College Girls' Fad Causes Boom In Nation's Earmuff Industry

Which do you prefer? Plaids? Pastels? Plain colors? Over-head spring? Back-head spring? Velvet and cotton fleece? Fur-covered? How much do you wish to pay? You can get them from ten cents up to $1.50 a pair. Or don't you care about the latest style recurrence? What is it? Why—earmuffs, of course! It is related in an article in the February issue of Fortune Magazine how the return to earmuffs led by college girls has caused a boom in an industry that has depended almost entirely on the business given to them by policemen, firemen, and mailmen. According to Fortune, the boom was

'40 Cage Forces Face Strong Bucknell Five

With a strong Bucknell freshman team supplying the opposition, Penn State's freshman basketball forces face a severe test when they tangle in Recreation Hall Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Dismissing the 35-20 victory over Dickinson Seminary in the opening game a week ago last Saturday as a "deplorable showing," Coach Nick Thiel resumed practice sessions yesterday afternoon with an emphatic declaration that all positions were "wide open."

Balked by final week and student registration, the freshmen have not practiced since their last-minute conquest of Dickinson. Meanwhile, Bucknell, a member of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Basketball League for the first time, has romped through to four straight victories since its loss to the St. Thomas yearlings in the season opener a month ago.

Leading the visitors' offense will be Homer Knox, speedy forward, who has amassed thirty-six points in two games. Bill Riley will fill the other forward post. Others slated to start for Bucknell are Joe Dibbin, center, and Dave Heffner and George Klick, guards. Klick played fullback on the freshman grid squad.

Farm Show History

"The History of Pennsylvania Farm Shows" written by Dr. George F. Johnson, of the agricultural extension service, was released at the recent annual Farm Show.

In his history, Dr. Johnson reviews the early fairs and shows in the State, as far back as 1886. He describes how the present annual State-wide shows evolved from the early fairs. The first of the present series began in January, 1917.

A big, mid-western earmuff manufacturer, Osborn Brothers of Chicago, followed also with a bright-colored line of earmuffs—relates Fortune—and then the A. J. Donohue Corporation of New York City entered the earmuff business, claiming full credit for bringing earmuffs to the masses.

Quoting Fortune—"Most earmuffs are made of velvet and cotton fleece, but both Osborn and Greenwood sell fur-covered earmuffs, which are considered best. The Donohue variety is made chiefly of felt lined with velvet."

"The earmuff makers are still fighting the prejudice against earmuffs in the larger cities, where earmuffs are almost inevitably associated with celluloid collars and red flannel underwear."

But, not so at Penn State! Eh?

Claudette Colbert says: "My throat is safest with a light smoke"

"An actress' throat is naturally very important to her. After experimenting, I'm convinced my throat is safest with a light smoke and that's why you'll find Luckies always on hand both in my home and in my dressing room. I like the flavor of other cigarettes also, but frankly, Luckies appeal most to my taste."

Claudette Colbert STAR OF PARAMOUNT'S FORTHCOMING "MAID OF SALEM" DIRECTED BY FRANK LLOYD

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke. Miss Colbert verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen, and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat!
