Ithaca Cagers Downed 38-32 By 2nd Team

Sophomores Pull Game From Fire After Varsity Fails.

By DICK LEWIS
"Finding" themselves in the second half, an aggressive, if inexperienced, Penn State passing combination, composed of four sophomores and a transfer student, defeated an experienced, tenacious Ithaca five by a 38-32 score before a capacity mob which alternately groaned and shouted itself hoarse in Recreation hall Saturday night.
For fourteen minutes of the first half, the Ithaca cagers, fresh from two victories over Susquehanna and Bloomsburg State Teachers enroute, outplayed and outscored the powerless Nittany varsity. Six minutes before the half, Spike Leslie sent in his "second team" to pull the game out of the hole. The score was 15-10 in favor of the visitors when the new team entered.
The combination, with Reichenbach at center, Michoff and Pomerantz at forwards and Proksa and Peterson at guards, stepped out nervously; their inexperience was evident when they forgot to report to the referee, which cost the Lions a technical foul. Sol Michoff made his debut into intercollegiate varsity basketball circles by plunking two foul shots to bring State's score up to twelve points, with Ithaca carrying four points in the lead. At the end of the half, the ragged Lions had tightened their defense and had netted three points, to make the score 15-18 in favor of the invaders.

The crisis came when the second half had gotten fairly under way, and the visitors had widened the gap, leaving the Lions with a seven-point deficit.
But the Lions found themselves and tightened their defense, forcing the Ithacans to chance shots from mid-floor. Then the Nittany machine began to forge ahead. With field goals in rapid succession by Pomerantz, Reichenbach, Michoff, and Proksa, the Blue and White crept up to the Ithaca lead and surged ahead, scoring nineteen points and holding the visitors with an airtight defense. The score reached 34-25, with the Lions roaring full blast in the lead.
In the last period, the Ithacans rallied under the leadership of Pismannoff, Ithaca's high-scoring guard, and Dillon, center, who barraged the State basket for six more points. With the substitution of Mike Korwick for Pomerantz, the Ithaca rally was checked. Sol Michoff dropped the ball into the net twice in the last few seconds of the game to give the victorious Lions a six-point lead as the final gun boomed.

Soose, Cooper, Tapman, Patrick Take I. M. Bouts

Decisions Given Loehr, Sopchak, Swartz, Kociubinsky.

By PHIL HEISLER
Just plain fighting of previous rounds was transformed into the gentle art of fisticuffs at the Intramural boxing finals Saturday night. Al Tapman won the 115-pound title as he threw a flurry of body punches into Critchfield, Phi Mu Delta, and was awarded a technical knock-out in the first round. Alex Supchak won the 125-pound award by a forfeit over Hixon, Delta Theta Sigma. Swartz, Tau Sigma Phi, battled for three rounds to win over Jenks, Lambda Chi Alpha.

Bill Soose, Independent, displayed some of the cleverest boxing in intramural circles as he scored a T. K. O. over Ricketts, Alpha Chi Sigma. A knock-out was well on the way when the fight was stopped.
Fochr, Independent, won on a decision over Switzer, Kappa Sigma, in a wild melee of fist slinging, few of which landed.
Pat Patrick, Phi Delta Theta, annexed the 165-pound crown in the most colorful fight of the tournament. By the second round Patrick had battered Lessig's face to a red pulp. With Lessig hopelessly punch-drunk, Patrick cased up and was awarded a T. K. O.
Nes Kociubinsky, 175-pound Tau Sigma Phi, tore out of his corner, started a punch at his heel that landed on Ferris' jaw and the fight was over. Ferris didn't "come to" till after Nes had received the first place medal.

Bill Cooper, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, received the unlimited crown by scoring a knock-out over Murphy. Both men threw haymakers, Cooper being the more fortunate one, landing the first hard blow.
