Thespians Affiliated With Dep't. of Music

Thespians, the popular musical comedy club, which heretofore has been an independent organization, has recently become affiliated with the College under the department of music.

Members of the student board of control include Don E. Dixon '37, president, Jack M. Reamer '37 and J. Lloyd Larkins '37. Director Grant of the department of music, Dean Charles W. Stoddart, of the school of liberal arts, J. Ewing Kennedy and Bert Kinley have been appointed faculty advisors of the organization. The first Thespian show of this season will be staged at Fall House-party. An announcement of tryouts will appear in the next COLLEGIAN.

P. S. Radio Amateurs Join Army's Network

WLMA, the amateur radio station of the College, has received notice it has been approved to serve for two more years as alternate net control for the Army amateur radio system. Notification came from Capt. W. H. Minchler, liaison officer in charge of the Army traffic center, Washington, D. C.

WLMA, which is pressed into duty in time of emergency, helped in the mobilization of the Pennsylvania National Guard during the March floods.

Slusser Selected As Grid Trainer

Another "outstanding athlete" has returned to Penn State in advisory capacity.

Tommy Slusser, who received the coveted award in 1933, has been selected trainer for the Penn State varsity football team. Slusser succeeds Charlie Spidel, who held the post for six years.

In the 1932-33 academic year, Slusser captained both the football and boxing teams. In his junior year, he was runner up for light-heavyweight honors.

Last year, Slusser served as football coach at East Liverpool, Ohio.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By FRANCIS SZYMCAK

Eugen C. Bischoff, as faculty adviser of the Intramural Board, is putting the finishing touches to the intramural program for the fall which will consist of tag football, horse-shoes, and cross-country. Bill Smith will act as the fall seasonal manager.

The "intramural schedule of athletics for all" is supervised by the Student Intramural Advisory Council consisting of Leroy Sunday '37, chairman; Robert Morini '37, president of Athletic Association; Johnson Brennenman '37, editor of the COLLEGIAN; Frank Osterlund '37, president of the senior class.

Other members are William E. Smith '37, fall seasonal manager; William H. Alexander '37, winter manager; Robert J. Latschaw '37, spring manager; Donald E. Householder '37, permanent secretary; and Director Hugo Bezdek, ex-officio. A non-fraternity member has not been named as yet.

Representative teams from the various fraternities, halls, dormitories, and Penn State Club compete for the team championships. Appropriate trophies or individual awards are given to the winners. The Bezdek Trophy, symbolic of intramural championship, is awarded on the point system of activity in intramural and intercollegiate sports. Last year the award went to Phi Delta Theta.

Within a short time the Intramural Board will meet to accept nominations and select the managers for the current fall season. These managers will arrange the schedules, select the list of officials who will officiate, and designate the time and places of all contests.

To give every student the benefit of competitive and recreative games and sports, the College furnishes playing fields, the use of Recreation hall, and also the equipment which is needed. From its early organization by Director Hugo Bezdek, of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, the intramural competition has expanded to the new height of 400 teams participating in the various sports during the 1935-36 season. Four thousand students had a chance to play the games they enjoy.

P. S. Club to be Host At Alumni Banquet

The Penn State Club has been designated by the College administration to act as host for the non-fraternity Alumni banquet to be held on October 10 at 6 o'clock in the Old Main Sandwich Shop.

The Penn State Club has opened its new club room in room 321, Old Main. The non-fraternity men who have not visited the club room yet are cordially invited to do so.

Since the beginning of Freshman Week, approximately sixty new members have been added to the roster, the treasurer of the club announced. The club has been making plans for the coming year, which will include dancing classes, a non-fraternity house-party dance, all-college dances, and a program for intramural sports.

All Cross-Country Candidates Called

Varsity and freshmen who are interested in trying out for the cross country teams are requested to report this afternoon, according to Chick Werner, cross country and track coach.

Students who are interested in the sport need have had no high school record in order to try for the team. This point is stressed since in past years, some very fine athletes have held no high school records, and some who had never been out for the particular sport before coming to college.

Announcement has also been made that fall track practice will begin in the near future. It will last about three weeks.

William E. Smith '37, manager of track has issued a call that all candidates for second-assistant manager positions should report to him at Recreation Hall at 4 o'clock this afternoon.
