Morini Elected President Of A.A.; Richter Selected Secretary in Re-balloting

Sunday Named to Post
Of Vice-President;
Ritzie Defeated.

None of 5 Candidates
Gets Majority Monday

Robert E. Morini '37 was elected president, and Israel L. Richter '37 was chosen secretary of the Athletic Association for the year 1936-37 at the re-elections held in Old Main lobby on Tuesday. Levey M. Sunday '37, will be vice-president of the organization for the next year.

Morini received 554 votes, while his opponent, Sunday, was given 247 votes. A total of 454 ballots were cast for Richter and Louis J. Ritzie '37, the other candidate for secretary, received 329 votes.

2nd Election Required

The second election was necessitated because no one of the original five candidates received a majority of votes in the balloting held on Monday. Morini and Sunday polled the highest number among the nominees for president and Richter and Ritzie received the most votes for the secretarial position.

Seven hundred and seventy-two students cast ballots in the election on Monday. Morini polled 314 votes; Sunday 151 votes; William P. Rhoda '37, 106 votes; Roy L. Schuyler '37, 124 votes, and John H. Calvin '37, 41 votes for the presidency. On the ballot for secretary, Richter received 277 votes, Ritzie 210 votes, and Howard A. Downey '37, 201 votes.

At the re-vote taken the following day, 801 students entered the polls, which was 39 more than voted in the elections Monday. No amendments were placed on the ballot this year. Voting machines were used here for the first time for elections of athletic officers.

Student Board Asks
To Hold Major Dance
During 1st Semester

A recommendation to have one of the major dance dates moved up to the first semester was submitted to Student Union by Student Board after their meeting this week.

The board said they made their recommendation to increase the time between major dances. It was expected that this move would result in more satisfactory financial results.

The Saturday of the Penn weekend, November 14, will be the official football holiday, the board decided at the meeting.

Because of trouble encountered last fall in organizing student tribunal, the board recommended that Student Council revise certain provisions in the constitution. The changes recommended by the board provide that two seniors from Student Council and one from Student Board be elected to Tribunal. Formerly the constitution did not provide for a third man.

The next year's Tribunal will be organized immediately so that it will be ready to function as soon as the fall term opens.

At the meeting, George W. Haines '37 was elected secretary of the board for the coming year.

Penn State Club Plans
Outing at Shingletown

A "spring outing" hike to Shingletown Gap will be held by the Penn State club this Sunday. A mixed party will leave the first floor lounge of Old Main at 2 o'clock.

Refreshments will be served when the party reaches Shingletown and later a campfire will be built. After this, a treasure hunt will be held. There will be no assessment for the hike and everyone is invited. Miss Catherine Phelps, dean of freshman women, will act as chaperone for the affair. In the event of rain the hike will be postponed until a later date.

Jr. Prom Report Reveals Deficit

Senior Ball Nets $241.98 Profit;
$1350 Paid to Ted Fio-Rito,
$400 To Decorate.

An estimated deficit of $168.14 was reported by the Junior Prom committee, headed by Samuel A. Breen '37, to the Interclass Finance committee, according to statistics released yesterday.

The total income of the dance was $2,870.15 while the expenditures amounted to $3,038.29. The largest single item of expense was that of music, supplied by Ted Fio-Rito and his orchestra, which totaled $1,335.00. The next largest expenditure was for decorations which cost $400. The tax on admissions (less 2% on State tax) was $361.61 and the cost of programs was $205.

742 Couples Attended

Approximately 742 couples attended the dance, 632 of that number paying $3.51 plus tax, and 110 admitted complimentary tickets.

The dance was the second one this year to lose money, the other one being Soph Hop on March 6. Senior Ball with Kay Kyser and his orchestra, netted a profit of $241.98. At that dance Kyser's orchestra was paid $900, and decorations cost $300. Last year Junior Prom with Grey and his Casa Loma orchestra showed a profit of $1,691.78.

Senior Baccalaureate Planned for June 7

Commencement Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday, June 7, at 4 o'clock in Recreation hall. It will be conducted in the manner of a regular chapel service and there will be no processionals. On Monday, graduates will assemble at 2 o'clock at their respective main buildings. The procession will start moving at 2:15 o'clock towards Recreation hall.

Within the next week an instruction sheet will be distributed through departmental heads to graduating students.

After Commencement exercises, the students will participate in an academic recessional back to the front campus of Old Main where brief closing exercises will be followed by dismissal.

Administration Composes New Hell Week Code

IF Council To Consider
Plan at Meeting
Tuesday at 4.

Council Has Last Say In Adoption of Code

The Council of Administration at its weekly meeting on Monday approved the recommendations submitted by the committee investigating Hell Week practices, and sent them to George E. Hacker '37 for action by Interfraternity Council. The council will meet Tuesday to act on the plan which proposes to eliminate Hell Week.

I. F. Council must produce the machinery for the enforcement of the regulations which bar initiation practices of the fraternities and other student organizations. The Council of Administration's approval leaves final adoption in the hands of the fraternity governing group.

I. F. Council In Charge

Students who served on the committee were: George E. Hacker '37, chairman; Walter S. Wiggin '37, George J. Haines '37, Samuel A. Breane '37, William Scarlett '37, and Robert K. McQuiston '37. Faculty members of the committee were Prof. Marsh W. White, of the department of physics, Edward J. Nichols, of the English composition department, and John R. Richards.

In an interview, Hacker said: "The move is such a big one that it will be forecast in what manner it will be received by most of the fraternities. Tuesday's meeting will decide whether the full program will be followed, or whether only certain phases will be adopted gradually."

Senior Co-eds To Hold Dinner Dance May 22

Senior women will hold their annual formal dinner dance at the Nittany Lion Inn, Friday, May 22, at 7 o'clock. During the banquet, the six honor women of the senior class will be announced.

The dance was the second one this year to lose money, the other one being Soph Hop on March 6. Senior Ball with Kay Kyser and his orchestra, netted a profit of $241.98. At that dance Kyser's orchestra was paid $900, and decorations cost $300. Last year Junior Prom with Grey and his Casa Loma orchestra showed a profit of $1,691.78.

Honorary Names Head

Alpha Tau Alpha, national honorary agricultural education fraternity, held its elections for the coming year at meeting Sunday, choosing Robert B. Sterett '37 president. Other officers are Ralph S. DeTuck '37, vice-president; Joseph E. Simon '37, secretary and agricultural student council representative; John F. Frazer '37, and Kenneth Mowry '37, sergeant-at-arms.

Honor Names Head

The coverage of events will be complete. Twelve pages, devoted to such occasions as Alumni Day, May Day, the Sigma Delta Chi dance, etc., are typical happenings that have been covered. Sections devoted to the big fall, winter, and spring events are included.

A two-page spread of Penn State champions, such as Russ Criswell, Izzy Richter, Frankie Goodman, Samby Wolfson, Jack Light, and others, has been laid out. A number of champions this year adds to the effectiveness of this section.

Another two pages of outstanding individual men aside from those shown in the personality section have been prepared. And in addition a section of representative personages has been compiled. These parts, added to the other sections of individuals, have been used to give La Vie a particular interest to students whose outstanding activity in college life have been worthy of merit.

The eight campus belles, as selected by Kirkbridge, will each be given a full page spread. Over-laid script names will be used, and the background will be dark green. The por-

Monday Noon Selected For Invitation Deadline

Monday noon has been set at the deadline for invitations for commencement. Robert J. Devaney '36 and Alexander G. Morris '36, co-chairmen of the invitation committee announced today. These invitations may be procured at the Student Union desk all day today, tomorrow morning, and Monday morning.

The deadline has been extended until Monday inasmuch as only about one-half of the seniors have called for their invitations. The chairmen feel that many more desire the commencement tickets, but have not yet bothered to call for them.

Classes Excused For ROTC Fete

monies will be the transfer of command, at which time the cadet of the communication stated. All students, faculty and visitors are cordially invited to witness the ceremony and in case inclement weather forces postponement, a distinctive flag will be flown from the Armoryard 3 o'clock classes will be held as usual, Lt. Washbourne's dispatch included.

Senior Class Chooses Traditional Hair Men

Members of the senior class met Thursday night and elected the following honor men for this day:

Spoon Man—J. Brig Pruitt
Barrel Man—Willia D. Bortolotte
Cane Man—Joseph Swift
Clase Donor—Joseph F. Lauicus
Pipe Orator—Harry B. Henderson Jr.

Peter Lektrich was chosen permanent secretary. At Tuesday's meeting, the class gift to the College was discussed. A final decision will be announced later. Suggestions included a newgav, and the starting of a department of astronomy here. Honor men will be named at a banquet May 22.

N.Y.A. Requests For '36-'37 Year Acceptable Now

Parent's Certification
Needed To Secure
Employment.

Applications Received At Registrar's Office

N. Y. A. applications from students now in college who desire to secure employment during the academic year 1936-37 will be received in the Registrar's office, beginning today. Application blanks can only be obtained by calling in person. One student cannot secure a form for another.

All questions must be answered fully and certification must be obtained from the student and his parent or guardian. The College has not been notified that Federal funds will be available, but preliminary plans for the N. Y. A. set-up will be inaugurated.

Jobs Based On Enrollment

The number of jobs will be based on enrollment, and preference will be given on the basis of need, scholarship, and employment rating. The nature of the work will be the same as that carried on in the past. Prospective students for the 1940 class will not be contacted until official notification has been received from Washington.

If the plan is to be continued, those whose applications have been approved will be notified by mail at their home address. The allotment of funds to each college will be 15 per cent of its total enrollment of resident students who carried at least three-fourths of a normal program of study. The pay shall not be more than $20 per calendar month. The approximate maximum of money that one can earn will be $60 a semester, or $120 a year.

Blue Band Elects
Fritz President

Sammel '37 Selected Secretary;

Bell Business Manager

For Next Year.

Kenneth L. Fritz '37 was elected president of the Blue Band at the annual May meeting of the symphonic organization Tuesday night. He succeeds Forrest W. Hunsicker '36, who has served as president of the band for the past year.

John F. Sammel '37 was named secretary of the organization, succeeding James O. Beveridge '36, while Henry H. Bell '37 was elected to the post of business manager, holding during the past year by Olin F. Butt '36.

Audit Committee Chosen

Following the presentation of the financial report of the band by Bandmaster Wilfred O. Thompson, an auditing committee composed of Samuel, Robert W. Dallas '37, and Bell was named to audit the books for the band.

Professor Frizzell received his bachelor's degree at Amherst College and his master's degree here. He was an instructor in this college for 18 years, and was then appointed principal of a Reading high school. In 1926, he returned here to teach public speaking.

As an author, Prof. Frizzell has written several articles on public speaking. He is executive secretary and editor of the "Bulletin," a monthly publication of the National Council of Teachers of English, the National Council of Teachers of English, the American Association of University Professors, and the Debating Association of Pennsylvania Colleges. Prof. Frizzell is a member of Phi Kappa Psi social fraternity.

Lion Suit Sale To End

John J. Chelosky '36, chairman of the Lion Suits committee, announces that today and tomorrow will be the last opportunity for the purchasing of Lion suits. Chelosky states that he has stocks for both women and men in all sizes. All seniors who care to buy them will make the purchase at Stark Brothers and Harper.

The clipper of the graduation ceremony will be the transfer of command, at which time the cadet of the communication stated. All students, faculty and visitors are cordially invited to witness the ceremony and in case inclement weather forces postponement, a distinctive flag will be flown from the Armoryard 3 o'clock classes will be held as usual, Lt. Washbourne's dispatch included.

The hounds are afraid, from the way that the mob consistently applauded the wrong things, that few true converts were made of the three hundred odd that stormed Old Main last Monday night. But it was good clean fun and now a few more know:

That Fred Housman can ride that keyboard didn't belie advance reports. The small rhythm section needed some one at the box to give them a beat and they got it. His solos, especially the "Wabash Blues," had people really steamed up.

That Rose Grube set a frenzied pace on his bit of plumbing that helped everyone get into the spirit of things. The few conventional licks he fell into the error of using can be forgiven on the grounds that the galloping was so big no one could resist it. His second contribution to "Tiger Rag" more than made up for some of the lapses.

That Jay Lodsun puts on a swell show, and that when he gives that swollen fiddle a going-over, the boys just have to give. The hounds wanted
