INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By FRANCIS SZYMCAK

Due to the large number of injuries in the intramural football tournament this fall, the following rules have been made to apply to the remaining games:

1. The ball carrier is downed when he is touched by one hand of an opposing player.
2. There are to be no "flying" blocks or other rough playing. (Penalty for infractions will be 15 yards.)
3. The games shall consist of four 10 minute quarters, instead of the past 12 minute rules.

Quarter final results in the football competition: Phi Delta Theta won over Beta Theta Pi, 6-to-0, on Monday night; Alpha Chi Sigma won over Phi Kappa Psi, Tuesday night, by one first down to none for the losers; and Chi Phi defeated Sigma Tau Phi by two first downs to none.

Results of the cross-country tournament placed Delta Theta Sigma and Beta Theta Pi into a tie for first place. Each team scored 21 points. Unit 6 of the Penn State Club was third with 27 points, while Delta Upsilon placed fourth with 41.

Norris, of Delta Theta Sigma, took individual honors when he covered the 1 1/2 mile course in 10 minutes. Brown of Sigma Phi Alpha was second with Neidig, Alpha Chi Sigma, coming in third. Delta Theta Sigma and Beta Theta Pi will run off the tie next Thursday. The winning team will receive the cross-country trophy.

Intramural bowling for the first half of the current season has started with twelve teams entered. Delta Upsilon, last year's winner, is one of the chief contenders.

The final round of the horseshoe tournament will be played next Thursday, weather permitting. The teams entered in the finals are Beta Theta Pi, Theta Kappa Epsilon, Delta Theta Sigma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Delta Theta, and Alpha Gamma Rho.

Spirit of '87 Pigskin Pioneers Hovers Over 50th Grid Season

"We have met the enemy and they are ours; nine to nothing."

And so the first football season began at Penn State. The pigskin warriors of 1881 were the football pioneers at State. They challenged Bucknell and were accepted. On a muddy field and in a drizzling rain they vanquished their foe.

The captain sent the above message by telegraph to Bellefonte where it was relayed by messenger to State College. The postmaster tacked it above the general delivery window to satisfy the curiosity of the students. The team returned by train and horse-dribbles about midnight, but an enthusiastic student body was on hand to greet them.

Not until 1887 did the College have a representative football team. That year, only two games were played, both with Bucknell. The Nittany Lion was decisively victorious in both, 54-to-0 and 24-to-0. From 1887 to 1890 the members of that first team spread the strength of State to Dickinson, Lehigh, Lafayette, Franklin and Marshall, and the University of Pennsylvania.

In those days the athlete received no awards. But the "first football team" was honored by their Alma Mater in New York in 1922. Individual gold footballs, similar to the present day award to Penn State's varsity gridmen, were presented to the honored guests. Coach Hugo Bezdek made the presentation. On one side of the gold football there was an enameled S with 1887 above and the individual's name below. On the other side of the award was the phrase "First Penn State Team."

At one time there was some dispute as to which year marked the beginning of football here. It is recognized that a group of students played Bucknell in 1881, but the team of 1887 marks the first beginning of a systematically organized series of teams that have followed ever since.

Dairy Team Competes

State's dairy products judging team took tenth place in a recent contest at Atlantic City. The team was composed of William W. Walker Jr. '37, Wayne E. Oliver '39, and Arnold M. Zwicky '37, with James M. Kyner '38 and William R. Rathgeb '37 as alternates. They took second place in judging milk and eighth place in judging butter. Prof. Francis J. Doan of the dairy manufacturing staff was coach.

Lord Tennyson's epic poem becomes the inspiration for one of the mightiest pictures ever filmed.

"Forward, the Light Brigade!"
Was there a man dismayed?
Not though the soldiers knew
Some one had blundered:
Theirs not to make reply,
Theirs not to reason why,
Theirs but to do and die:
Into the valley of Death
Rode the six hundred.
