weight continued to carry the fight thirty-five pounds. Visibly weakened, the Green Terror slipped to his knees, but quickly recovered and managed to stay on his feet under Izzy's withering blows for the remainder of the fight.

Frankie Goodman overcame his greatest obstacle to the lightweight title when he won a three-round decision over Syracuse's slugger Johnny Mastrella. Starting cautiously, Goodman landed a hard left to the face early in the first round and then boxed around, keeping out of range of Mastrella's long rights. Although suffering from a cold which had threatened to keep him out of the fight, Goodman effectively carried the fight to his opponent, tagging and clipping the Orange boxer throughout the bout.

In the other Penn State victory in the preliminary round, Captain Russ Criswell rocked Bob Bennett of Western Maryland with hard lefts and rights to win an easy three-round decision. Taking the first round by a wide margin, the Lion feather-to his opponent and by the end of the second round, Bennett was visibly proggry. Both fighters settled down in the third, with the champion maintaining the aggressive.

The summary: 115—Captain Russ Criswell, Penn State, defeated Bob Bennett, Western Maryland, in three rounds; Alexander Valois, Harvard, defeated Captain Philip Norton, M. I. T., in three rounds.

125—Walter Crampton, Harvard, defeated William Skeen, Western Maryland, by technical knockout in 1:17 of second round; Ben Solomon, Syracuse, defeated Tony Chmielewski, M. I. T., by technical knockout in 1:55 of first round.

135—Frankie Goodman, Penn State, defeated Johnny Mastrella, Syracuse, in three rounds; Peter Ward, Harvard, defeated Franklin Croe, Western Maryland, in three rounds.

145—Bert Harrison, Army, defeated Nick Lettles, M. I. T., in three rounds; Rodman Haynes, Western Maryland, defeated Dwight Ellis, Harvard, in three rounds.

155—Peter Olney, Harvard, defeated George Spiegel, Western Maryland, by technical knockout in 53 seconds of first round; Ord Fink, Syracuse, defeated Robert York, Army, in three rounds.

of Syracuse. After battling on even terms in the opening round, Crampton opened up in the second and carried the fight to Donato throughout the round. The fight slowed down in the last round, with the Crimson boxer carrying enough points to give him the decision.

McGivern was given the nod over Bert Harrison of Army in a decision that was far from popular with the crowd. Both fighters were called on fouls several times during the progress of the fight.

Sammy Donato outpointed his Western Maryland opponent, Rodman Haynes, in the other 145-pound bout. Sammy overcame Haynes' reach advantage early in the fight, opening up with hard lefts and rights after Haynes succeeded in landing several clean blows. Jabbing with his left, Donato went into the second round strong and then settled down to fight the last half of the round on even terms. The Lion welterweight widened his margin in the third when Haynes, visibly weakened, took the defensive altogether.

Lou Ritzie effectively used his jabbing left to open the left eye of his Harvard opponent, Peter Olney, in the 155-pound bout. The fight was called at the end of the first round and Ritzie was awarded a technical knockout when Olney's condition became too serious to allow him to continue.

Penn State's second defeat of the semi-final round came in the 165-pound class when Johnny Sawchak lost the fight at the end of the second round on a technical knockout to Captain Ray Jeffers of Syracuse.

In an unimpressive fight, Captain Tony Sala of Villanova, decisioned Western Maryland's Tony Orteni in the light-heavyweight battle. Sala failed to show the form which he exhibited here last year when he won the championship in the 175-pound class and he was pushed hard to out-

Luckies a light smoke OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO — "IT'S TOASTED"

Luckies are less acid

Excess of Acidity of Other Popular Brands Over Lucky Strike Cigarettes

PROPER AGING

Tobacco in its natural state is harsh and strong. Though "cured" by the grower before sale, it is unsuited for use without further aging. During this aging period (which ranges in the case of Lucky Strike from 1 1/2 to 3 years) important changes occur. These "Nature" changes result in the partial "smoothing out" of the original harsh qualities of the leaf. Our process of manufacture carries these improvements many steps further—as every Lucky Strike Cigarette exemplifies: A Light Smoke of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco.

LUCKIES ARE LESS ACID! Recent chemical tests show that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

*RESULTS VERIFIED BY INDEPENDENT CHEMICAL LABORATORIES AND RESEARCH GROUPS.
