Between The Lions

- By BOB GRUBB -

Despite the two mid-season set-acks, Coach Joe Bedenk should backs, Coach Joe Bedenk should have little to worry about in the way of material for at least the next two seasons. An indication of this may be gleaned from the line-up in last Saturday's game. The complete all-sophomore infield which started the game pointed to have alread for Lieuwage. happy days ahead for Lion base-ball fortunes.

Mel Vonarx at first, Carl Fisher

at second, Rabbit Wear at short-stop and Herb Peterson at third presented a smooth-working com-bination. Sol Michoff in the field and later, Johnny Waters at third added more second-year men to the Licn line-up.

There seems to be little trouble ahead in the hurling department, for in addition to Frank Smith, a for in addition to Frank Smith, a junior, there are three sophomores to bolster the staff. Two of these second-year, mean, Simoncelli and Boho, are leading in hitting, with 500 each. Boho won both games in which he pitched, while Simoncelli won one and lost one. The third sophomore pitchet, Ford has not yet had a chance to show his stuff, except in pinch hitting.

the contest:

Ben Simoncelli, sophomore pitcher who went the route for the Lions, was unfortunate in having poor support in the field. He gave eleven hits, ten of them singles and the other a double. His outstanding contribution to the game, however, was his work at bat. In four times up, he smashed a home run with two on, in addition to collecting two singles.
