

Spring Sports Schedule Nears Close This Week-end With 5 Teams in Action

Lacrosse Team Ready for Army In New York Invasion Tomorrow

By FRANCIS H. SZYMCAK
Penn State's varsity lacrosse team meets another tough opponent when it invades West Point to battle the Army tomorrow. The Pointers' record plus two all-Americans in their line-up gives them a comfortable edge for victory. The season ends in a home game against the highly favored Marylanders on May 30. The freshmen ten will finish their two-game schedule when they cross sticks with the Maryland frosh as a preliminary to the varsity encounter.

John Kilfoil, veteran defense, is definitely out for the season. John suffered a torn tendon, and buckled blood vessel in the Cornell game. He has played good defensive ball all season and his experience is a great asset to the team. He will be graduated in June.

The defense will meet another supreme test when they face the Army

Crossin's Hit Climaxes 9th Inning Rally

By JERRY WEINSTEIN
Climaxing a ninth-inning rally with Don Crossin's pinch single, Penn State's winning ball team squeezed out a 9 to 8 victory over Bucknell on New Beaver field Wednesday.

With the score 8 to 6 in the Bisons' favor, Rabbit Wear started off the ninth frame by drawing a walk. John Boho, who replaced Joe Bielicki in right field after the latter had sprained his ankle sliding into second in the first inning, singled to send the Rabbit to third. Mike Kornick's beautiful hit scored Wear and Boho took third.

Still trailing by a run, Red O'Hara came to bat with two on. Bucknell's pitcher hit Red and the bases were loaded. Mel Vonarx, up next, lined a hard-hit ball between first and second. Bucknell's second sacker made a beautiful catch, doubling Red off first.

Captain Pero Miller was on a spot, for a hit meant the ball game. He hit a slow grounder to third. But the throw to first was wide and Boho came in with the tying run, Kornick taking third. All this just set the stage for Crossin, who batted for Waters. He lined a single into short right field that broke up the game.

Frank Smith, who relieved Ben Simoncelli in the fourth, was the winning pitcher. The game was a seesaw affair, with Bucknell ahead most of the time. State collected fifteen hits, while the Bisons had thirteen. Bucknell also used two pitchers.

To-Play Four Games
Tomorrow's game with Temple marks the first of four remaining contests for the season. On Wednesday, the Lions meet Muhlenberg here, and next Saturday, face Bucknell in a return showing at Lewisburg. Syracuse will close the schedule on Saturday of Commencement week-end.

Temple's record this season shows nothing very impressive. The Philadelphia school dropped games to Navy, Villanova, and Gettysburg, as did the Lions.

Coach Joe Bedenk intends to use the same line-up that has gone through what promises to be a very successful year with a record of nine wins in thirteen attempts. A possible mound choice for tomorrow's fray is Bill Ford, big sophomore righthander, who has not appeared in any games this year. He had a successful season with Leo Houck's freshmen last year.

Between The Lions

By DOB GRUBB
The last issue of this year's COLLEGIAN goes to press without being able to announce, or even forecast with any reasonable degree of accuracy, who the new basketball coach might be. The final decision will probably not be made until the personnel committee of the Athletic Board of Control meets on June 6.

Latest rumor in local sporting circles concerns Blair Gullion, basketball and track coach at the University of Tennessee, as a likely candidate. Gullion, whose southern school team won the conference championship last year, came here this week for an interview. His first coaching job was at Little Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana, where his teams defeated both Purdue and Indiana.

So far, nine out of ten candidates considered have been coaches from mid-western schools and it seems reasonable to believe that the final selection will be made from that sector.

An idea of what Bob Rutherford's golf team would have been like had several of the veteran linksmen returned to school this year may be gained from the performance of Billy Hyndman, freshman here last year, in breaking the Old York Road Country Club record to win the Ehnke tournament in Philadelphia the other day. Hyndman not only shattered the course record but set what is believed to be a new national amateur record by doing the first eighteen in 63-out in 28 an back in 35.

Johnny Calvin, who held down the 165-pound berth on the Lion wrestling team last season, passed the aeronautical board's test for his amateur pilot's license. He's been flying since last fall. Lefty Knapp, former Lion halfback, is one of those lucky seniors who has a job. He'll be assistant phys. ed. director of Royersford high school and will coach all athletics. It is no secret on the Hill at Syracuse that Eddie O'Brien's back pain, which was serious enough to keep him out of the track meet here last week, is causing alarm. He may not compete in the A. C. A. championships at Philadelphia next week as Coach Tom Keane would prefer to close all meets rather than take a chance with his Olympic hope.

Trackmen Vie Against Army In Final Meet

By FRANK TITLOW
Army's veteran, undefeated track team will oppose the Lion runners in their last dual meet of the season at West Point tomorrow afternoon.

So far this year, State has defeated West Virginia and Syracuse, and lost by five points to Pittsburgh. A victory tomorrow would finish up a great season, but the chances are slim.

It would be an upset if his team won, according to "Chick" Werner. Jim Redmond is making the trip but will probably have to confine himself to the high jump. His absence in the hurdles and broad jump will be sorely felt.

Layne Stars in Sprints
Army looks strongest in the sprints, where they have Layne and Reeves. Both of these men do under 10 flat for the hundred. In a dual meet with Boston College three weeks ago, Layne broke both Academy sprint records, doing 9.7 in the hundred and 21.8 in the 220. Art John and Dave Bauer meet these tornadoes in the 100, while John, and Stiteler or Downey will probably run the furlong.

Bernie Ozeheski, who has been improving steadily in the pole vault, will have his hands full with Kloek and Jackson, a pair of 13-footers. In the high jump Redmond and Jay McWilliams, who came out for the first time last Saturday and took a first, will meet Army's Willis, who gets over six feet.

Pete Olexy, just about in the pink by now, meets his acid test in the mile and two-mile. Army has two smooth veterans, McManus, who can do a 4:20 mile and Hubbard a 9:40 two-miler. Perry is usually right on McManus' heels in the two-mile.

Bauer, Thompson, and Osterland, if they're right, should tally strongly in both hurdles. Downey and Baird meet Cadet Davis, capable of 49, in the quarter. In the half, Mark Kowitz, and Stiteler run against Brown, who does better than two minutes.

Tennis Team Concludes Season With Panther, Tartan Matches

By STEVE CAMPBELL
The Nittany Lion tennis team will leave today for Pittsburgh where they will conclude their 1936 season against the Tartans of Carnegie Tech and the Panthers of Pittsburgh.

A Lion victory over Tech appears probable in view of Carnegie's unsuccessful invasion last year and its rather mediocre season this year. Tech has lost several matches, including those to Pitt, W. and J., Allegheny, and others. On the other hand they hold two victories over Duquesne University.

It is always disagreeable to predict a defeat in the last match of the season, but all dope points to a Pitt victory tomorrow. Pitt has been impressive all year, and have yet to taste defeat. The Panthers, strongly armed with star performers, have downed such teams as W. and J., Carnegie, Grove City, Bethany, and others with ease.

Undoubtedly the feature match of the day will be that in which Paul Massey, State sensation, and the Panther star, Bob Madden, tangle. Smart money must go, of course, on Madden, who has really cut a swath in collegiate and amateur tennis circles, but smart money has been wrong before. After the tennis that Massey has displayed so far this year

PIAA Track Meet Here Tomorrow

Eleven Districts To Send Teams To Try for Championship Of Pennsylvania.

The state's best in schoolboy track and field men will be unleashed tomorrow on New Beaver field for the event they've been pointing for all year, the P. I. A. A. state championships. Preliminary trials begin at 10 o'clock and the finals start at 2. Eleven districts in the state are sending men in Class A and B. Last Saturday the district championships were held, and the first and second place winners in each event won the right to come here for the state meet.

Some sparkling times and distances were turned in by the winners. Witness Kinzle, of Altoona, who stepped over the 220 low hurdles in the record-breaking time of 23.8 seconds. A team mate, Ammerman, trotted in at the finish of a mile and still did 4:30.

State College high school has some potential champs in Hartman, who runs the 100, in 10.1, Maurer, a 22-foot broad-jumper, and Hosterman, a sophomore who has been getting in the low 23's for the 220. The local team took second to Altoona in the District 6 meet last Saturday.
