

Aero Club To Organize Under Morris Way '37

The Penn State Aero Club, under the leadership of Morris Way '37, will hold its first meeting of the year this evening in Room 107, Main Engineering, at 6:30 o'clock.

Last year over 500 flights were made without mishap in the club-owned Waco glider at the State College Air Depot.

Court Aspirants Begin Fall Work

While fall sports teams shivered with the winter rains, Coach John Lawther and his large squad of basketball players seemed in season as they worked out twice daily in Recreation hall.

With freshmen working out in the afternoons and the varsity aspirants limbering up at night, the new Lion court mentor has taken on an ambitious program for pre-season training. On the yearling squad, sixty or more have reported. Approximately thirty men have reported for the varsity.

Although Coach Lawther was hesitant about making any predictions after so short a period of practice, several players have caught the former Westminster mentor's fancy. It will take some time before he is able to carefully examine each man as he intends to do.

Among the veterans who have been working out, Co-captain Mike Kornick, Jack Reichenbach, Herb Peterson, Chuck Glennon, Joe Proksa, and Jay McWilliams have been seen.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By FRANCIS SZYMCAK

The All-College Golf Tournament participants have been bracketed for the first matches. The first or "championship" flight includes Stevenson vs. Walker; Elder vs. Wetterman; Weaver vs. Markley; Albere vs. Bennett; Hebda vs. McHaffey; Burkett vs. Gross.

Five entries have qualified with 51's. It is necessary for a play-off to choose the two lowest who will meet Gottle or Provost of the first sixteen.

The remaining three will play in the second flight against Engerton, Machmer, or Ferre. The remaining matches of the second sixteen include Wenger vs. Barney; Siegler vs. Green; Chambers vs. Patterson; Robb vs. Cien; and Snyder vs. Casselberry.

The third sixteen is composed of Beck vs. Buch; Nulle vs. Bevan; Graves vs. Henderson; Williams vs. Peab; Ellen vs. McNeely. Byes were drawn by Gren, Spanau, and Warnock.

In the only first match played to date Co-captain Bennett defeated Co-captain Albere of the varsity, 3 and 2. The match was very close with Bennett shooting a 72, while Albere came through with a 75.

The rainy weather of the season has caused postponement of nearly all the first round matches, but it is necessary that all initial matches be completed by Sunday.

During the tournament an important regulation will be the adherence to "stymies." The winner of the first sixteen will have a choice between a cup and medal, while the two other winners will be awarded medals.

X-Country Team Starts Hill Work

By WOODY BIERLY

Rain did not stop State's cross-country team during the early part of this week. Despite the wet weather the harriers were out, continuing to practice in preparation for the first meet of the 1936 season, the Lehigh encounter on October 17.

The trials have not been held up to this time, although the period of "getting in shape" is almost at an end. The squad is slowly shaping up, and although it isn't so large, it is believed that the harriers will show some quality.

Practice on Hills

The hare and hound race that was scheduled for last Wednesday afternoon, was not held on account of the rainy weather, although the boys were out running. Plans called for the race to be held yesterday afternoon.

Coach Werner has the harriers practicing on hills just now. They're getting into condition to run up and down the grades and it is probable that they will practice on the hills in the vicinity of the Centre Hills country club before next week.

Co-Edits

The Beta Phi chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta is issuing a quarterly magazine, "The Beta Phi," edited by Georgia H. Powers '38, and published by J. P. Cochran of the Stewart Howe Alumnae Association. The paper will be sent to the alumnae and national officers of the fraternity.
