Conflict Exam Program

First Semester 1935-36

Conflict examinations will be held during the week of regular examinations, Monday, January 27 to Saturday, February 1 inclusive. Examinations listed BY APPT. will be arranged by the instructor with the students scheduled for such examinations. Conflict cards are available at the Office of the Registrar for those students who reported conflicts. They are permits to take such examinations and should be presented at the time of the conflict examinations. Mid-year seniors who are unable to schedule regular or conflict examinations before the time for reporting grades should arrange for special examinations. The schedule of conflict examinations is as follows:
