BULLETIN

The condition of Whitey Rhoda was vastly improved, Bellefonte Hospital officials said at press time, 8 o'clock Monday. His burns are progressing nicely, it was reported, and the danger of lockjaw infection that was feared last week has been removed by an effective serum treatment. Doctors are so pleased with his recovery that they are planning to free him from his bed in the near future.

Student Council voted last week to help take care of "Whitey" Rhoda.

'In an action unprecedented in Council activity, the body legislated to pay from one-third to one-half, as necessary, of the nursing bills for the burned Lion athlete in the Bellefont hespital

Performance of Nittany Soccer Eleven in Opener Promises Topnotch Team

McEwan Leads Lions In Shutout Victory Over Bucknell

Tallies 4, Osterlund 2 To Halt Bison Booters

By JERRY WEINSTEIN

Although it will take stronger op-position to make a final decision, Coach Bill Jeffrey thinks he has another topnotch soccer team this year That the forward line is amon best in Lion history, there is no doubt. In scoring six goals against Bucknell Saturday, the wings exhibited an intricate passing attack that had a veteran Bison team buffaloed throughout.

As for the novice halfbacks, Coach Jeffrey was more than surprised with their performance. They fed the forwards like a tried aggregation. The defense clicked on the few occasions it was necessary, and never in the entire game was there any serious threat from Bucknell.

McEwan scored the first goal on a penalty kick that eluded the goalie by going into the left corner.

The second goal came a few minutes later, culininating some fast passing by Frank Osterlund, veteran wing. Osterlund and McEwan teamed and with short, accurate passing, brought the ball from midfield through the entire Bucknell team. Os-scored two more before the half ended to boost the Fenn State total to five. The first of the Lion captain's second-period goals came as his first, on a penalty kick. The second resulted from a play unprecedented on the soccer field in many years. McEwan took the ball from Bucknell defenders zear the net by jumping high into the air. He then headed the ball into a high are, so that it dropped into the left corner out of reach of into the left corner out of reach of the Bison goalie.

Pcnn State's attack practically stopped in the second half, with Mc-Ewan getting the lone score. There Ewan getting the lone score. Incre was no point in running up any more goals against a veteran but weak opponent cleven. Coach Jeffrey used his substitutes at will and instructed the entire team to concentrate on passing, which they did with more skill than could be expected in an expension grame.

opening game.

A strong head wind also prevented scoring. It was to the wings' credit that six goals were counted, most of which came against the wind. The which came against the wind. The four veterans, McEwan, Osterlund, Carl Wacker and Sol Michoff, aided by a newcomer, Dick Wilde, performed in a highly commendable manner. Both Wacker and Michoff exhibited as fine a finesse as was ever seen at Penn State.

Aiding the attackers was the half-back line. Eddie Mandel, who is slowly acquiring Jeffrey's style of play, showed an aggressiveness that was always effective. Walt Painter played well throughout, while the other newcomer, Freddy Spyker, performed favorably.

When a strong defense was needed, the veteran fullback, Phil Barnes, was there to htop Bucknell. Bill Borda played well in his first varsity encounter. The new goalie, Dick

Choice of Study Affects Failure

Dean Sackett Heads Committee In Study of Vocational Need For Student Guidance

That more students leave college at the end of their first year because of the wrong choice of study rather than because of poor scholarship, financial difficulties, or other reasons, was indicated after a two-year study by a committee of the Engineer's Council for Professional Development, of which Dean Robert L. Sackett, of the School of Engineering is chairman. School of Engineering, is chairman.
