Freshmen Gridders Face Strong Wyoming Seminary Team in First Game Here

Walke Charges are in Good Shape for Encounter With Prep School Team Boasting Heavy Line; Game Called for 2:30.

By BOB GRUBB

Following the lead of the varsity, Coach Nels Walke's undefeated Lion Cubs will make a bid for a victory over one of their strongest foes when they meet Wyoming Seminary on New Beaver field tomorrow afternoon.

While the freshmen squad is in good shape, they will be facing a grid combine that has never been defeated by a Penn State yearling team. The prepsters are bigger than any of the teams which the Cubs have encountered so far and they boast a formidable wall.

Starters Listed

Bill Denise will start at the signal-calling post for the Cubs, with Joe Metz at fullback, Johnny Patrick and Gee Giannantonis are slated to start at the halfback positions and Coach Walke is likely to also use Myron Kyle who has recuperated from injuries suffered in scrimmage with the varsity several weeks ago.

Barantovich and Gregory are the starting selections at ends, this combination having displayed good form in the Scranton-Keystone game last Saturday. Dean Hanley and Joe Peel will be at tackle posts, while Bob Wyland and Morry Parker are to start at guard. Torretti will be at center.

Saturday's game will be one of only two opportunities Lion fans will have to see the freshmen play at home. After meeting the Pittsburgh yearlings here next Saturday, the Cubs will meet the Bucknell freshmen at Lewisburg and then wind up the season with an encounter with the Navy Plebes at Annapolis.

"The team that won't be beat—can't be beat." Pitt is tough. So what? So are we, and we have the advantage of wanting to win this game more than any other on the schedule. In fact, if we win this game, we won't lose another. Such idle speculation is always good fun; didn't our predecessor have the team going out to the Rose Bowl this year? But there's a difference. We're serious.

With all due respect for Pitt's prowess, it should be remembered that upsets have happened and will continue to happen. Our team is in the frame of mind to shoot the works, and should we get the jump on the boys from the Football Institute—well, anything can happen.

The idea that we can't beat Pitt is fallacious, and comes from reading stories inspired by the Pitt myth, the Panther bogeyman, the entirely insane theory that only salaried athletes can win football games. This writer may be going out on a mighty slim limb, but let it be known that he thinks Penn State has better than a fighting chance to take Pitt. If we have to hide our head in shame the rest of the year, still we say:

State to tie or beat Pitt.

Varsity, Freshman Harriers Will Meet Pitt Tomorrow

Book, Olexy Will Lead Team at Schenley Park Course

By JOHN BRENNEMAN

Before the football game begins tomorrow, Penn State should have captured one, possibly two, victories from Pitt and the Nittany cross-country team should be one meet nearer the completion of their second undefeated season.

Coach Charles "Chick" Werner is not so optimistic, pointing out that the Pitt 5-mile course is a tough up-and-down hill affair, that Howard Downey's ankle is in bad shape, and that the Pitt team is much tougher than the Yale squad, which was beaten last week. It is our opinion, however, that Captain Book and Pete Olexy should finish one-two, with the rest of the Lion squad not far behind.

Squad Leaves at Noon
Fourteen or fifteen varsity and freshman runners, Werner, and two managers will leave at noon today. The meets will be held in Schenley Park tomorrow morning, the freshmen running at 10:45, and the varsity at 11 o'clock.

trip will go to Pittsburgh. In addition to Book, Olexy and Downey, it will include Charlie Clark, Don Daugherty, Bill Trimble, and Joe Surmalis. The latter two have been doing especially well in the time trials this week. They have both cut a full minute off their best previous time over the local course.

Pitt Lost To Notre Dame
Last Saturday Pitt was beaten at Notre Dame, 23-to-32, but on their own course they will be tougher to defeat. Tost, who last year was their fourth man, seems to be the best runner on the team this season. In the dual meet with Pitt last year several members of the present Lion squad finished ahead of him and they feel that they will be able to repeat that performance tomorrow.

Seven or eight freshmen, headed by Len Henderson, winner in the meet with Cornell last week, will make the trip. The others will be Herb Hazard, Bill Joachim, Burt Aikman, Simons, Topman, and Hollister. Winkleblech, George Harvey's Mont Alto protege, may make the trip also.

The Pitt freshmen will prove to be tough opposition since their squad includes Johnny Woodruff, the negro runner who last year broke the world's high school record for the mile and who won the mile here at the P. I. A. A. meet last spring.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By DICK LEWIS

Beta Theta Pi won the intramural cross-country stagger with a score of 22 points Wednesday afternoon, when thirty-six shivering harriers representing ten groups assembled in the chill wind on the golf course to run for individual honors and a silver cup which nobody can use and nobody can hook.

Individual honors went to Gibson of Frear hall, who navigated the approximate two miles in 9 minutes, 45 seconds, 37 seconds ahead of Pierce, Unit 1, who came in on the 10 minute, 22 second mark. McKilips, running for Beta Theta Pi, crossed the line in third place and good condition in 10 minutes, 34 seconds.

Second place went to Sigma Nu with 37 points and third place to Phi Kappa with 40 points. Phi Kappa stood in second place by actual pointage, but one of their men, working on the theory that a straight line is the shortest distance around anybody's golf course, failed to round the right side of one of the markers and was disqualified.

The second round of football draws to a close this week and the quarter finals begin Monday. Thursday night, Tau Sigma gained a 3-yard advantage of Phi Gamma Delta. Friday,

Kappa Delta Rho won over Section 6 by 2 first downs, Monday night, a motley crowd of State College juveniles armed to the teeth with beanshooters, watched Kappa Sigma defeat Sigma Pi on first downs, and a well-drilled Phi Kappa Tau brotherhood take Frear hall 19-to-0.

Tuesday, Sigma Nu drowned the Beavers 13-to-6 with an aerial attack that worked on several occasions. Sigma Alpha Epsilon won over Delta Upsilon 7-to-2 in one of the scrappiest battles yet. Pi Kappa Alpha defeated Sigma Phi Alpha 6-to-0 and Chi Phi was the victor over Tau Sigma by yardage Tuesday night.

Wednesday, Theta Kappa Phi scored over Kappa Delta Rho by 6-to-0; Beta Sigma Rho defeated Delta Tau Delta by a five-yard advantage. At night, the Commons Club forfeited to Sigma Phi Epsilon; Alpha Zeta defeated Lambda Chi Alpha by 1 first down; Sigma Tau Phi took their match with Phi Epsilon Pi by forfeit; and Sigma Chi defeated Phi Delta Theta 7-to-0.

Note to quarter finalists: Physical examinations must have been taken by all players who hope to compete before teams will be permitted to play in the quarter finals, according to Bill Smith '37, football manager.

Booters To Face Leopards in 3rd Start of Season

Visitors Show a Poor Record of 1 Win, 3 Losses.

By TOWNSEND SWALM

Assisting the Frosh footballers to retain State's clean slate in the fall sports program the Nittany soccermen will trounce a weak delegation from Lafayette on New Beaver field, tomorrow at 2:00. The same group which outclassed the Temple Owls last Saturday, will start tomorrow, with the possible exception of Bill Barns, who because of a bad knee developed in practice, may be replaced by Phil Borda.

Out of four starts, the Leopards have managed to eke out one victory a 5-to-0 win over Bucknell last Saturday. Previous to that they were successively defeated by Haverford, 2-to-0, Princeton, 5-to-0, and Temple, 4-to-0. Incidentally, however, the Marquis booters were seriously handicapped in their early games by injuries to four of their star players. With these men back in the line-up against Bucknell a more creditable showing was made, however if the local boys play like they did Saturday last, the Leopards will lose even their spots before the day is over.

Social Function Planned

Lafayette's claim to fame and chance for an upset victory tomorrow seems to lie in the hands of four men: Jim Tait, 170 pound fullback, who has been doing fine work as a defense

Swimming Team Has Lineup of Veterans

When State's first intercollegiate swimming team plunges into action within a month, the presence of a full squad of veterans from last year's Glennland forces will give Coach Robert E. "Gal" Galbraith much confidence for a reasonably successful season.

Graduation in June took two Seafarers—co-captains John Keech and Henry Dern. However, reserves from last year, plus a few transfers, will minimize their loss.

Consistent winners of the Glennland team will be seen in the merman's line-up. In the sprints, John Walker, Martin Hart, Jerome Weinstein, and William Helriegel have returned. The distance events will be taken care of by George Henderson and Robert Dewalt. The breast-strokers are Gilbert Burleigh and Eugene Lesko, while the back-strokers are Richard Geiger and James Cummings. The return to school of Ray Parks, Glennland diving star of a few years back, will greatly bolster the team in that division. Hart is another veteran diver.

Although the dates have not yet been announced, meets have been scheduled with Pittsburgh, Syracuse, Cornell, and Pennsylvania, all strong opponents. The Pennsylvania meet will probably be held in Philadelphia.
