant, head of the department of music.

Scenery by Porterfield
One of the largest corps of candidates ever to report for a Thespian production is now trying out for positions in the chorus under the supervision of Kennedy. The scenery was designed under the direction of Henry J. Porterfield '35.

The plot of the comedy concerns a talented young girl, living under the guardianship of two uncles and a grandmother in a small mountain community. The girl and her male partner try out for an amateur program at the local theatre and win an audition for Major Bowe's amateur program in New York City. Unbeknownst to them, the two uncles and grandmother also try out and are successful in winning an audition.

Scene one deals with a scene in the home of the girl; scene two is the stage of the local theatre; scene three shows the audition studio and Major Bowe's office; and scene four is in the Capitol theatre studio on the night of the broadcast.

Players Select Season's Shows

"Pursuit of Happiness" Chosen As Forthcoming Production; Scheduled for Jan. 1.

With the largest crowd in recent years attending the production of "The Last Mile," Dad's Day, to provide an auspicious beginning to the 1935-36 dramatic season, Professor Arthur C. Cloetingh, director of the Penn State Players, announced today that this season will be one of the most difficult and eventful since the organization of the Penn State Players in 1920.

On January 18 the Players will present "The Pursuit of Happiness," by Alan Child and Isabelle Loudon, the 1934 Broadway comedy hit, which aroused quite a sensation with its use of "bundling."

Gerhart Hauptmann's "The Sunken Bell" will be produced February 21 and 22. A Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, to be produced in conjunction with the music department, is scheduled for April, but as yet no exact date has been selected.

"The Old Maid," by Zoe Akins, the Pulitzer Prize play of this year, starring Judith Anderson and Helen Menken, which closed in Philadelphia last Saturday, will be presented on Mother's Day week-end.

As a final production of the season, the Players have selected a melodramatic version of an old favorite "Uncle Tom's Cabin," for Commencement and House-party audiences.

Campus Patrol Starts Finger-Print System

The Penn State Campus Patrol, in collaboration with the State police and the Department of Justice, has established a full finger-printing system with the primary purpose of aiding in personal identification.

Any person wishing to have their finger-prints taken can do so by reporting to the Campus patrol headquarters in Old Main. One copy of the prints is sent to the State headquarters and the other to the Department of Justice in Washington. The person may also get a copy for himself.

The main objective in the system is not to check up on crimes, but to aid in identification in cases of loss of memory, fires, accidents, or other disasters.

Tickets for Pitt Game Placed on Sale Today

The general ticket sale for the Penn State-Pittsburgh football game will open at the Athletic Association ticket office in Old Main today. The ticket price is $2.85, including tax. Seats will be in section 19.

Fraternity drawings for the Villanova game will be made by a student committee on October 23. Announcement of the seating will be in the October 25 issue of the COLLEGIAN. Student distribution of Villanova tickets for non-fraternity men will begin October 29 and will end November 2 at noon, after which no tickets will be given.

7 Beers Release Custom Violator

Tribunal Gives Keyser Choice Between This, or Wearing Signs for Week.

An unusual sentence by which Robert S. Keyser, accused of violating customs, was given his choice between wearing a sign or supplying the Student Tribunal with seven bottles of beer for consumption in its meeting place in Room 319, Old Main, was passed by that body last week.

Keyser was accused of failure to wear dress customs at the Western Maryland football game. He admitted this, but explained that he had attended the game in company with several male relatives and that a member of last year's Tribunal had assured him that under such circumstances he need not wear customs.

Told Not To Mention Affair
After due deliberation the Tribunal decided to give him the option mentioned above. Keyser chose to supply the beer, but asked for permission to return to his house to get the necessary money. This permission was granted. The freshman returned to the meeting place with the money, explaining that he thought that the Tribunal would adjourn to some local tap room to consume the beverage.

The Tribunal explained that the beer was to be brought to them, but cautioned Keyser to mention the affair to no one. Some time later he returned with the required seven bottles which were consumed there. Officially the case was recorded as "Dismissed for lack of evidence."

Exemptions Listed
Charles F. Cassidy, Edwin Floyd, Henry Haas, Charles E. McKillops, Francis C. Roehrik, Robert B. Simons, and Karl W. Wiesbeck were released from customs because of their age. J. Robert Brown was exempted because of wearing them at another school, Nathan L. Goberman, after wearing a sign for a week because he didn't wear customs up to the time of his exemption, was released because he had worn them at another school.

In addition to Keiser, William T. Davis, Charles E. Walley, and Louis M. Wilschens, who were also tried for violations of customs, were dismissed for lack of evidence.

Nine Sentenced
Nine freshmen were convicted of violating customs, Reynolds C. Ammerman and Charles S. Walsh dated, Leonard F. Mitchell and Joseph A. Tolson failed to obey dress regulations. John D. Sharp and Donald Reggiero were guilty of having their hands in their pockets. Thomas S. Hammond had failed to obey a previously imposed sentence.

Appropriate sentences, including the wearing of various signs, tin cans, a dress, red Sox, a paper hat, and toast were passed on these violators.

Speech Department Plans Mobile Clinics Situated Through State

Extensive plans for mobile speech clinics throughout the state have been announced by Herbert Koopp-Baker, director of the College speech clinic.

This year will be the most ambitious since the establishment of the system in 1929. During the first semester, the following towns will be visited: October 24, 25, Meadville; October 31, November 1, Ridgway; November 14, 15, Williamsport; and others at Dunmore and Montrose, dates as yet indefinite.

During the past five years the division of speech has been rendering a unique service to the public schools, communities and citizens of the State. By a system of mobile speech clinics, the services of the College speech clinic, Koopp-Baker and a staff of trained workers in the treatment of disorders of speech are made available to localities distant from the campus.

PSCA Financial Campaign Opens For $3,100 Goal

300 Division Leaders, Solicitors Attend Drive Supper.

Funds Go To Support C. A. Activities Budget

Aiming for a goal of $3,100, the annual P. S. C. A. finance drive officially got under way last night when more than 300 division leaders and solicitors attended the finance supper, held at the Nittany Lion Inn.

The main speakers of the evening were President Ralph D. Hetzel, Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock, and Prof. John Henry Frizzell, of the division of public speaking. Charles H. Salt '36, men's student chairman of the drive, outlined the program of the campaign.

Division Leaders Named
The campaign will be carried on until Friday. It is designed to meet the service activities budget of the Christian Association, which sponsors numerous student activities throughout the year. Every student becomes a member of the Christian Association by participating in its activities and contributing to its support.

Faculty and student division leaders were named last week. Faculty division leaders, chosen from schools and departments of the College, are: chairman, Prof. Marsh W. White, of the department of Physics; Willard P. Lewis, College librarian, from the administration; Prof. Adam L. Beam, of the School of Agriculture; Prof. Henry L. Yeagley, from the School of Chemistry and Physics; Prof. Mabel E. Kirk, from the School of Education; Prof. Fred C. Stewart, from the School of Engineering; Prof. Sylvester K. Stevens, from the School of Liberal Arts; Prof. Arthur P. Hoopes, from the School of Mineral Industries; and Robert A. Higgins, from the School of Physical Education.

Student division leaders are: chairman, Genevieve C. Ziegler '37; Thelma H. Elbert '36, Sarah Belle Reese '36, Arabel S. Walters '36, Bertha M. Cohen '37, Dorothy P. Fish '37, Jean C. Kriebel '37, Elizabeth R. Oberlin '37, and Margaret A. Wentzel '37.

Men's division leaders are: chairman, Charles H. Salt '36; Russel B. Alderfer '36, D. Lee Backenstose '36, William G. Balderston '36, William M. Bertelette '36, Albert E. C. Bickell '36, Herbert E. Bohren '36, John A. Cartmell '36, Aaron N. Decker '36, Fred W. Eurich '36, Philip G. Evans '36, Harry I. Gilbert '36, Willard R. Hancock '36, Walter J. Kinsey '36, R. Gordon Larson '36, Chester S. Moore '36, Richard H. Maurer '36, Mark McNeal '36, Ivan Parsons '36, Lester W. Ritter '36, George E. Sperling '36, comprise the senior leaders.

Joseph J. Foltz '37, Louis P. Hoyer '37, J. Loyd Larkins '37, Robert S. Lewis '37, Lewis J. Maurer '37, William A. Rainey '37, Alan L. Smith '37, Jack H. Fair '38, Weston D. Gardner '38, Daniel R. Grandy '38, John R. Jageman '38, and Howell Jobbins '38 complete the list.

Petold Named Editor of Forestry Yearbook

Albert O. Petold, '37, has been elected editor-in-chief of the Penn State Sylvan annual publication of the students in the school of forestry. The assistant editor is Leo M. Shames, '37.

Joseph T. Radel, '36, is business manager and his assistant is Michael M. Pochan, '37. The circulation manager is Robert I. Smith, '37, with Marco L. Markley, '37, assisting him. R. Moore, senior, Jacob L. Brown, junior, Class representatives are Raymond L. Irwin, sophomore, and Robert S. Lichtenberger, second year rangers. The freshman representative will be selected later.

Cosler Gives Address
"Fifty Years of Electrical Progress" was the title of a talk given by C. S. Cosler of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company in Room 107, Main Engineering building, Friday.

Athletic Board of Control Grants 2 Meals Daily to Members of Varsity Grid Squad; Alumni Crowd Sees Lions Trample Lehigh

Brilliant 80-Yard Run By Andrews Provides Spectators Thrills.

Interference, Passing, Show Improvements

By PHIL HEISLER
Speed, deception and synchronization that was noticeably lacking in the Nittany Lion football team in previous games this season, blasted them to a 26-to-0 victory over Lehigh's previously undefeated Engineers before an Alumni Day crowd estimated at 10,000 here Saturday.

The vacancy of any one outstanding star on the team was filled capably Saturday by Fritz Andrews, seeing action for the first time this year. Andrews picked Berj's high punt out of the air on his own twenty-yard stripe, and galloped eighty yards to a touchdown ahead of the Lions' excellent interference, that left the entire Engineer eleven strewn on the ground in his wake.

Andrews was also a principle in the Lions' third score. Standing on Lehigh's thirty-third yard line, he tossed an accurate eighteen-yard pass to Mike Kornick, who carried it the remaining fifteen yards for a touchdown.

Lions Score Early
A thirty-yard pass from O'Hara to Bill Miller, lanky end, opened the Lions' first quarter offensive. In seven plays Owens and Komine rushed the ball to the three-yard line. Although the Lehigh line held for the next three plays, Komine battered down their wall on the fourth down, scoring a goal. Berj put over a perfect kick for the extra point.

Capitalizing on a block in the game when Ellstrom fumbled a punt on his own thirty-yard line and Weber recovered it, the Lions again drove to a touchdown. Wear and Silvano rushed the ball up to the one-yard stripe where Silvano plunged over the line on a center rush.

Lehigh made their most dangerous threat in the final period. Bringing the ball from mid-field to the fourteen-yard line, through line plays and a pass, Heller passed to Hoppeck over the goal, but Eshbach knocked it to the ground.

Andrews also showed his mettle on the defense when Heller broke through left tackle for forty-five yards, having only Andrews between himself and the goal. Andrews managed to fight off two interference runners and bring down Heller on State's own thirty-two yard line.

Aerial Offense Effective
For the first time the Lions' aerial offensive clicked. Although they only completed three out of seven tries, they collected seventy-eight yards' gain.

Thirty-six players represented the Lions on the gridiron and at no time did the team seem weakened by the numerous substitutions. Although there were numerous substitutions, no one player received any serious injuries and thus far the team will be in good physical shape for their encounter with the Pitt Panthers next Saturday.

Captain Scobey was the outstanding star for the visitors. Besides capturing the squad his tackle position presented a knot in the Engineer line that was difficult to break for the Lions. In his spare time he carried the ball on numerous end-around-end plays, blocked, and ran interference.

Decent and Progressive

Editorial
Acting on the demands made editorially in Friday's COLLEGIAN, the Board of Athletic Control Saturday recognized the unfair treatment of football players by sanctioning a training table, throughout the season for members of the varsity.

Two meals a day are being furnished the players, starting yesterday. Here is a giant stride toward a really "decent and progressive policy" here. In two stormy, overtime sessions the board decided that not only will the policy call for a spirit of "fair play and good sportsmanship" toward opponents but it will even maintain that attitude toward the players themselves.

In relieving the "intolerable conditions" under which coaches and players must labor, the Board of Control, has cleared the tense atmosphere like an electrical storm. No longer shall Coach Bob Higgins be forced to chisel meals for his players; no longer shall players leave school because they aren't eating well enough.

The COLLEGIAN's demand for fairer treatment of the football players was entirely justified by the facts of the situation. Those wiseacres, both of the faculty and townspeople, who thought and stated that the COLLEGIAN was merely popping off and credited the campaign to an attempt to increase the circulation and to publicize the COLLEGIAN, have proven to be very much misguided by the action of the Athletic Board of Control.

President Hetzel Brands Student Demonstration as 'Silly' Effort

Damage amounting to a thousand dollars was done to Allen street as a result of two bonfires held there after the pep rally Friday night, borough authorities estimate. The cost will be paid out of the College damage fund.

Branding the demonstration as "silly," President Ralph D. Hetzel said, "The students are burning up their money in a futile and senseless sort of demonstration. I have confidence to believe that there is enough intelligence in the student body to discover this fact before long."

No recurrence of the riots staged last year when an attempt was made to stop a similar demonstration took place due to the action of Burgess Wilbur F. Leitzell in refusing police action against the students. While the Alpha Fire company was summoned to the scene of the blaze, they were not permitted to extinguish it.

The attempt of student leaders, for the most part members of hat societies, to halt the starting of the fires proved futile and after a period of wrangling, the first serious blaze was started on Allen street, followed by another fire a few hundred feet away at the intersection of Allen street and College avenue.

In the search for combustible material to carry on the demonstration, students razed an old barn in Calder alley and a pile of lumber was removed from the rear of the Murphy five and ten cent store. H. O. Smith, owner of the lumber, with the assistance of campus leaders, obtained the names of students carrying it away. A crowd of 2,000 looked on as the fires raged. Roofs of the Leitzell and Schlow buildings were damaged by crowds which swarmed there to watch the fires.

Common Fireplace Plan Discussed By Board

Plans for a common fireplace to be located somewhere on the campus were discussed at a meeting of Student Board last week, J. Briggs Pruitt '36, chairman announced.

The fireplace, as planned, will be used as a sort of ceremonial ground. The College has already purchased two large stone lions to be placed there and will supply the wood to be used in the fires. One of the principal reasons for undertaking this project was to prevent fires on town property.

"The students are bound to hold fires," Pruitt said, "and unless some means is provided to keep them under some sort of control, we will have continued riots similar to the one on Friday night."

"Under the plans discussed by the Board," Pruitt continued, "we will hold regularly planned-for fires after pep rallies. In this way we hope to prevent these riots, which can result only in expense to the students and College and ill-feeling between town and campus."

Architect Will Speak At Open Meeting Here

W. Pope Barney, A. I. A., Philadelphia will address an open meeting of members of the department of architecture Saturday on "Architecture Today." This lecture will be in the exhibition room, 303 Main Engineering building at 7:15 o'clock, under the auspices of Scarab, honorary architectural fraternity.

Mr. Barney will assist with the criticisms and judgment of design projects during the day. He was awarded the Gold Medal in Architectural League of New York in 1929 for his American Bank and Trust Company building in Philadelphia. He is at present architect for subsistence housing in the Virgin Islands under the direction of the federal government.

Boost In Team Morale Seen as Result of Saturday's Act.

Motion Passed After Long, Stormy Session

"The Board recommends that during the remainder of the present football season on the days of practice or a game, two meals, lunch and dinner, be provided for the members of the varsity football squad as a part of the conditioning process."

With that resolution the Athletic Board of Control at its meeting Saturday recognized the unfair treatment of football players here, as charged by the Collegian, and remedied the situation by giving the players another meal a day. Previous to yesterday they received only their evening meal at the expense of the College.

Board Confers With Hetzel

The ruling became effective immediately and yesterday at noon the players ate their first lunch at the expense of the College. Coach Bob Higgins said, "The boys certainly appreciate what has been done for them. Things are looking much better now. This has been a great boost to the morale of the team." Captain Bob Weber, stellar Lion tackle, declared, "It sure is swell and the boys all appreciate it."

The motion was passed after two long and stormy sessions of the Board, during the second of which President Ralph D. Hetzel was consulted.

Collegian Presents Facts

In the morning session following a presentation of facts which aroused the Collegian's editorial blast against existing conditions there was considerable discussion. A motion made by Robert K. Cochrane, of Pittsburgh, Alumni representative, and calling for three meals a day was passed by a vote of 5 to 4. Director Hugo Bezddek, of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, then asked that President Ralph D. Hetzel be conferred with before this was final. Complying with Director Bezddek's request, William Wray, chairman of the Board, voted against the measure, tying the count. The Board then adjourned until after the Lehigh game when it re-assembled with Dr. Hetzel present.

Warnock Makes Motion Accepted

Following considerable more discussion, especially as to whether giving the players another meal would constitute subsidization and whether this was a step towards complete subsidization and whether this was a step towards complete subsidization, Dean of Men, Arthur R. Warnock, who voted against the proposal which would feed the players three meals a day made the motion which was passed. Only two members of the Board, Dr. Frederick W. Owens, mathematics department head representing the faculty, and George E. Hesselbacher, of the Alumni, voted against the proposal.

The Algecians Congratulated

The Collegian has received approximately one hundred statements, including letters, telegrams and long distance calls congratulating it upon its stand in bringing the facts of this situation before the notice of the alumni and the Board of Control. The action of the Board is expected to bolster the already good morale of the team considerably.

Smoker, Dance Plans Made by P. S. Alumni

With a smoker scheduled for Friday night at 8 o'clock and a dance Saturday night at 10, the Pittsburgh Alumni Club of Penn State, under the direction of Robert K. Cochrane '18, president, have arranged an extensive program of entertainment for students here attending the Pitt-Penn State football game Saturday.

The smoker Friday night will be held in the Fort Pitt Hotel. The Blue Band will be present as will the football squad and coaches.

Music for the Saturday night dance in the Schenley Hotel will be furnished by Will Myszkowski, now playing under the name of Will Rolland. Admission will be $2.20, and this will include a breakfast to be served at midnight.

J. G. (Babe) Davis '24 is chairman of the committee arranging the program. The other members are Jim Stewart '27, G. B. (Bud) Cramp '27, Joe G. Green '24, Frank B. Mahon '28, and Herb A. Cannon '27.

Livestock Show Chooses 3 Judges from College

Three College staff members will take part in the third annual Pittsburgh Livestock Show to be held on Thursday and Friday, October 23 and 24, at Kerr's Island. Opportunity to exhibit livestock will be given to the farmers and 4-H club boys of Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio, and West Virginia.

All three of the men have national reputations as livestock judges and all are associated with the department of animal husbandry. Peter C. Mackenzie will judge beef cattle; Lawrence C. Madison will judge swine; and Charles A. Burge will act as beef cattle superintendent of the show.