

Center Cagers Will Meet Here

Teams Representing Schuylkill, Fayette, DuBois, Hazleton Enter Competition

Basketball teams from the four college undergraduate centers will compete here this week-end in a tournament to decide the championship of the centers. The four teams are DuBois, Fayette, Hazleton, and Schuylkill.

The semi-finals will be held tonight in Recreation Hall, the first game starting at 7 o'clock and the second tilt at 8:30. It will be decided this afternoon which teams will play each other in the semi-finals although it is expected that the schools from the Western part of the state will meet those from the Eastern section.

The basketball team of the Schuylkill center at Pottsville won the inter-center title last year. A trophy will be given to the team that takes this year's title, the trophy to be awarded at a dinner to be held at a later date. All of the games are open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Houck's Cub Boxers Face Pitt Tomorrow

Penn State's freshmen boxing team will meet the Pitt yearlings in Recreation hall tomorrow at 1:30 o'clock. It will be the second test for Coach Leo Houck's Cub battlers.

The 115 pound representative will be chosen from J. N. Jones, E. Wilson, or W. J. Smith, with Jones holding a slight edge. Desider Simkow, who was impressive in winning his bout against Bucknell, will probably fight at 125, although Coach Houck is also considering Dan Diebler, who fought at 135 last week.

Kennedy, Jampetro, and Espy are trying for the 135 weight position. Bernie Sandson, knockout winner over the Bisons, will fight at 145. Frank Silvestri, also a KO victor, is being pressed by Blair, Olmstead, Koran and Rose for the 155 pound spot.

Kob and Iekes are the 165 pound aspirants, while Quailly seems to have the edge at light-heavyweight. Nat Handler who scored a KO against Bucknell, will hold down his heavy-weight post.

All-College Meet Set For Next Wednesday

Coach Chick Werner has set Wednesday, February 17, for the all-college track meet, after postponing the events in order that students competing might condition themselves and that more participants might register for the meet.

No lettermen of the varsity track team will be permitted to compete, and special call is made for freshmen to enter the meet. Approximately thirty students have already signed up.

The events will be: 70-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard run, 880-yard run, and the mile. Other activities will be pole vault, high jump, 35 lb. weight throw, high hurdles, and low hurdles. Ribbons will be given to the first five who place in each event.

Track managers are issuing a call for second assistant managers. Those interested are requested to report in the locker room of Rec hall any afternoon at 4 o'clock.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

By CHARLES M. WHEELER, JR.

The wrestling tournament will get under way Monday after the final entries and the weighing in ceremonies are taken care of this week. This tournament should provide some interesting individual competition. The entry list has been open longer than for any other phase of the intramural program this year.

Championship of the A division of the handball tourney is near with Jerry Weinstein looming as the probable winner for the third successive year. He is the only undefeated man in the contests staged so far. Red Ochsner, regarded as the probable contender for the title held by the COLLEGIAN reporter, was beaten by Selwyn Freed in a surprise result earlier in the week. Ochsner, soccer player, and Weinstein to tie for the title. Should he do that he would have to meet Jerry again for the crown.

Ochsner, who has not been feeling well for quite some time, and who had not worked out before his match with Freed, is seriously considering forfeiting to Mandel, which would automatically give the crown to Weinstein again.

In the class B brackets in handball, George Drugotch will meet Nick Wassel this week in one semi-final match, and George Mervin and Eugene Lesko will face each other in the other this week. The champ will be determined next week. The following week, doubles competition will begin.

In the swimming competition, Sigma Nu won by forfeit from Alpha Chi Sigma, Tau Kappa Epsilon defeated Alpha Tau Omega, 31-26, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon beat Sigma Chi, 22 1/2-20 1/2.

Latest results in the rapidly advancing volleyball competition has Beaver House taking Phi Delta Theta, 2-0-1, Phi Epsilon Pi topping Alpha Chi Rho, 2-0-1, Beta Theta Pi defeating Alpha Kappa Pi, 2-0-0, Phi Kappa beating, Unit 6, 2-0-1, the Associated Commons Club solving Theta Chi, 2-0-1, Sigma Phi Alpha sinking, Sigma Tau Phi, 2-0-1, and Theta Xi taking a forfeit from Phi Kappa Tau.

On Tuesday six basketball tourney eliminations were run off. Miller Club took the measure of Sigma Tau Phi, 30-10-15, Delta Theta Sigma beat Gerard, 34-10-7, Phi Kappa edged Phi Sigma Delta, 25-10-23, Unit 6's seconds swamped Pi Kappa Phi, 43-10-12 and Tau Phi Delta ruined Alpha Zeta, 33-10-17.

Gym Squad Embarks For Meet With Navy

Penn State's gymnastics team travels to Annapolis today to take on Navy's powerful aggregation tomorrow, in a meet in which Coach Julian Glasser holds little hope against the well-balanced Midshipmen.

Instead of the nine men who made the trip to West Point last week-end only eight will go to Annapolis, since it was learned today that Franny McGrail is ineligible because of scholarship.

Those who will leave for Annapolis at noon today are Captain Ray Matern, Ray Runkle, Sam Beck, Mat Rorabaugh, Jerry Suydam, Julian Parton, Guy Close, Al Klugman, and Manager Henry Wagner.

Although the team as a whole came out of the Army meet in pretty good shape, a few of the boys have sore hands, and Mat Rorabaugh may be hampered by a sore wrist.

Lion Matmen To Face Pitt Here Tomorrow

135-pound division in meeting Pitt's Russ Bodillion. Jack Light being in training for his second meet will need the experience of this meet in the process of conditioning. He meets Lawrence Roofner in the 145-pound tussle.

With John Calvin out again the 155-pound class is being seriously contested by Shollenberger, Eschbach, Shingley, and Houck, with the latter having the experience of the Chicago meet. The Panther matman at 155 is Harold Neible. Krupa is still overweight and is barred from eliminations until he gets down to 170 to meet Don Bachman for the right of representation in the 165-pound bout against Roger Illsley.

Ross Shaffer takes his spotless record of the season on the mats against Luther Richards, Pitt footballer, in the 175-pound match.

W. B. "Dutch" Lehman of Franklin and Marshall will be the third man during the battles.

the man with the million dollar throat insists on a light smoke

"My voice is my career. It has inspired more than five million people to confide in me their personal problems. During 25 years, first on the lecture platform and then on the air, I have never missed a single engagement because of my throat. I am a steady smoker, and because my throat and voice are vital to my career I insist upon a light smoke. In Luckies I find a light smoke plus the enjoyment of fine tobacco... and that's why Lucky Strikes have been my choice for 14 years."

"THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

"The Voice of Experience" verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
