

Co-ed Activity To End With May Festival

Procession Will Start On Front Campus 4:30 Tomorrow.

Honor Arch Made New Feature of Ceremony

May Day festivities will open tomorrow at 4:30 o'clock when A. Frances Turner '36 will be crowned May Queen on the front campus.

Elaborate plans, under the direction of Mavis F. Baker '37 and Martha Shaner '37, have been completed for what is expected to be the best ceremony in the 14 years of May Day tradition.

Honor Arch New

This year's event will include the Honor Arch, carried by 12 of the most outstanding senior women. Each two girls will carry an arch of flowers, under which the Queen will walk.

Kappa Gamma Psi, men's musical honorary fraternity, will play before and during the May Day ceremony.

306 L. D. Sophomores Pass Test in English Given by L. A. School

Of the 425 sophomores that took the attainment test in English for admission to the upper division of the School of the Liberal Arts, 306 passed the examination, fifty received the grade of doubtful, and sixty-nine were failed.

The fact that only seventy-two percent of the students in the lower division passed the examination, does not necessarily mean that the remainder of the sophomores in the school will be dropped from college, Dean Charles W. Stoddard, head of the School of the Liberal Arts, explained.

Certain students will be given permission to return to college next year and enter the upper division. If their work proves satisfactory, they will be allowed to continue. Others will be given the chance to attend summer school this year.

Pa. Artists Will Give Mothers' Day Exhibit

Artists of Central Pennsylvania will exhibit more than 40 paintings and prints on the third floor of Main Engineering building until May 16.

The exhibition is designed especially for Mother's Day this week-end, Lucy Lederer, of State College will display her painting "Orchids," done expressly for the occasion.

Individual's Place in Promotion Of World Peace Held Essential

At a meeting in the Home Economics auditorium Tuesday evening, Mrs. Laura Puffer Morgan, Geneva correspondent, and the Rev. George L. Willets, Ohio youth leader, of the Emergency Peace Campaign, spoke on the problems of promoting world peace.

Reverend Willets outlined the task of the individual in working for peace. "First," he said, "the individual must study world problems and affairs, and learn the facts. So many of our opinions are second handed, often without factual foundation.

Summer Session To Open June 29

Dean Chambers Announces Over 400 Courses; Enrollment Increase Expected.

Dean Will G. Chambers of the School of Education, director of the summer sessions, announced today that the main term will extend from June 29 to August 7.

More than 400 courses will be available for study. More than 200 instructors will conduct the courses, including 138 members of the resident faculty, as well as 72 visiting instructors.

A large array of courses in education and psychology will be of particular interest to teachers. In addition to these, the Institute of French Education, under the direction of M. Frederik Ernst, of New York University, will be held.

Other departments represented include agricultural and biological chemistry, chemistry, dramatics, economics, English composition and literature, German, health and physical education, history, home economics, industrial education, political science, sociology, Spanish, and speech.

Among the courses of particular interest is one dealing with the problems of the recovery program which confronted the present Congress; a course in traffic safety and automobile operation; one in twentieth century drama; one in instruction and motivation in visual and other sensory aids in education; a course in scientific methods of teaching; and several sections in child study.

Dairy Science Contest

The Dairy Science association will close its annual dairy exposition with a contest tomorrow afternoon followed by a banquet at the Methodist church at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

49th Edition of 'La Vie' Ready For Distribution About May 25

The 1936 La Vie will be ready for distribution on or about May 25. Printing will be completed this week and the sheets will be shipped away for binding shortly, James H. Armstrong '36, editor, announced yesterday.

This, the forty-ninth edition, will in few respects resemble its predecessors of the last few years, Armstrong said. The current staff has felt that the general arrangements of the books since 1930 has been far too regular and this year's publication has been constructed with a view of escaping this arrangement.

In Play Lead Tonight

THOMAS S. FRANCIS '39

'Ah, Wilderness' To Open Tonight

Players Will Present O'Neill's Comedy in 2nd Showing Tomorrow Night.

Thomas S. Francis '39, who last appeared in "The Pursuit of Happiness," and Harvey Levin '39 will appear as father and son, respectively, in "Ah, Wilderness!", the nostalgic O'Neill comedy, which the Players are presenting in Schwab auditorium tonight and tomorrow night, at 8:30 o'clock, under the direction of Nellie B. Gravatt '34.

Levin makes his debut as Richard, the high school senior, whose affinity for forbidden literature and flair for the passionately dramatic, perplexes and troubles his parents.

Beatrice Conford '37, as the kindly confused mother, and Morton Wolowsky, transfer, as the good natured, drunken uncle, portray principal characters. Miss Conford appeared this season in "The Pursuit of Happiness" and "The Old Maid." Wolowsky made his bow in the latter production.

The play is set in a small Connecticut town in 1906. Every effort has been extended to make the production an authentic period show. Prof. Hummel Fishburn, of the department of music, in charge of the pit orchestra, will use music scored for that period.

The winning fraternity will receive two cups. One is awarded by the Forensic Council and is kept permanently by the winning team. Delta Sigma Rho, national debating fraternity, has given the other cup, which is passed to the new winner each year.

Lewis A. Steinhilber and Frederick L. Young, of Forensic Council, are in charge of the tournament. Fraternities entered are Beta Sigma Rho, Delta Upsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, Phi Epsilon Pi, Phi Sigma Delta, Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Chi, and Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Refuses To Pay Fine

Arthur A. Gottlieb '37 was committed to the borough lock-up for three days upon his failure to pay a $3 fine imposed upon him by Burgess Wilbur F. Leitzell for parking his car on the South Side of College avenue for over an hour. The hearing was held Wednesday night.

Gottlieb refused to pay the fine because he claimed he was financially unable, and because he thought the fine unjust.

Collegian Offers 3 Prizes in Word Competition

Free prizes will be awarded in the COLLEGIAN's misspelled word contest! It's no gag. Three prizes will be given to those who find the greatest amount of misspelled words in the advertisements in today's COLLEGIAN.

The first prize is an Arrow shirt, donated by Morris Fromm. The second prize of a pound box of Whitman's chocolates will be given by Rea and Devick. Warner Brothers offer a pair of movie tickets for third prize.

Entrants must list the misspelled words, the correct spelling, and the advertisement in which the errors are found, on a full sheet of paper as well as the number of mistakes found. Anyone is eligible to enter the contest with the exception of members of the COLLEGIAN staff and their families. Webster's Collegiate dictionary will be used to determine the winners.

New Automobile Regulatory Plans Sent to the Senate

Committee Draws Up License Ruling For All Cars.

Suspension of License Follows Mis-conduct

A new regulation governing student automobiles was recommended to the college senate yesterday by the Committee on Student Welfare composed of Deans Ralph L. Watts, Frank C. Whitmore, Will G. Chambers, Arthur R. Warnock, and Prof. Samuel B. Colgate.

Under this plan a student who desires to operate an automobile in the college community is required to obtain a license from the college authorities. This license is subject to suspension or revocation if the student violates campus traffic and parking regulations or is convicted of violating State or borough laws.

The license will be revoked if the owner uses his car in such a manner as to endanger the safety of others, or if it is a detriment to his scholarship, or an accessory to improper conduct.

After considerable investigation and study the committee approved the proposal of the car licensing plan, which is similar to that now practiced in many institutions. The recommendation will meet final action at the June meeting of the senate and will replace Student Regulation 74 for a trial period of two years.

Since the plan is experimental and subject to changes in details, the committee thought it desirable that it be put into effect by administrative order and not incorporated in senate regulations at the present time. If the ruling is ratified by the senate, it will go into effect beginning this fall.

P.S.C.A. Lodge Named For Dean R. L. Watts

The Christian Association cabin, formerly known as the Andy Lytle cabin, was re-named the "Dean Ralph Watts Lodge" in honor of Dean Ralph L. Watts, of the agriculture school, at the sixtieth anniversary dinner in the sandwich shop, Old Main, recently.

The new name, authorized by the cabinet and the board of directors, was made in recognition of Dean Watts' fifteen years membership on the board of directors.

Six persons were newly elected to the board of directors of the association to fill vacancies of members whose term expired this year. The new directors are Mrs. Frank W. Haller, secretary of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs; R. Paul Campbell, of Bellefonte; Prof. Elwood C. Davis, of the school of physical education; Willard P. Lewis, College librarian; Prof. Clarence O. Williams, of the school of physical education; and Prof. Harlan N. Worthley, of the department of zoology and entomology.

Torrid Tempos To Tear Tower Off Old Main at Jazz Jamboree

By WALT FREUNSCHE "The Record Cropper" You like Goodman? You've heard of Fletcher Henderson? You can appreciate a "ride" trumpet in contrast to the flutery bronze peckings of Hal Kemp? You realize that the Armstrong of today is not the man he used to be? Good; you are cordially invited to the first all-College, honest-to-God jam session, calculated to rip the roof off Old Main directly above Room 405, between the hours of 7 and 9, this Monday night.

You think Gardner's sax is swell? Eddy Duchin's piano thrills you to the very core? You thought Pio-Rito had a swell band? Sorry; you won't feel a bit at home and frankly, you'll want to be back listening to Lombardo Road. And that will serve you right, too. If you're willing to give hot jazz a try, however, come along. Converts are always desirable.

Six of the hottest jamsters on this campus are prepared to swing out and cut capers in much the same fashion as they do in the murky atmosphere of the hot spots on Gotham's West 52nd street. Jim Minium will preside at the piano and his depressions of the horse teeth are something to listen to. Jay Lodsman will beat the dog-house, if I may coin a phrase, or better still, is slated to agitate the strings of the bull fiddle. Rudy Rudick and his eloquent six-stringed guitar will round out the rhythm section. Roge Grube, specialist in trumpet licks and wicked horn figures, will be on deck, as will Norm Houseman, who aims to prove that the heat generated by a sax is of high caloric value. Ernest Paul Doff swings a mean clarinet (oh, all right—gobble pipe, then), and if the ghost of Frank Teschmaker hovers about, he won't be too annoyed with what he hears.

Mothers' Day Celebration Will Attract 1000 Guests To Campus This Week-end

Cap, Gown Committee Will Open Order Week

College Will Combine Annual Scholarship Day, Chapel.

Dr. Hetzel To Award John W. White Prizes

Orders for senior caps and gowns should be made at the Athletic Store next week from Monday until Friday, Albert C. Herbert '36 and Milton D. Lieberman '36, co-chairmen of the cap and gown committee, announced today. Daily hours for orders are from 11 o'clock until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, except at lunch hour.

A $5 deposit will be required and the entire amount will be refunded when the caps and gowns are turned in following commencement. This is the first time that the entire deposit will be refunded, a service charge being deducted in previous years.

Pan-Hellenic Unit Holds Ceremony

Jean H. Schantz Is Installed As President; Outlines Year's Program.

The Pan-Hellenic Council held its installation banquet in the Old Main Sandwich Shop last night, at which time Jean H. Schantz '37, Kappa Alpha Theta, was installed as president by the out-going president, Gretchen H. Diehl '36, Kappa Kappa Gamma. Gelsie R. Ferdinand '37, Theta Phi Alpha, secretary, and Helen M. Clymer '37, Alpha Omicron Pi, the new treasurer, were also installed.

As chapel speaker for the occasion, Dr. Ralph W. Soekman, pastor of the Christ Methodist Episcopal Church of New York City, has been secured. His subject will be "The Law of Thy Mother." Prof. John Henry Frizzell, head of the division of speech and college chaplain, will conduct the chapel portion of the service.

Blue Band Will Play The College Blue Band of 80 pieces under the direction of Maj. Wilford O. Thompson, bandmaster, will play, and the College Choir of 110 voices, directed by Professor Grant, will sing.

The Honor Society Council that is sponsoring the Scholarship services expects a near-overflow crowd for the first combined meeting. Last year as many mothers and friends were turned away as were seated. At the meeting, the names of the elected members of the many campus honorary fraternities will be released. The names of the pledged men will appear in the next issue of the COLLEGIAN.

Miss Ray To Give Tea The office of the Dean of Women, Miss Charlotte Ray, will present a tea in honor of the mothers in the second floor lounge of Old Main from 2 until 4:30 o'clock. In the receiving line will be Mrs. Ralph D. Hetzel, Mrs. Arthur R. Warnock, Dr. Hannah Lyons, Mrs. H. M. Turner, Miss Chase, Anna Mary Soisson '36, and Sara I. Moyer '36.

Heads of the committees in charge of the tea include Mary Louise Clippinger '36, serving; Doris H. Jones, flowers; Miss Katherine Phelps, assistant Dean of Women, music; Sara Belle Reese '36, ushering; and Doris P. Ruth '36, receiving.

The mothers of the 12 outstanding seniors will pour. They had not been selected as the COLLEGIAN went to press.

Twelve girls will sing for the mothers under the direction of Willa C. Williamson, instructor of the department of music. They are Margaret L. Bean '38, Helen M. Bittner '37, Julia M. Brandt '38, Mary J. Case '38, Alma J. Doran '37, Anne K. Hall '38, M. Jean Kalar '38, Jane A. Parker '38, Mary C. Stetler '38, Barbara M. Troxell '37, Virginia Weevil, and Anne F. Wilhelm '37.

Home games by the varsity lacrosse team, the tennis team, and the freshman baseball team will interest the mothers who come tomorrow. The Lion lacrosse ten will face Cornell on New Beaver field at 2:30 o'clock, the net squad will meet Bucknell on the varsity courts at 2 o'clock, and the frosh nine will play Kiski on the baseball diamond at 2 o'clock.

Another feature for the early arrivals will be presentations of the play, "Ah, Wilderness!", by the Players in Schwab auditorium tonight and tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock.

Graduation Invitations

Orders for invitations, announcements and programs for graduation will be taken every day until May 13, from 8 to 12 o'clock and 1 to 5 o'clock, except tomorrow afternoon. All orders will be taken at the Student Union desk, must be paid in advance. The prices of the invitations and announcements are five cents each while the programs sell for 50 cents each.
